OUR MISSION

Educating students to become servants of Christ to make a difference in today's world

A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT OF THE COLLEGE

Selecting a college is one of the most important decisions of your life, and yet is often one of the most challenging. The most critical question which you will ask to enable you to make that decision is this: “Is this the best college to prepare me vocationally to fulfill God’s calling on my life, equip me to engage the culture from a Christian world and life view, and encourage me to walk worthy of our Lord Jesus Christ, fully pleasing Him?”

As a Christian liberal arts college, Bryan will challenge you academically to think critically regarding the world of ideas while affirming the truth of the Word of God as the foundation of all life and learning. We believe that the study of every discipline should enable you to see God’s creative hand and give Him glory through its pursuit. Bryan provides the type of academic rigor which prepares you to enter the best graduate and professional schools while growing in faith and the spiritual disciplines.

Success in life is dependent upon gaining the tools which allow you to understand your discipline of study, think clearly and creatively, and articulate your ideas in an effective way. A Bryan education will put you on a path of lifelong learning and living a life of true significance. I trust this Catalog will provide you with sufficient information to help you make one of life’s most important decisions. Bryan College – dedicated to understanding, engaging, and redeeming our culture for Christ’s kingdom.

Douglas F. Mann, Ph.D.
President

Brief History

Founded in 1930, Bryan College is situated on a beautiful 125-acre wooded hilltop in the Tennessee Valley community of Dayton, Tennessee. Bryan College is an independent, coeducational, Christian liberal arts college named for William Jennings Bryan (1860-1925), a prominent statesman in American political life. As an orator and national leader, Mr. Bryan promoted the interests of the “common man” and defended the authority of the Bible as a foundation for public and private values.

Institutional Distinctives

Chartered in 1930 under the laws of Tennessee as a general welfare corporation with the basic purpose of providing “for the higher education of men and women under auspices distinctly Christian and spiritual,” the College has responded to changing times with various modifications of its educational program. Bryan College was established as a four-year undergraduate college of arts and sciences, although until 1958 the corporate title used the term “University.” In December, 2005 the College was authorized by the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges to offer its first graduate degree: the Master of Business Administration. The goals for institutional development and the changing climate in American higher education will continue to influence the educational program. However, the original institutional purpose as a Christian liberal arts college remains unchanged.

With an awareness of its heritage and a commitment to its future, the College endeavors to serve its constituencies by traditional and novel means. Bryan College maintains the following distinctives as part of its vision for the next century.

Bryan College has developed and will maintain:

- ◆ An identity as a Christian liberal arts college which is evangelical, nondenominational, and regionally accredited.
- ◆ A firm biblical emphasis, both in curriculum and in principles for everyday life, based upon unequivocal acceptance of the inerrancy and authority of the Scriptures.
- ◆ A Christian worldview as the foundation for the engagement of faith, learning, and living.
- ◆ A competent faculty committed to a quality academic program.
- ◆ A balanced position regarding theological beliefs, daily life and conduct, and educational philosophy and practice.
- ◆ A close bond of fellowship and a sense of community under the Lordship of Jesus Christ that fosters positive relationships among faculty and students of diverse backgrounds.
- ◆ A commitment to a progressive approach in addressing the technological nature of our changing society.
- ◆ A setting of natural beauty where lake and mountains meet, ideal for serious study and growth.

Institutional Mission and Purpose

Bryan College’s mission is “educating students to become servants of Christ to make a difference in today’s world.” The College seeks to assist in the personal growth and development of qualified students by providing an education based upon an integrated understanding of the Bible and the liberal arts.

Educational Distinctives

In order to maintain its distinctives and pursue its institutional purpose, the Bryan College community strives together to accomplish seven educational distinctives:

1. Students will develop a knowledge of the Bible and the liberal arts and an ability to harmonize that knowledge through an understanding of their relationships.
2. Students will develop competency in one or more subjects as a foundation for graduate studies or vocations related to the disciplines of Christian Thought, Humanities, Sciences, and Social Sciences.
3. Students will demonstrate academic excellence by thinking critically, working independently and cooperatively, communicating clearly, and expressing themselves creatively.
4. Students will develop wholesome attitudes, healthful habits, responsible citizenship, constructive interests and skills, and the recognition that education is a continuing process for both faculty and students.
5. Students, faculty, and staff will serve the local community and the Bryan constituency with academic and creative experiences and consultative services in ways consistent with the educational philosophy, purpose, and resources of the College.
6. Students will mature spiritually and engage in opportunities for Christian leadership, ministry, service, worship, and discipleship.
7. Students will enhance their undergraduate and graduate education and participate in research projects and colloquia conducted by Bryan's faculty, academic departments, and affiliate and ancillary organizations.

(These Educational Distinctives apply to all undergraduate and graduate degree programs except in the case of on-line programs where distinctives #5, #6, and #7 are abridged due to the limitations of distance learning.)

LEARNING OUTCOMES

Students will make a difference in today's world by:

1. Strengthening their educational foundation
2. Developing a Christian worldview
3. Engaging the culture
4. Exploring the arts
5. Understanding the natural world

(These Learning Outcomes apply to all undergraduate degree programs.
Specific Learning Outcomes for each graduate degree are listed with those programs.)

ESSENTIAL BELIEFS

The college charter states that no sectarian test or statement of belief is to be imposed on any student. It also specifies that anyone serving as a trustee, officer, or member of the faculty or staff must subscribe to the Statement of Belief, which appears below. The College's religious position and control, educational philosophy, and community life standards are consequential outcomes of the Statement of Belief.

Statement of Belief

This Statement of Belief is reported to have been formulated and adopted at the 1919 Philadelphia Convention of the World's Christian Fundamentals Association, an interdenominational Protestant evangelical organization of that period. Consequently, it is a nonsectarian statement of evangelical orthodoxy. Its adoption as the religious position of the College was appropriate in view of the fact that Bryan was organized by leaders from various religious denominations and chartered as a non-sectarian institution. The college community continues to represent a wide spectrum of religious denominations and the normal divergence which is characteristic of the larger American evangelical community.

The College, as an evangelical Christian community, endeavors to create an atmosphere in which personal commitment to Christ and Christian standards of behavior will be forthcoming. Trustees, administrative officers, faculty, and staff affirm annually their faith and commitment by subscribing to the Statement of Belief.

The Bryan College Statement of Belief

We believe:

- that the holy Bible, composed of the Old and New Testaments, is of final and supreme authority in faith and life, and, being inspired by God, is inerrant in the original writings;
- in God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Ghost, this Trinity being one God, eternally existing in three persons;
- in the virgin birth of Jesus Christ; that He was born of the virgin Mary and begotten of the Holy Spirit;
- that the origin of man was by fiat of God in the act of creation as related in the Book of Genesis; that he was created in the image of God; that he sinned and thereby incurred physical and spiritual death*;
- that all human beings are born with a sinful nature, and are in need of a Savior for their reconciliation to God;
- that the Lord Jesus Christ is the only Savior, that He was crucified for our sins, according to the Scriptures, as a voluntary representative and substitutionary sacrifice, and all who believe in Him and confess Him before men are justified on the grounds of His shed blood;
- in the resurrection of the crucified body of Jesus, in His ascension into Heaven, and in “that blessed hope,” the personal return to this earth of Jesus Christ, and He shall reign forever;
- in the bodily resurrection of all persons, judgment to come, the everlasting blessedness of the saved, and the everlasting punishment of the lost.

* Clarified in 2014 - We believe that all humanity is descended from Adam and Eve. They are historical persons created by God in a special formative act, and not from previously existing life forms.

Religious Position and Control

The College is controlled by a self-perpetuating Board of Trustees, the maximum complement of which is thirty, in three classes of ten each with staggered terms. The charter and bylaws state that the members of the board shall be “born again Christian men and women with a sound Christian testimony.” The names of the members of the Board of Trustees appear elsewhere in this Catalog.

In policy and practice, the College strives to cooperate with local churches, each member of the college community choosing his own place of worship and service. In general, the College refrains from scheduling any official activities at times which would conflict with the regular schedule of local churches. In actual practice, the College has emphasized two major principles: first, the relevancy of the message of the Bible for today and, second, the unity in the body of Christ of all who are Christians by spiritual rebirth.

Because Bryan is a college and not a church or denomination, it does not seek to wield ecclesiastical power and influence; neither does it set itself up as a judge on such matters, nor does it attempt to prescribe what other Christians shall do. The trustees do not legislate “stands” for faculty or students, nor are loyalty pledges sought from the alumni. All matters necessary to the college community relationship are laid down in the Charter and Bylaws, the Catalog, the Faculty Handbook, and the Community Standards. The institutional emphasis is placed on a positive application of the principle of loyalty to Christ and of seeking to honor Him.

Some movements and institutions sharing the same heritage as Bryan's have adopted an exclusive policy whereas others have taken an inclusivist position; but Bryan endeavors to maintain the position it has held from the very beginning. The College believes that this position is consistent with its history, its current development, and the principles of a Christian liberal arts college.

