

BRYAN COLLEGE FINANCIAL AID POLICIES AND CONDITIONS

- The Financial Aid Award Letter will be voided if and when the information used to determine the award amounts is revealed to be incorrect. Intentional false statements or misrepresentation on any of the financial aid materials may subject the filer to a fine or imprisonment, or both, under provision of the U.S. Criminal Code. If you determine corrections need to be made to any of the information you previously submitted to apply for financial aid, please contact the Bryan College Financial Aid Office for assistance.
- Any outside grants or scholarships you receive must be reported to the Financial Aid Office and may require an adjustment to your aid package as required by federal regulations.
- If you withdraw from Bryan College you may be expected to repay an appropriate amount of aid awarded for the semester in which you withdraw. The refund policy is printed in the Bryan College catalog.
- You must maintain satisfactory academic progress as described in the Bryan College catalog in order to continue to receive financial aid while attending Bryan College.
- Financial aid is not automatically renewable. A Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA), (if applicable) must be submitted for each academic year.
- All loan programs require the borrower to sign a promissory note and complete entrance counseling before the loan is processed and funds are disbursed to Bryan College.
- Institutional scholarships and grants will be posted to your Business Office account at the beginning of each semester. All other aid will not be posted to your account until the money is received.
- Funds in excess of tuition, fees, room, board, and books charged with bookstore vouchers will be disbursed upon request to the student or parent if a PLUS Loan is the source of the funds, after the last date of registration each semester.
- Federal Work Study Participants: Actual job availability, hours worked, and amount earned cannot be guaranteed. Receiving a job is competitive and you must be hired by a supervisor. If employed, actual earnings may vary from eligibility amount. You will receive monthly paychecks for work performed; earnings WILL NOT be credited to your Business Office account.
- All recipients of academic-based scholarships must maintain the required grade point averages stated in the Bryan College catalog in order to keep 100% of their scholarship. If you lose a percentage of your scholarship and bring your grade point average back up to the stated requirements, you will receive the full amount of your scholarship. Recipients may also be asked and agree to participate in recruiting events, including the housing of prospective students on campus during a scholarship event.
- All recipients of Bryan scholarships or grants acknowledge that these awards in part come from generous donors of the college. By accepting the award you agree to participate in activities to show your appreciation and that you may be asked to assist in fundraising activities during your time as a student.
- All Bryan scholarships and grants are subject to a 25% reduction if a student lives off campus and not in the same residence as their parent(s) prior to the age of 22.
- All recipients of performance-based (athletic, music or theatre) scholarships are required to live on campus.
- Hope Scholarship Renewal Criteria: Eligibility shall be reviewed at the end of the semesters in which the student has attempted a total of 24, 48, 72, 96, and 120 semester hours. Students must have a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.75 after 24 or 48 attempted hours or a minimum cumulative GPA of 3.0 after 72, 96, and 120 attempted hours or a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.75 and a last term GPA of 3.0 after 72, 96, and 120 attempted hours. Students must maintain continuous enrollment.
- Non-institutional gift aid such as Title IV (federal) funds, state grants, and outside scholarships will be applied first to tuition and then room and board (if applicable). Institutional aid is always applied last and cannot be applied to fees. If a student has a credit balance caused by institutional aid and outside scholarships, the student is not eligible for a refund. The institutional aid will be reduced to remove the credit; however, the student is entitled to a book voucher of $500 per semester if the credit situation includes an outside scholarship of at least $500 per semester. A meal plan cannot be added to an off campus student's account and be covered by an institutional credit.
- Bryan scholarships or grants may be replaced by other types of aid.
