

Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA) Release Form

The Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA) protects the privacy of student records by requiring prior written consent before disclosing personally identifiable information to a third party. It applies to colleges and universities that receive funding from the federal government.

Records created and maintained by the Financial Aid Office and Business Office are considered to be education records and may not be disclosed without the student's consent.

By signing this form, you are giving permission to allow the Financial Aid Office and Business Office to disclose personally identifiable financial and academic information to the person(s) listed. This will remain in effect until you, the student, rescind the permission in writing.