Educational Philosophy

Bryan College is founded upon the belief that God is the author of truth; that He has revealed Himself to humanity through nature, conscience, the Bible, and Jesus Christ; that it is His will for all people to come to a knowledge of truth; and that an integrated study of the liberal arts and the Bible, with a proper emphasis on the spiritual, mental, social, and physical aspects of life, will lead to the balanced development of the whole person. All programs incorporate a Christian worldview as the foundation for the engagement of faith, learning, and living.

The opportunity for such study should be available to all students who meet admission standards, regardless of their sex, race, creed, color, national or ethnic origin, disability, or age. Although students are neither required to subscribe to any statement of belief nor placed under any duress with regard to their religious position, the college leadership desires that its graduates will ultimately find their lives transformed by the living Christ, being filled with the Holy Spirit, and consistently practicing a thoroughly Christian lifestyle which grows from a well-developed biblical worldview. These graduates should be well-integrated persons and mature citizens who accept their responsibility to glorify God and serve others.

Community Life Standards

In matters of social life and personal conduct, College personnel aspire to exemplify the College motto, "Christ Above All." Emphasis is placed on the positive application of the principles of loyalty to Christ and seeking to honor Him rather than on a code of controls. Love and reverence for God, respect and care for the personal self, courtesy and concern toward others, and respect for the law are broad principles which govern the conduct of all College personnel.

The trustees, administration, faculty, and staff of the College believe that the following standards of conduct and behavior are meaningful guidelines for our community, are necessary for carrying out our mission, and apply to all persons employed by Bryan College, including adjunct and full-time faculty, and full-time and part-time staff.

1. To enable our mission, all employees of the College must be professing Christians who concur with and support the Bryan College Statement of Belief.
2. To continually refresh our spiritual life and maintain our core values, all employees of the College, consistent with the Bryan College Statement of Belief, are expected to be maturing followers of Christ and active in the life of a local church.
3. To live a life of holiness and foster a loving community, all employees are expected to avoid impropriety and abstain from practices prohibited in or inferred from scripture. These behaviors include, but are not limited to, dishonesty, theft, vandalism, immodest dress, profanity, gossip, drunkenness, pornography, and sexual sins (fornication, adultery, homosexual behavior).
4. To be good citizens as the Bible calls us to be, all employees should submit to and pray for governmental authority over them.
5. To model scholarship with integrity, all employees must refrain from academic dishonesty, including cheating and plagiarism.
6. To cultivate an emotionally healthy lifestyle, all employees will abstain from the use of illegal drugs and from the misuse of prescription drugs. They will also refrain from the use of legal substances for the purposes of altering one's psychological or physiological state in a way not recommended by medical professionals.

7. For the purposes of student and employee safety and to encourage the respect of all persons, all employees are prohibited from using or possessing alcohol on campus, during Bryan-sponsored events off-campus, in the presence of students at private gatherings, or while operating any vehicle while on College business. In addition, all employees are prohibited from using tobacco products on campus, during Bryan-sponsored events off-campus, or while operating College vehicles.

The following statements relating to Human Sexuality, Gender Identity, and Abortion are incorporated into the Bryan College Community Life Standards.

Bryan College Statement on Human Sexuality

At Bryan College we are committed to a biblical worldview that seeks to glorify God, recognizing and affirming Christ as Sovereign in every aspect of the created order and in every sphere of human endeavor. There is nothing over which He is not preeminent and to which He is irrelevant. As such, our mission as a Christian college is to equip students in mind and character, to help them connect the rigorous work of the mind to the Spirit's sanctifying work in the heart—thus facilitating an intellectual and spiritual transformation. The desired outcome is an inherently consistent inner life or character manifested in an outward obedience or observable action consistent with that character.

In order to facilitate this process of Christ-like character development we knowingly and voluntarily embrace and commit to community standards of conduct that we believe are congruent with biblical standards and conducive to a life of spiritual integrity. We aspire to be a college community where thoughtful and caring engagement with the deepest questions of life and personal identity can be examined in light of the authority of the Biblical Scriptures, and in view of our common human sinfulness and brokenness. These Standards of Conduct (as found in our Student and Employee Handbooks) reflect and express our desire and commitment to help the members of our community to live “in Christ,” to develop a Christ-like maturity in their daily practices, and to encourage a healthy, vibrant Christian college community.

In keeping with our mission and our commitment to biblical fidelity, all members of the College community are expected to follow the teachings of Scripture. We believe that the only authoritative and trustworthy norm for proper moral judgments is what God has revealed in His Word. Therefore, Bryan College affirms that sexual intimacy is designed by God to be expressed solely within a marriage between one man and one woman. This view of sexuality and marriage is rooted in the Genesis account of creation, reflected in the teachings of Jesus Christ Himself, and is maintained consistently throughout Scripture. It is a view based on the biblical teaching of monogamy—that God designed sexual union for the purpose of uniting one man and one woman into a permanent, lifelong, one flesh union in the context of marriage. God created two complementary forms of humans, male and female, to bear His image together (Gen. 1:27-28), and ordained that the first human pair were to become one flesh (Gen. 2:23-24). These and other similar passages show that God views sex, procreation and marriage as good, and that male and female are necessary counterparts—differentiated partners—in a sexual complementarity. Sexual intimacy and the sexual union of intercourse between a man and a woman are intended for a purpose—to join one husband and one wife together into one flesh in the context of marriage (I Cor. 6:16).

Our marriages on earth model the relationship between Christ and His bride, the church (Eph. 5:31-33), a melding that the Apostle Paul calls “a profound mystery”. This God-initiated oneness, as detailed in Genesis, is clearly recognized and affirmed by Jesus in terms of the marital union of husband and wife (Matt. 19:4-6). Any sexual intimacy outside of marriage violates God's design for marriage and is thus to be understood as one of the disruptive consequences of the fall (Rom. 1:18-32).

Thus, God's design for marriage and sexuality is the foundational reason for viewing acts of sexual intimacy between a man and a woman outside of marriage, and any act of sexual intimacy between two persons of the same sex, as illegitimate moral options for the confessing Christian. Sexual relations of any kind outside the confines of marriage between one man and one woman are inconsistent with the teaching of Scripture, as understood by Christian churches throughout history. On the other hand, chastity in the form of sexual purity for the unmarried person and chastity in the form of sexual faithfulness in marriage are blessed and affirmed. Therefore, as part of living out a consistent, biblical spirituality, one dedicated to the pursuit of Christ-likeness, all members of the College are expected to avoid sexual intimacy outside of marriage and to discourage others from indulging in that behavior. Indeed, whatever one's personal tendencies and desires, the call of Christ on our lives is the same: sexual purity manifested among the married as complete faithfulness and by those who are unmarried by living a chaste life (I Thess. 4:3-8).

Sexual purity honors God. For those in our community who are attracted to persons of the opposite sex and struggle to maintain sexual purity, as well as for those in our community who struggle with same-sex behavior, same-sex attraction and/or sexual orientation issues, we aspire to be a gracious community that promotes openness and honesty. We pledge to extend compassion and care, providing accountability and assistance as we support all members of our community—students, staff and faculty—in their desire to live consistently with Christian love, prayerfulness and care, and all members of the Bryan community are expected to treat one another with respect and Christ-like compassion. Hateful, bigoted or destructive interactions will not be tolerated.

It is expected that no member of the Bryan community (faculty, staff, administrative personnel, and all students, including those students who use Bryan-sanctioned venues such as, but not limited to, student publications and chapel events) will publically support or advocate any unbiblical behavior as defined above or in any of our standards. Furthermore, the institution reserves the right to terminate any employee or dismiss any student who violates the standards mentioned above.

We believe in accordance with Scripture, that we are all sinful and that we sin in different ways. The God who knows us intimately, all of our thoughts and deeds, provides not only redemption through Christ, but also promises forgiveness for all of our sins and freedom from the power of sin. Therefore, a primary goal is to help each student and member of the Bryan community to grow in Christ in the midst of his or her unique history and struggles and discern how to walk righteously with Him and others along the way.

It is our prayer that by the grace of God, as we follow Christ as the authority over every aspect of our lives, that our love may abound more and more with knowledge and all discernment, so that we may approve what is excellent, and so be pure and blameless until the day of Christ...to the glory and praise of God (Phil. 1:9-11).

Bryan College Statement on Gender Identification

Based on the mission of Bryan College, its standards, and uniqueness as a living and learning environment that honors Jesus Christ, the College recognizes that some members of the Bryan Community (faculty, staff, administrative personnel, and students) may struggle with their gender identity and wish to explore living as a particular gender other than their original gender assignment from birth. When a member of the Bryan Community is cooperative and willing to explore these feelings in an appropriate setting and not act out the feelings, the College will allow them to continue being a part of the Bryan community if they are pursuing counseling and a mentoring relationship that will help them discuss appropriately who God made them to be. In this process, however, the College will uphold a view that we are “fearfully and wonderfully made” (Psalms 139:14) in the uniqueness and image of God and, therefore, strategically and purposefully made as the biological gender we were born as. Because of this belief, the College will not allow a student or any member of the Bryan Community of a particular gender to dress and act differently than the biological one that God created them to be nor to use college facilities (including, but not limited to, restrooms, dorms, locker rooms) other than those designated for their original gender assignment from birth. If a member of the Bryan community decides to identify as a gender other than their biological one or pursues a medical course of action to physically change their biological gender to that of another sex, it is in their best interest and that of Bryan College for them to leave the Bryan College community. Bryan College reserves the right to terminate any member of the faculty or staff and dismiss any student from the Community for violating this basic understanding of human life. It is expected that no member of the Bryan Community will publically promote or advocate anything contrary to the position stated above.

