

Legal Notices

This Catalog is intended to give a realistic statement of admissions requirements and procedures, academic policies and practice, programs of instruction, college expenses, financial aid programs, etc. The College must reserve the right, however, to change, without notice if necessary, statements in the Catalog concerning policies, academic offerings, rules of conduct, charges, and to make any other alterations as circumstances may require. Furthermore, the course listings are offered primarily with the degree student in mind. A student who plans to attend Bryan fewer than two years should ascertain whether the courses desired will be taught during the anticipated enrollment period.

Bryan College does not discriminate on the basis of sex, race, color, age, national origin, or ethnic group in the education programs and activities which it operates according to the Civil Rights Act of 1964, and Title IX of the Education Amendment of 1972, Public Law 92-318. Nor does the College discriminate against qualified handicapped persons, according to the requirements of Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Public Law 93-112. This policy extends to both employment and admission to the College. Under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 “religious organizations” and “religious educational institutions” are exempt from religious discrimination provisions. Bryan College is both a “religious organization” and a “religious educational institution.”

In conformity with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), Bryan College requires individuals (applicants, employees, or students) to identify specific requests for reasonable accommodations that may be necessary due to the existence of a qualified disability.

Inquiries should be directed as follows. Regarding Title IX or ADA, contact the campus ADA Coordinator. Regarding Section 504, contact the Vice President of Finance. The address and phone numbers for both are the same. Bryan College, 721 Bryan Drive, Dayton, TN 37321. The phone number is (423) 775.2041.