Bryan College Statement on Human Life

Bryan College holds that all human life is sacred and is God’s greatest blessing and, therefore, must be respected and protected from its conception to its completion. The taking of a human life through any means (including but not limited to abortion, homicide or suicide) is considered abhorrent. We, therefore, prohibit all members of the Bryan Community (faculty, staff, administrative personnel, and students) from promoting or participating in any act of, or related to, aborting a child whether such a child is pre-birth or post-birth. Bryan College reserves the right to terminate any member of the faculty or staff and dismiss any student from the Community for violating this basic understanding of human life. Bryan College understands that in cases where a pregnancy may put at risk the very life of a mother, triage decisions must be made within the private context of woman, her doctor, her pastor and her family.

The Honor Code

The Christian Life Standards apply directly to the academic area through the Bryan College Honor Code. The Honor Code is simply stated: “Every student shall be honor bound to refrain from cheating (including plagiarism). Every student shall be honor bound to refrain from stealing. Every student shall be honor bound to refrain from lying. Any violation of this Honor Code can result in dismissal from the College.” The Bryan College Honor Code is designed to enhance academic uprightness on the campus. However, in the event that a student engages in activity relating to dishonesty in their academics, they will be subject to outcomes explained below.

Academic Dishonesty

Students are expected to submit their own work and engage in their own research. The Community Life Standards and Bryan College Honor Code apply, but are not limited to, three specific areas in academics; plagiarism, cheating and falsification. The honor code defines cheating as using any resource that was not authorized by your professor. With that, the use of an Artificial Intelligence (AI) tool, such as but not limited to ChatGPT, without the consent of your professor is considered to be cheating and a violation of the honor code.

Plagiarism

In regard to plagiarism, the Chicago Manual of Style (2003) states “with all reuse of others’ materials, it is important to identify the original as the source.” (p. 136). Even when one uses other people’s thoughts or concepts without crediting them as the source they have stolen intellectual work. It is plagiarism to turn in any previously submitted work without the current professor’s prior written permission; without the prior permission, this will be considered self-plagiarism.

It is not plagiarism to quote material from a book, article, or web site as long as the author or source of the material is properly cited. Similarly, it is not plagiarism to copy a chart or a diagram from such a source, as long as the source is clearly credited. It is plagiarism to copy verbatim or closely paraphrase a chart or illustration, or material from any book, article, or web site without clearly identifying the source from which it was obtained.

Plagiarism is the intentional failure to give sufficient attribution to the words, ideas, or data of others that the student has incorporated into his/her work for the purpose of misleading the reader. In some cases, a student may be careless and fail to give credit to the words, ideas or data of others. In such situations, plagiarism has still occurred, but the professor may choose a sanction as deemed appropriate. In order to avoid plagiarism, students must conscientiously provide sufficient attribution. Attribution is sufficient if it adequately informs and, therefore, does not materially mislead a reasonable reader as to the true source of the words, ideas, or data. Students who have any doubt as to whether they have provided sufficient attribution have the responsibility to obtain guidance from their professor or other person to whom they are submitting their work.

Plagiarism in papers, projects or any assignment prepared for a class shall include the following:

- Omitting quotation marks or other conventional markings around material quoted from any printed source (including digital material)
- Directly quoting or paraphrasing a specific passage from a specific source without properly referencing the source
- Replicating another person's work or parts thereof and then submitting it as an original
- Purchasing a paper (or parts of a paper) and representing it as one's own work

Cheating

Cheating is a form of dishonesty in which a student gives the appearance of a level of knowledge or skill that the student has not obtained, provides unauthorized aid, or wrongly takes advantage of another's work. Examples include, but are not limited to:

- Copying from another person's work on an examination or an assignment
- Allowing another student to copy any portion of one's work on an examination or an assignment
- Using unauthorized materials or giving or receiving any other unauthorized assistance on an examination or an assignment
- Taking an examination or completing an assignment for another, or permitting another to take an examination or to complete an assignment for the student.
- Reusing a paper from a previous course
- Paying another student to complete a course, an individual assignment or exam

Falsification

Falsification is a form of dishonesty in which a student misrepresents the truth, invents facts, or distorts the origin or content of information used as authority. Examples include, but are not limited to:

- Dishonestly answering or providing information in the application process
- Citing a source that is known not to exist
- Attributing to a source ideas and information that are not included in the source
- Falsely citing a source in support of a thought or idea when it is known not to support the thought or idea
- Citing a source in a bibliography when the source was neither cited in the body of the paper nor consulted
- Intentionally distorting the meaning or applicability of data
- Inventing data or statistical results to support conclusions

Academic Implications of the Bryan College Honor Code

The Bryan College Honor Code is the expectation that each student is operating with full integrity - both inside and outside the classroom. As a reminder of this commitment, students must pledge to abide by the Honor Code in every class, use of the Learning Management System (LMS) to submit coursework is an inherent pledge the student is abiding by the Honor Code. The pledge means that, except where noted or when work is expected to be done jointly, the academic work submitted is that person's alone.

Violations & Appeals Procedure

To ensure a uniform, standardized process, all incidents of academic dishonesty will be reported by faculty using the Honor Code Violation Form. The Honor Code Violation Form will be submitted to the Dean, where decisions on student standing in regard to each reported event will be determined. The Honor Code Violation Form will become part of the official student record. Students who are found to be in violation of the Honor Code will face the following discipline as a minimum.

Upon the identification or perception of academic dishonesty, the faculty member will communicate with the student in writing – via email or the LMS. This communication will initiate either academic coaching or the referral process, and will require a meeting between the faculty and the student to review the academic dishonesty occurrence. Traditional undergraduate student meetings will occur no more than five business days after the initial communication. Bryan College online student meetings will occur no more than ten business days after the initial communication. Should a student fail to meet with the faculty member within a week of the faculty member's communication, this will result in an official referral for academic dishonesty/misconduct via the Honor Code Violation Form.

After an academic dishonesty violation has been reported, all stakeholders will receive notice from their Dean. The student has the right to appeal the accusation and the resulting sanction using the form provided in the notice. The appeal form must be completed within five business days of receiving notification regarding an honor code violation. The faculty member and Dean will review the appeal, and a decision will be forwarded to the student within five business days of receipt of student appeal. Appeals made after the 5-day window will not be considered valid.

Honor Code Offense Tiers

Faculty are to indicate the corresponding Tier in the Honor Code Violation Form. See below for the definition of the four Tiers, including limited examples.

Tier- 0: Coaching - For plagiarism only

Faculty are to coach the student about the improper writing incident and include coaching information in the Honor Code Violation form. Plagiarism within this document is defined as a small, isolated violation, e.g., in one or two brief parts of the paper, the student fails to acknowledge a source, leaves out quotation marks, or fails to change the wording and sentence structure of a paraphrase sufficiently—an offense that seems to be a result of momentary carelessness, a misunderstanding about documentation, or not having sufficiently developed the skill of paraphrasing.

Tier-1: Opportunistic honor code violation

Failing to cite several sentences worth of material in a paper or incorrectly citing sources.

Tier-2: Premeditated honor code violation

Such as a student submitting another's assignment as their own or cheating on a test. Tier-2 violations automatically escalate to Offense Level 2.

Tier-3: Severe honor code violation

Such as paying another to complete school work or gaining access to a grade book and making changes. Tier-3 violations automatically escalate to Offense Level 3 or 4.

Honor Code Offense Levels

Offense Level 0

The student will be penalized 10% of the total grade earned on the assignment. The faculty member will meet with the student and provide coaching on how to correct the deficiency within the timeframe mentioned above. The professor may also require the student to make an appointment at the Writing Support Center in the ARC to work on these skills.

After two instances of Tier 0 coaching the student will be required to go to the ARC for support and future instances will automatically move to a Tier 1/Level 1 violation.

Offense Level 1

Proportional reduction of points on the assignment or course. Academic shareholders are notified

Offense Level 1 referrals may require the student to (a) complete an online training module and, in instances of plagiarism, (b) meet with a designated ARC representative to ensure adequate understanding of the offense (academic writing tutoring will be encouraged).

Offense Level 2 - Automatic failure of assignment. Academic shareholders are notified.

Offense Level 2 or higher offenses may also require students to (a) complete an online training module; (b) meet with a designated ARC representative to ensure student understanding; (c) academic writing tutoring and follow-up meetings with a designated ARC representative will be required, and (d) meet with their respective dean.

Offense Level 3 – Course Failure. Academic shareholders are notified.

Offense Level 4 – Suspension from the College. Academic shareholders are notified.

Offense Level 5 – Expulsion from the College. Academic shareholders are notified.

HISTORY AND DEVELOPMENT

During his visit to Dayton in 1925 for the Scopes Evolution Trial, William Jennings Bryan (1860-1925) expressed the wish that a prep school and junior college for men might be established on one of Dayton's scenic hills. Following Mr. Bryan's death in Dayton on July 26, 1925, a memorial association with a national membership was formed to establish in Dayton an educational institution in his honor.

Bryan's Heritage

At the 1896 Democratic convention in Chicago, Mr. Bryan had become a national figure with his famous "Cross of Gold" speech, which brought him the first of the three nominations for the presidency. Though he lost all three presidential races, he was the leader of his party from 1896 through the first election of Woodrow Wilson in 1912 whose nomination he helped to secure. He served as Secretary of State in Wilson's first administration, and his energetic efforts for world peace in a world moving toward World War I resulted in the ratification by the U.S. Senate of twenty of the thirty treaties he had negotiated. The rising tide of pro-war feeling in America led to his resignation as Secretary of State in 1915, although he later supported the war effort and remained a leader in his political party. He was the foremost public orator of his day and was famous for his lectures on the Chautauqua circuit. As a public figure, he was a spokesman for prohibition and for biblical fundamentalism in the modernist-fundamentalist controversy which dominated the Protestant religious scene in America the first quarter of the century. Mr. Bryan's involvement in The State of Tennessee v. John Thomas Scopes in which he assisted the State of Tennessee in its prosecution of Mr. Scopes was logical, for Bryan participated as a champion of biblical Christianity against the encroachments into public education of the secular religion of materialistic Darwinism. After Mr. Bryan's death in Dayton on July 26, 1925, the Bryan Memorial University Association launched a national campaign to raise five million dollars, half for endowment and half for buildings. A wooded hilltop tract overlooking Dayton was obtained and construction began with high enthusiasm for the new institution. The immediate and continuing effect of the Depression caused the collapse of the fund-raising effort and the consequent halt to construction. Classes, however, opened on September 18, 1930, in the old Rhea County High School, which had been vacated that year for a new high school building nearby.

Bryan's Campus

From its modest beginning, the present campus of more than ten buildings set on a beautiful 125-acre campus emerged. Most of Bryan's physical facilities are relatively new. A brief description follows.

Mercer Hall

The central campus building is a 440-by 54-foot, three-story concrete, steel, and brick structure that houses the classrooms and staff offices. It was completely renovated in 2001.

The science laboratory complex occupies the south end of the third floor of the building while the north end of the floor provides labs and offices for the Engineering Department. This facility includes modern science and engineering labs and equipment, faculty offices, and lecture rooms outfitted with state-of-the-art technology.

Faculty and staff offices are located in the south wing of the main floor and consist of suites with four to six offices each. There are also three large lecture rooms in this wing. The administrative offices occupy the north wing of the main floor.

The ground floor consists primarily of classrooms and computer labs in addition to the mailroom, the campus store “Lion’s Pride”, and technology offices.

Latimer Student Center

The Erwin D. and Lane Latimer Student Center, completed in 2000, is a 39,000 square-foot building designed to enhance Bryan’s ability to accomplish its mission. It contains a 350-seat cafeteria and a 100-seat dining room for special events, the Prideland Grill (student café), a game room, fitness center, aerobics room, Student Government Association offices and the Office of Student Life.

Livesay Learning Center (Library)

Bryan College’s 15,000 square-foot library, housed in the Livesay Learning Center, provides study rooms, general study use seating for 259 users, a 30-workstation computer lab, 6 open-use PCs and access to over 842,000 books, e-books, media items, periodical titles, and archival materials. The library’s digital resources are available 24/7 to students via the Internet using the library’s research computers or their own internet-accessible devices. Students may also request items from over 10,000 other libraries representing over 3.2 billion holdings worldwide in the library’s resource sharing (interlibrary loan) network. Professional librarians are available to assist with all research needs for 57 of the library’s 84.25 operating hours each week, and they provide research literacy instruction sessions in several classes each semester. The library also provides a host of other services. For more information or to contact the library, see the library’s website at <https://library.bryan.edu/home>.

Residence Halls

The College has five traditional residence halls and two apartment style buildings. Arnold, Huston, Long, Robinson, and Woodlee-Ewing are residence halls and the Townhouses at Bryan Commons are apartments for upperclassmen. Each residence hall contains a computer lab. In addition to the residence halls, off-campus housing is available to single students who are at least 22 years old and to all married students.

Arnold Residence Hall, with a capacity of 101 students, was built in 1972 and remodeled in 2022. The fifty rooms are “suite style,” with modular furniture and connecting bathroom for every two rooms. Arnold Hall contains a Resident Director apartment, lounge, kitchen, laundry rooms, and storage facilities. All rooms are individually climate controlled.

Huston Residence Hall and H. D. Long Residence Hall both were built in 1963-64. They each have fifty-two student rooms which are individually climate controlled. Each student room has a sink and is furnished with built-in beds or modular furniture, wardrobes and study desks. Residents on each floor share a bathroom and shower facility. Several floors were renovated in 2007 in order to allow roommates to arrange their own living space. Each hall has a lounge, kitchen, Residence Director’s apartment, bathrooms, laundry rooms, and storage areas. Additional renovations were made to Huston Hall in 2011-12.

Rhea House, completed in 1969, was a gift of the community to the College through funds raised by the Rhea County Advisory Committee. This two-story brick dwelling served as the home of the College President and his family until it was converted to a men’s residence in 2001. From the fall of 2006 to 2019, Rhea House was occupied by the Advancement Office but was remodeled in 2022 in a residence hall once again.

Robinson Residence Hall, built in 2006, houses 120 students. Each of the 60 rooms has a sink and modular furniture, allowing roommates to arrange their own living space. Rooms are individually climate-controlled. Residents on each wing share a bathroom and shower facility. In addition to student rooms, Robinson Hall contains a Resident Director’s apartment, study areas, a computer lab, lounge, laundry, elevator and storage areas.

Woodlee-Ewing Residence Hall, with a capacity of 174 students, was built in 1984. The building is designed in suite style to accommodate two students per room, with every two rooms having a connecting bathroom. Remodeled in 2022, each room features modular furniture that can be arranged in various configurations. All rooms are individually climate controlled. Lounges, a kitchen area, storage facilities, a laundry room, and a Resident Director's apartment complement the eighty-seven student rooms.

Townhouses at Bryan Commons are located off of Landes Way and overlooking the campus, two buildings of townhouses were completed in 2010. One building has seven townhouses and the other has -w townhouses. Each two-story townhouse is approximately 1500 square feet includes three bedrooms, two baths, a full-size kitchen and a living room. Each townhouse is furnished with living room furniture, refrigerator, cooktop and modular furniture in the bedrooms.

Stophel Center

The Stophel Center, completed in 2019, and named in honor of Glenn and Jackie Stophel, houses Admissions, Advancement, Marketing and Executive Offices, as well as a banquet facility.

Bryan Village Apartments

This complex of eight buildings was developed beginning in 1961 for the use of married students. One-bedroom and two-bedroom units are available with easy access to laundry facilities.

Anderson Building

This building, formerly known as the Annex building, was renamed in honor of John C. Anderson, who was Bryan College's faculty emeritus in Greek for many years. The main floor houses the offices of the college's Nursing faculty offices. The ground floor provides an engineering assembly area and space for the criminal justice program.

Hanna House

The President's house was completed on the west end of the campus in the spring of 2001. This stately, yet functional two-story brick dwelling with its walk-out basement provides more than a dwelling for the President and his family. While the two upper levels house the College president and family, the basement floor provides a meeting place for up to 30 persons and a private efficiency apartment for guests of the President. The College is thankful that many of the building materials for the house were donated by local businesses in Dayton and Rhea County.

Rankin Center

This building, named in honor of an outstanding Bryan alumna, Joanne S. Rankin, was renovated in 2005 to house a seminar room and faculty offices for the Education department and Security officers. The basement of the Rankin Center houses the engineering program's "maker space" where engineering projects are constructed.

Rudd Memorial Chapel

The Rudd Memorial Chapel was completed in 1976. It is a combination auditorium and fine arts building. It houses the College's main chapel auditorium with a regular seating capacity of 840, a large main stage for dramatic and musical productions, seven teaching studios, faculty offices, piano lab, choir and band rooms, two classrooms, and ten music practice rooms. During the summer of 2012, the auditorium and lobby were completely remodeled with new lighting, seating, flooring, and a digital sound system. Brock Bicentennial Hall, located on the ground floor, is a multipurpose room with adjacent kitchen facilities. The room was remodeled as a black box theatre that will accommodate 150 people and is suitable for large classes, recitals, and plays. In 2019, the piano lab was expanded, remodeled and named the Watson Piano Lab.

Summers Gymnasium

With a seating capacity of one thousand, this building was constructed as the first unit in a physical education and intramural/intercollegiate sports complex. The present building includes a college tournament-size rubber-cushioned, floating, maple hardwood basketball playing floor, auxiliary facilities, and locker and shower rooms. In the summer of 1982, an annex was added to the front of the gym which provided a more spacious lobby, four offices, an athletic training room, and additional storage areas and rest rooms.

In January 2007, a 3000 square foot athletic training facility was added to the gymnasium. During the summer of 2007, Summers Gymnasium was renovated with a complete fitness center for use by all in the Bryan community. A 6000 square foot extension onto the gymnasium houses the coaches' offices as well as locker rooms and other facilities.

Athletic Facilities

A varsity soccer field was constructed in 1995. This Bermuda grass field is regulation size. The men's baseball field was completed in the spring of 2002 and was donated by the Senter family, long-time friends of the college. In January 2007, a practice facility with one regulation size basketball court, a weight room and a 60' x 30' turfed practice area was erected on the north side of the campus. A regulation, collegiate size, softball field was added in 2010.

Bryan's Location

Bryan's 125 acre wooded hilltop campus overlooks the Richland embayment of TVA's Lake Chickamauga and the town of Dayton in the western edge of the valley made world-famous by the federal program of flood control, electrical power, and recreational facilities known as the Tennessee Valley Authority. Dayton, 38 miles north of Chattanooga on U.S. Highway 27, is approximately 40 miles from connections with Interstate Highways 24, 75, and 40. Dayton is the county seat of historic Rhea County, named for John Rhea, a Revolutionary patriot and early congressman from Upper East Tennessee. The population of the town is 6,600 with a service area of 12,000. Recent growth has increased the county population to 30,300. A sizable community of retirement residents who live principally in the north end of the county on the shores of Watts Bar Lake is a decided asset to the county. The natural beauty of East Tennessee and the potential for continuing growth and development of the area are factors making Bryan's location a definite plus.

Chattanooga's airport, Lovell Field, is approximately an hour's drive from the campus. A Greyhound bus terminal is also located near the airport. Dayton's own municipal airport serves small, mostly private, aircraft.

Excellent hiking and outdoor sporting opportunities are available at Dayton's Pocket Wilderness. Nearby Chattanooga is home to the internationally famous Tennessee Aquarium. Additional sightseeing opportunities are available at Rock City, Ruby Falls, and the Lookout Mountain Incline. The Tennessee Valley was scene of many Civil War battles. The Lost Sea, an underground lake in Sweetwater; Cumberland Mountain State Park; Fall Creek Falls State Park; Chickamauga Battlefield National Park; Watts Bar Dam and the Chickamauga Dam, both part of the TVA complex; the world-famous Oak Ridge Atomic Research Center; Gatlinburg, the gateway to the Great Smoky Mountains; and Nashville are all within an easy day's drive from the Bryan campus.

Legal Notices

This Catalog is intended to give a realistic statement of admissions requirements and procedures, academic policies and practice, programs of instruction, college expenses, financial aid programs, etc. The College must reserve the right, however, to change, without notice if necessary, statements in the Catalog concerning policies, academic offerings, rules of conduct, charges, and to make any other alterations as circumstances may require. Furthermore, the course listings are offered primarily with the degree student in mind. A student who plans to attend Bryan fewer than two years should ascertain whether the courses desired will be taught during the anticipated enrollment period.

Bryan College does not discriminate on the basis of sex, race, color, age, national origin, or ethnic group in the education programs and activities which it operates according to the Civil Rights Act of 1964, and Title IX of the Education Amendment of 1972, Public Law 92-318. Nor does the College discriminate against qualified handicapped persons, according to the requirements of Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, Public Law 93-112. This policy extends to both employment and admission to the College. Under Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 "religious organizations" and "religious educational institutions" are exempt from religious discrimination provisions. Bryan College is both a "religious organization" and a "religious educational institution".

In conformity with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA), Bryan College requires individuals (applicants, employees, or students) to identify specific requests for reasonable accommodations that may be necessary due to the existence of a qualified disability.

Inquiries should be directed as follows. For Title IX issues contact the campus Title IX Coordinator. For ADA issues contact the campus ADA Coordinator. The address and phone numbers for both are the same: Bryan College, 721 Bryan Drive, Dayton, TN 37321. The phone number is (423) 775-2041.

CAMPUS LIFE

SOCIAL LIFE

Social life includes a variety of spontaneous get-togethers, as well as many scheduled events and activities. Many students enjoy hiking in the rugged Tennessee mountain countryside or driving to Chattanooga for an evening of movies, dinner, or spending time in the aquarium district. Our Residential Life team and the Coordinator of Student Engagement work together to plan on and off campus activities such as banquets, dances, games and competitions, etc.

Supervised residence halls provide a living environment in which students develop a strong sense of community, receive encouragement, care, support, and guidance, and are given opportunity to serve others. Area Coordinators and Resident Directors, who are assisted by student Resident Assistants, supervise residence halls. Together, this staff seeks to identify and meet students' needs through individual counseling, group activities, Bible studies, and educational programming.

The Bryan Fine Arts Concert Series and other cultural groups in nearby Chattanooga provide excellent programs available to Bryan students and faculty. The Bryan Chorale is open to students on the basis of auditions and provides students with musical training and fellowship. The Chamber Singers, a select musical ensemble, perform a wide variety of musical styles.

Piano Ensemble is a group of intermediate and advanced pianists who perform music with more than one pianist at a time. This group regularly performs around the Dayton area, for on-campus events, and other special projects.

Hilltop Players, the campus drama organization, provides cultural enrichment and entertainment for the student body as well as the local community. The typical theatrical season consists of 2-3 mainstage productions per year, plus a Senior Production Project that is produced by the graduating Theatre majors.

STUDENT LEADERSHIP

Opportunities for experience in the area of leadership are abundant at Bryan College. Whether leading a group of students on a week-long mission trip, teaching a Bible study, organizing a student government meeting, or planning a campus-wide activity, Bryan students gain invaluable insight for future leadership in the marketplace. Particular attention is given to the leadership development of those in student leadership positions.

STUDENT GOVERNMENT ASSOCIATION (SGA)

SGA is a leadership team of students elected or appointed by the student body to provide various opportunities and services throughout the school year. SGA cooperates with the administration in meeting various needs of the student body as they arise. Facilitating communication within the student body, to the faculty, administration, alumni, and the surrounding community is a vital service to the College. SGA seeks to develop the leadership of its members and provide beneficial services to the College ultimately to the glory of God.

INTRAMURALS

The intramural program promotes wholesome recreation throughout the school year by providing a sequence of athletic competitions. It is designed to give every degree-seeking student in the residential undergraduate programs an opportunity to participate in the sport of his or her choice. Competition is carried on among class teams and by sign-ups. There are a wide variety of opportunities available through our intramural program that will benefit athletes and non-athletes alike.

ATHLETICS

Men's varsity competition is carried on in baseball, basketball, cross-country, golf, soccer, and track & field. Women's varsity sports include basketball, cross-country, golf, soccer, softball, track & field, and volleyball. Students participating in intercollegiate sports are required to maintain institutional standards for participation with a minimum of 12 hours per semester. Bryan is a member of and follows the eligibility regulations established by the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) and is part of the Appalachian Athletic Conference.

Only students currently enrolled in the residential undergraduate programs and eligible by both Bryan College and NAIA standards may be considered qualified students and allowed to participate in intercollegiate athletic programs at Bryan College. Exceptions may be made for students enrolled in Bryan College graduate programs, who are otherwise eligible to participate in athletics.

Bryan College complies with the “Equity in Athletics Disclosure Act” (EADA) and such data is available through the Office of Intercollegiate Athletics and the Office of Admissions and Financial Aid.

SPIRITUAL GROWTH OPPORTUNITIES

At Bryan College, education is about the whole person. Part of ministering to the whole person includes a focus on the spiritual. While spiritual growth is ultimately the work of the Holy Spirit, we want to offer students specific opportunities to encounter the Lord and deepen their relationship with Him. The following are ways in which this is currently happening on campus.

Chapel

Chapel exists as a place for consistent corporate gatherings of the Bryan community to learn and grow together spiritually through a time of instruction and worship. A wide variety of guests speak in chapel, offering testimony, conversation, discussion, and/or preaching. Chapel encourages the students to be confronted with others in their community, coming face to face with the needs and stories of those gathered in the seats around them as well as the one on the platform speaking. As a part of the spiritual growth strategy at Bryan, Chapel is held up to three times a week. Leadership opportunities exist for students to participate in chapels through the Worship Leadership Team. Devotion, Bryan's traveling worship arts team, goes out to churches and other organizations to provide worship opportunities in the broader community. Students who feel called to leading worship can take courses to obtain a minor in Worship Ministry or pursue a major in Worship Arts.

Outreach Ministries

At Bryan College, we take James 1:27 seriously: “Religion that is pure and undefiled before God, the Father is this: to visit orphans and widows in their affliction...” ENGAGE provides opportunities for students to put their faith into practice on a regular basis. A variety of ministry opportunities are available for students through ENGAGE, providing practical ways for students to participate in “becoming servants of Christ” to those in the local community. While most ENGAGE ministries are conducted locally, ENGAGE Outreach Trips to provide opportunities for students to serve during their fall or spring break in other domestic locations.

Spiritual Development Initiatives

We recognize that students today wrestle with deep questions related to life and culture. To help students in this wrestling, there will be multiple Spiritual Development Initiatives offered throughout the semester. These initiatives will include panel discussions, workshops, and monthly Sunday evening worship nights called The Gathering. Spiritual Development Initiatives exist as opportunities for students to dive deeper into specific topics regarding their holistic spiritual growth.

COUNSELING

There are times when life can feel a bit more challenging than a normal relational context can address. To address these times, counseling is available to students through Counseling Services. Both individual and group counseling opportunities offer space for the Holy Spirit to use Scripturally-informed conversations with evidence-based counseling skills to move people towards deeper wholeness in Christ. Confidential appointments can be made by contacting the office.

Process for Handling Complaints

Situations may arise in which students believe they have not received fair treatment by a College representative or may have a complaint about the performance, action, or inaction of a member of the staff or faculty. Bryan College maintains the right of students to issue such complaints and seek resolution, in accordance with the following policy and procedure.

A complaint should be directed as soon as possible to the person or persons whose actions or inactions have given rise to the complaint. Every effort should be made to resolve the problem fairly and promptly at this initial level first. If such initial efforts do not resolve the complaint to the satisfaction of the student, the additional steps below can be utilized.

Please note that the following official complaint policy and procedure of the College relates to complaints submitted in written form. This is to protect all parties in a legal sense, and also to ensure that the nature of the complaint is clear, intelligible, and orderly. When submitting a written complaint, please ensure that your writing is straightforward and that its purpose is clear: “I am writing to formally complain about...”

❖ Complaints relating to Bryan College Student Life—including Residence Life, student-to-student relationships, campus safety, campus activities, etc.—please refer to the Vice President of Student Life Studentlife@bryan.edu - 423.775.7400. Note: Before contacting the Vice President of Student Life, every effort should be made to resolve the issue with the appropriate personnel. If this is unsuccessful, the student should file a formal written complaint at that time.

❖ Complaints relating to Bryan College academics—including faculty, programs, distance education, and academic policy—please refer to the following parties, in the given order. Should satisfaction not be attained at a given level, a student can appeal or re-issue their complaint at the higher level:

- Department Chair (contact information for all current Department Chairs can be found on the Bryan College website or via the MyBryan directory)
- Dean of the respective school (contact information for all current Department Chairs can be found on the Bryan College website or via the MyBryan directory)
- Vice President of Academics/Provost (Provost@bryan.edu – 423.775.7200. See also “Appeals Process,” below.

❖ Complaints or concerns relating to possible violations of Title IX policy should be directed to the Title IX Coordinator – 423.775.7265 or titleix@bryan.edu .

❖ Complaints or concerns relating to accessibility or possible violations of ADA policy should be directed to the ADA Coordinator – 423.775.7265 or ADA@bryan.edu .

Filing a Written Complaint: The student should file a written complaint (email is sufficient) to the appropriate official mentioned above, including the following:

1. A statement describing the complaint in the clearest possible terms;
2. A clear and concise statement of the evidence upon which the allegation is based;
3. A clear and concise description of the student’s attempt to resolve the issue at the initial level noted above at the start of this policy, along with reasoning indicating why the issue was not able to be resolved at that level;
4. A description of the action taken by the institution to date, if applicable;
5. Full disclosure about any other external channels the complainant is pursuing (if applicable).

Time Limitations: It is a fundamental presumption of the Bryan College complaint system that both students and relevant college administrators will work in good faith to resolve issues raised in complaints. To that end, students are expected to write and send their complaints within a reasonable timeframe of the emergence of the given issue (60 days). The institution similarly commits to issuing its institutional response/resolution to the complaint within 60 days of receiving it in writing from the student. (Note that if the nature of the complaint is substantially altered through further information being introduced in the course of resolution, this timeframe may be reset to allow for due consideration of the new information.)

Procedure: Once a written complaint is received through one of the channels designated above, the constituent who receives the complaint may take various actions to gain clarity on the nature of the complaint. Such actions may include emailing the student for more information; discussing the complaint verbally with the student; or discussing the complaint with other parties (should they be implicated in the complaint). Every reasonable effort will be made to protect the privacy of all involved parties. Once the constituent has clarified the issues pertinent to the complaint, an institutional response will be given. In the case of Academics and Student Life, the response of the respective Vice President is final and concludes the institutional complaint procedure. In all cases, students will be notified in writing of the outcome of their complaint. A log of written complaints and their institutional response/resolution is maintained by both Student Life and Academics.

The right of appealing the institutional decision may be exercised in relation to any agency that grants accreditation/authorization to Bryan College, including:

Complaint Resolution Policies and Procedures for Non-Tennessee Resident Students in State Authorization Reciprocity Agreement States

Student complaints relating to consumer protection laws that involve distance learning education offered under the terms and conditions of the State Authorization Reciprocity Agreement (SARA), must first be filed with the institution to seek resolution.

Complainants not satisfied with the outcome of the Institution's internal process may appeal, within two years of the incident about which the complaint is made, to the Tennessee Higher Education Commission (<https://www.tn.gov/thec/bureaus/student-aid-and-compliance/postsecondary-state-authorization/request-for-complaint-review.html>).

For purposes of this process, a complaint shall be defined as a formal assertion in writing that the terms of SARA or the laws, standards or regulations incorporated by the SARA Policies and Standards (<http://www.nc-sara.org/content/sara-manual>) have been violated by the institution operating under the terms of SARA.

For a list of SARA member States, please visit the NC-SARA website (<http://nc-sara.org/sara-states-institutions>). Students residing in non-SARA states should consult their respective State of residence for further instruction for filing a complaint.

ADMISSIONS INFORMATION

Residential Undergraduate Programs

ADMISSIONS PROCESS

BRYAN COLLEGE RESIDENTIAL PROGRAM

The following policies pertain to the Bryan College Residential program, defined as being comprised of undergraduate degree seeking students enrolled in on-site classes located on the main campus of Bryan College in Dayton, Tennessee. For other admissions criteria please refer to the appropriate section of the catalog. These would include Bryan College Online, graduate programs and enrollment for dual enrolled high school students. Acceptance into Bryan College does not guarantee acceptance into a student's desired major. Please refer to the appropriate section of the catalog for major-related acceptance criteria.

Bryan College welcomes applications from students who have a commitment to academic scholarship, spiritual development, and outstanding character. The admissions process begins when the completed application is submitted to the Office of Admissions at <https://apply.bryan.edu/>. To assist students and their families, each prospective student is assigned an admissions staff member who will lead the student through the admissions and financial aid processes. Each component of the prospective student's file is carefully reviewed, and when it is complete the student is notified of Admissions' decision. Admissions decisions are made on a rolling basis.

Applicants are required to submit official transcripts/GED scores or official ACT, SAT or CLT scores. Bryan College accepts CLT scores for acceptance, however CLT scores may not be recognized for state grants or athletic certification. While unofficial copies of certain documents may be used during the admissions process, they are not substitutes for required official documents. Final official transcripts must be submitted to the Office of Admissions in order for a student to be granted official acceptance. In some cases, official score reports will also be required.

Applicants who knowingly submit inaccurate, misleading, and/or falsified documents, which would include the omission of information and/or documents, during the admission process will result in a denial of admission. Additionally, a letter of acceptance, if already communicated, will be rescinded and the student will not be allowed to enroll at the college.

To reserve their place in the entering class, applicants who have been granted acceptance should remit a $100 enrollment deposit. Enrollment deposits received from applicants are refundable through May 1 (December 1), after which there is no refund.

As students continue through their degree program, the deposit is retained in a special account in individual students' names until the final semester of enrollment, when it is credited to the students' accounts. Students enrolled in the fall semester who fail to notify the Office of Student Life before December 15 that they do not plan to re-enroll for the spring semester or who withdraw within the first two weeks of classes forfeit the $100. Students enrolled in the spring semester who fail to notify the Office of Student Life before July 1 that they will not enroll in the fall or who withdraw within the first two weeks of classes will forfeit the $100.

In order to guarantee a room in the residence halls, applicants who have been granted acceptance and have submitted an enrollment deposit of $100 must also remit a $100 housing reservation fee. Housing reservation fees are credited directly to the student's account and are non-refundable. Students will be placed in available rooms in the order in which housing reservation fees are received. Commuters are not required to submit a housing reservation fee.

ENTRANCE REQUIREMENTS

Students may enroll at Bryan College after they have been granted clear admission or conditional admission.

New College Freshmen Clear Admission

Clear admission is granted to applicants who have graduated from high school and who have the following minimum academic achievements:

High School GPA of 2.8 or ACT composite of 18 or SAT of 960 (on 1600 scale) or CLT of 61

The student's high school record should consist of a minimum of 18 units including the following recommended areas: English (four units), science (three units), mathematics (three units), social science/humanities (three units), and foreign language (two units).

Applicants for whom English is a second language are required, for clear admission, a minimum TOEFL (Test of English as a Foreign Language) score of 75 on the internet based test (iBT) with no subscore below 17. The paper based version (PBT) of the TOEFL is not accepted. Minimum scores on the ACT and/or SAT, or alternative tests, as determined by the college, may be accepted as proof of English language proficiency in lieu of TOEFL scores.

Conditional Admission

Conditional admission may be given to applicants who do not meet the requirements for clear admission if the Admissions Committee judges the applicant to have potential for success at Bryan College. Conditional status is intended to signal a need for special counsel and assistance and is not punitive. Freshmen admitted on academic condition will be limited to 13 semester hours during the first semester. For more details, please refer to the Academic Information section under Satisfactory Academic Progress.

Early Acceptance

Early acceptance (acceptance prior to graduation from high school for enrollment after high school graduation) is granted to high school seniors who present a three-year high school transcript with satisfactory grades and course distribution or satisfactory ACT/SAT/CLT test scores. Files are reviewed again for official acceptance once all required final and official documents have been received. Admission to degree candidacy is subject to receipt of confirmation of high school graduation with satisfactory grades.

Students who have successfully completed dual enrollment classes at Bryan College may be eligible for a waiver of the 3-year high school transcript requirement.

Early Admission

The Admission Committee may grant early admission for the fall semester to an applicant who has completed the junior year of high school. Each early admission application will be carefully reviewed based on the admission criteria and the recommendation of the sending high school. Only those applicants who show definite potential for success will be admitted. If an early admission applicant is not accepted for early admission, the application may be transferred to a later date for regular admission upon completion of high school.

The early admission student is a regular degree candidate whether or not a high school diploma is granted but must maintain the same standards for continuance as other students. The early admission student using Bryan College courses to complete high school requirements is not eligible for financial aid.

Transfer Students

Clear Admission

Applicants who have completed 12 or more semester hours of college level credit, excluding remedial and developmental courses, after high school graduation are considered transfer students for the purpose of Admissions requirements.

Clear admission is granted to transfer students with a cumulative grade point average of 2.0 on a 4.0 scale in at least 12 hours of transferable coursework completed after high school at regionally accredited colleges without regard for New Student Freshmen high school requirements. Remedial and developmental courses will not be considered as part of a student's cumulative grade point average. An official transcript must be received from each college attended. Those applicants who previously enrolled at another college since high school graduation but have completed fewer than 12 semester hours will be considered under the New College Freshmen guidelines in addition to the previous college records.

International students who have met the transfer requirements in entirety through enrollment at a regionally accredited college or university in the United States may also waive the TOEFL requirements.

Conditional Admission

A transfer student who does not meet the academic standards for clear admission may be granted conditional admission and placed on academic probation if the Admissions Committee judges the applicant to have potential for success at Bryan College. Transfers admitted on academic condition will be limited to 13 semester hours during the first semester. A student so admitted is subject to all restrictions placed on conditional students. For more details, please refer to the Academic Information section under Satisfactory Academic Progress.

Articulation Agreement with Tennessee's Public Community Colleges

Bryan College accepts the Board of Regents approved transfer associate degree from public community colleges in the state of Tennessee. Students earning these degrees are granted 60 semester credits and junior standing upon admission to Bryan's residential undergraduate programs. Since some of Bryan's four-year degree programs require specific course work to be completed as core curriculum classes, students must complete these courses either as part of their associate degree or at Bryan College. (Students planning to transfer should carefully choose their core curriculum courses in consultation with their community college adviser and Bryan in order to ensure that the best selections are made in light of their intended four-year major. Students desiring to earn credit through non-traditional means should consult Bryan policies as well.) The College also requires completion of the Christian Studies core requirements plus the remaining coursework that students with a transfer associate degree must take to finish their baccalaureate program. All courses in the student's major – both lower and upper division – must have a grade of C- or higher. Though admitted with junior standing, graduation at Bryan within two additional years is not guaranteed.

Classification of Transfer Students

Upon receipt by Bryan College of all transcripts of record of previous postsecondary studies, the Registrar will prepare a tentative evaluation of credits to be accepted for transfer and will assign the student a tentative classification. This tentative evaluation and classification will be reviewed and revised as necessary after the student has matriculated and met with the academic adviser. In the case of unconditional transfer, the evaluation and classification are then formalized. No transfer student will be classified as a senior, regardless of the amount of credit transferred, until the student has matriculated and has on record an approved application for graduation showing when and how all graduation requirements will be met.

In the case of conditional transfer, transfer credit becomes official and classification is formalized when the transfer student has successfully completed one full semester at Bryan earning at least 12 semester hours of credit with a cumulative GPA of 2.0 or above. If the student fails to complete successfully the first full semester at Bryan, the College reserves the right to reevaluate the tentative transfer of credit and to reclassify the student.

Home School Students

Home-educated students must meet the standard entrance requirements stated previously for clear acceptance. Families should carefully choose their high school curriculum and use standardized tests to further measure academic progress. (See the recommended units under New College Freshmen). Parents are encouraged to join a local home school association, which proves very helpful in choosing curriculum, preparing transcripts, and keeping updated on the latest legislation. Contact the Office of Admissions for questions related to the transition from home school to college.

Re-Admission Students

Former Bryan College students who left the College for one or more semesters (not including the summer term) and who wish to re-enroll must apply for re-admission at <https://apply.bryan.edu/>.

Students in good standing who interrupt their studies at Bryan by prior arrangement for one or two semesters to participate in study or practicum experiences as a part of their degree program are eligible to re-enroll. No re-admission application is required.

Students who were suspended for a specific period are eligible to apply for re-admission upon expiration of the suspension period. Students who were dismissed become eligible to apply for re-admission after a period of at least six months. The approval of the Vice President of Academics & Provost is required in the case of suspension or dismissal for academic reasons, and the approval of Student Life is required in the case of suspension or dismissal for citizenship reasons.

Upon receipt of notice of acceptance, the former student who forfeited a deposit because of failure to give adequate notice of non-continuance must remit the $100 enrollment deposit and $100 housing reservation fee.

International Students

Students who are not citizens of the United States apply for admission in the same manner as other students. In addition, they must meet any special requirements of their own country plus those of the United States Department of Homeland Security. Qualifications of applicants are considered on an individual basis. The International student must provide evidence of ability to meet education and living expenses before the College will send the I-20 form required by the United States Department of Homeland Security. For clear admission, a minimum TOEFL (Test of English as a Foreign Language) score of 75 on the internet based test (iBT) with no subscore below 17 is required of those applicants for whom English is a second language. The paper based version (PBT) of the TOEFL is not accepted. Bryan College does not offer courses in English as a second language. Minimum scores on the ACT and/or SAT, or alternative tests, as determined by the college, may be accepted as proof of English language proficiency in lieu of TOEFL scores. International students who have met the transfer requirements in entirety through enrollment at a regionally accredited college or university in the United States may also waive the TOEFL requirements.

International students who have post-secondary transcripts from outside of the United States that may apply toward a degree at Bryan are responsible for submitting those records to an agency that is approved by the National Association of Credential Evaluation Services (NACES) that will evaluate and translate the documents. The cost for this service is the responsibility of the student. Bryan College will need official transcripts in addition to the evaluation/translation.

Veterans

The educational programs offered by Bryan College are approved by the Tennessee State Approving Agency for Veterans Administration education benefits. Veterans and eligible dependents of veterans follow the same procedures for admission as other students, but they must comply with the provisions of the law under which they apply for financial assistance. Students receiving benefits from the VA must be degree seeking students at Bryan College.

Any covered individual will be able to attend or participate in the course of education during the period beginning on the date on which the individual provides to the educational institution a certificate of eligibility for entitlement to educational assistance under chapter 31 or 33 (a “certificate of eligibility” can also include a “Statement of Benefits” obtained from the Department of Veterans Affairs’ (VA) website – eBenefits, or a chapter 31 authorization) and ending on the earlier of the following dates:

1. The date on which payment from VA is made to the institution.
2. 90 days after the date the institution certified tuition and fees following the receipt of the certificate of eligibility.

Bryan College will not impose any penalty, including the assessment of late fees, the denial of access to classes, libraries, or other institutional facilities, or the requirement that a covered individual borrow additional funds, on any covered individual because of the individual's inability to meet his or her financial obligations to the institution due to the delayed disbursement funding from VA under chapter 31 or 33.

Students using Chapter 33 benefits who receive a Monthly Housing Allowance (MHA) and/or kicker payment are required to verify their enrollment each month to continue receiving their payments.

Bryan grants college credit for some training courses in the service. Students should submit a Joint Services Transcript (JST) for evaluation. For more information, contact the Office of the Registrar.

Currently Enrolled or Former Online Students

Undergraduate, degree-seeking students who previously enrolled in Bryan classes online and wish to continue their education through residential on-campus classes must meet the requirements for and be accepted into the residential program. Contact the Office of Admissions for a review of the existing student records and instructions.

Visiting Students

Anyone wishing to take one or more courses but not pursue a degree from Bryan College must submit an application. Apply online at <https://apply.bryan.edu>. Select the NON-DEGREE type of application. This includes dual-enrolled high school students and transient students who are enrolled elsewhere for their degree. Some courses may require additional documentation of test scores, GPA, or completed prerequisites.

Those who later desire to become degree-seeking students must meet the requirements for and be accepted into the residential program and will need to complete a new admissions application. Degree seeking applicants should apply online at <https://apply.bryan.edu>. Select the UNDERGRADUATE type of application.

Visiting students include those individuals who enroll as full-time or part-time students but who will not be approved as degree candidates until they have met all entrance requirements placed upon new college students or transfer students. Though not required to be high school graduates, visiting students must be persons of suitable age, maturity, experience, and ability. Those desiring to become degree-seeking students must meet the requirements for and be accepted into the residential or online program. Apply online at <https://apply.bryan.edu>. Select the Undergraduate type of application.

Dual Enrollment

Dual Enrollment with Bryan College is open to high school sophomores, juniors, and seniors. Dual Enrollment is offered in three different modalities.

Online courses – classes are entirely online and are asynchronous. Online courses are taught by Bryan College faculty or Bryan College adjunct professors.

Onsite courses - Regularly scheduled classes offered at the campus in Dayton, TN, on a space available basis. (Tutorials, independent studies, private music lessons etc. are not available to dual enrolled students.)

Partner sites – Bryan College classes offered on select high school campuses. Courses are taught by partner-site faculty; however, the faculty have been vetted and are hired as Bryan College adjunct professors.

Dual enrolled students may take lower division courses for which they are qualified (courses numbered up to 299). Some courses have standardized placement test standards or college level prerequisites. High school sophomores must have a high school GPA of 3.5 or higher and are limited to one 3 credit course in the fall and one 3 credit course in the spring. High school juniors and seniors must have a 3.0 high school GPA. Junior and senior dual enrolled students are limited to 12 semester hours during the regular fall and spring semesters. Summer session dual enrollment courses are offered to those students who have completed their sophomore year.

Dual enrolled students have nine terms (including summers) of enrollment available to them during their final three years of high school beginning with the fall term of 10th grade. There are no grants/scholarships available to high school sophomores or those who have already earned a high school diploma. Terms and conditions for grants and scholarships are subject to change according to the terms set by the state of Tennessee. The Tennessee Dual Enrollment grant can be used by high school juniors and seniors. Tennessee residents may apply on the TSAC Student portal - <https://www.tn.gov/content/tn/collegepays/tsac-student-portal.html>. Out of state students may be eligible for an institutional scholarship for dual enrollment courses.

Contact the Dual Enrollment Office for further details bcde@bryan.edu or 423-775-7558.

Transient Students

Students who are enrolled in another college or university and do not wish to transfer to Bryan College in order to earn a degree may enroll as transient students. Enrollment under this condition is usually limited to one semester or 18 credit hours and students are usually enrolled in courses that will transfer to another institution and apply toward degree requirements. It is solely the student's responsibility to communicate with their home institution regarding transfer of credit from Bryan College. Students desiring to enroll in courses in which there are prerequisites must provide documentation, normally a transcript, to satisfy the prerequisite.

CAMPUS VISITS

Students who are considering Bryan College are encouraged to visit the campus. High school juniors, seniors, and prospective transfer students are especially encouraged to participate in one of Bryan's campus visit events scheduled each academic year. The dates for these special programs are available online at www.bryan.edu/visit. Those who are not able to visit at these times may visit the College during the academic year or consider one of our virtual visits. The regular hours of the Office of Admissions are Monday-Friday 8:00 a.m.-5:00 p.m. Eastern Time.

FINANCIAL AID

RESIDENTIAL UNDERGRADUATE PROGRAMS POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Student financial assistance at Bryan College is provided through scholarships, grants, loans, and student employment. The information that follows represents current College practices. Regulations and funding for federal, state, and College programs are subject to change, as Bryan College administers programs accordingly.

Student financial assistance is based on the premise that parents have the primary obligation to provide for the education of dependent children. Additional responsibility rests with the student to contribute to his or her own education from personal assets, earnings, and appropriate borrowing.

Merit and need are the basic principles of financial aid eligibility. Merit includes good citizenship, performance and leadership ability, and satisfactory academic progress. Need is the difference between what it costs to attend Bryan College and what the family is reasonably expected to pay toward these costs. Need is demonstrated through the information requested on the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). In addition, a report generated by the FAFSA is used by the College Office of Financial Aid to determine eligibility for federal loans, federal work-study, and federal and state grants. The applicant for federal aid is encouraged to apply online at www.fafsa.ed.gov.

General Policies

- College funded scholarships and grants are given to students who are enrolled full-time – fall and/or spring semester(s). To be considered full-time, a student must be enrolled each semester for a minimum of 12 credit hours. Students who receive college-funded scholarships and grants and drop below full-time status will have their awards revised.
- Awards are divided equally between the fall and spring semesters. If a student withdraws at the end of the fall semester, the spring awards are canceled.
- Although a student normally will depend on the continuance of aid, renewal is not automatic and is subject to standards and regulations governing the various programs. Students must re-apply for aid each year by completing the FAFSA. Current students may lose all or a portion of institutional aid if the priority deadline is not met.
- Any financial aid that is offered through a pre-award notification or an estimated or preliminary award letter, or any type of aid offered that requires subsequent eligibility confirmation or certification is not guaranteed and is subject to being reduced or revoked once final eligibility criteria can be evaluated.
- A student who loses federal, state or institutional aid eligibility in a particular term may regain eligibility in a future term if standards and regulations are once again met. Although the Financial Aid office makes every effort to accurately review eligibility at appropriate intervals, it is ultimately the responsibility of the student to notify the office when eligibility has been regained. No financial aid will be awarded retroactively.
- In the event a College scholarship or grant is revoked, the date of the cause for revocation determines the date of the revocation. However, a college award may be canceled retroactive to the beginning of the semester at the discretion of College authorities.
- If a student withdraws from the College, a student's Business Office account is settled in accordance to the College's "Refund Policy" as detailed under College Expenses in this Catalog. The withdrawal process includes an "Exit Interview" with the Financial Aid Office and/or the Business Office if the student's account has ever been credited with proceeds from a Stafford Loan.
- Any outside grants or scholarships received by a student must be reported to the Financial Aid Office and may require an adjustment to the student's financial aid package.

- International students are required to provide evidence of means of support for the first year of enrollment at Bryan College by completing the U.S. Department of Justice INS Form I-134. International students are not eligible for federal financial aid programs unless they are classified as an eligible non-citizen and possess an Alien Registration Number.
- Academic scholarships are awarded to entering students. Continuing students are not awarded new academic scholarships.
- Graduates of Bryan College may receive a 50% tuition remission on courses in the residential undergraduate program after two academic years have elapsed since the alumni's graduation from Bryan College.
- A Visiting Student, who is not seeking a degree at Bryan College, is not eligible for federal financial aid.
- Audited courses will not count toward the enrollment status of a student for financial aid purposes.
- The spouse of a full-time student may take one course, a maximum of three hours, at a reduced fee.
- Bryan College Institutional Awards are available up to ten semesters, except as noted by scholarships or grant guidelines.
- Bryan scholarships or grants may be reduced 25% if a student lives off campus and not in the same residence as his/her parent(s) prior to the age of 22.
- Federal, state, and institutional grants and scholarships are assigned to tuition first, then room, then board.
- A cash refund will not be provided as a result of receiving any Bryan College scholarship or grant in combination with another Bryan College scholarship or grant, a federal grant, outside scholarship or a state scholarship or grant. If the total of the specified types of aid exceeds tuition, room and board (or tuition only for commuters) Bryan scholarships will be lowered in the amount of the overage.
- Bryan scholarships or grants may be replaced by other types of aid at the discretion of the Financial Aid Office.

SATISFACTORY ACADEMIC PROGRESS FOR FINANCIAL AID ELIGIBILITY

Financial Aid recipients must demonstrate through their scholastic records that they are making satisfactory academic progress toward completion of their program(s) of study in order to maintain eligibility for enrolling in classes and receiving any form of federal, state, or College financial assistance. Academic progress for financial aid is measured at the end of each term utilizing qualitative and quantitative standards.

Credit Definitions

Credits attempted are defined as all classes for which a student receives a passing grade (“D-”, or better, “P”, or “S*”), or an “F”, “I”, “W”, “AW”, “NR” or “U*”). Credits earned are defined as all classes for which a student receives a passing grade (“D-” or better, “P”, or “S*”). Repeated courses count as credits attempted during each term the student is enrolled in the course; however, the highest grade will be counted once as credits earned. A student is allowed to repeat a successfully passed course one time and have the course count toward determining eligibility requirements. A passed course may be repeated more than once but financial aid will not be awarded based on enrollment in the course. A failed course may be repeated an unlimited number of times and continue to count toward financial aid eligibility until which time the course is passed twice or until the student fails to meet other criteria pertaining to satisfactory academic progress. Credits transferred from other institutions are awarded “CR” and are included in the qualitative and quantitative calculations.

Financial Aid recipients must demonstrate through their scholastic records that they are making satisfactory academic progress toward completion of their program(s) of study in order to maintain eligibility for enrolling in classes and receiving any form of federal, state, or College financial assistance. Academic progress for financial aid is measured at the end of each term utilizing qualitative and quantitative standards.

Qualitative Standards for Financial Aid Eligibility

This standard measures a student’s satisfactory academic progress in terms of courses attempted and Bryan College cumulative grade point average (GPA), as shown below.

Credit Hours Attempted	Cumulative GPA
1-26	1.5
27-55	1.75
56 & above	2.0

Quantitative Standards for Financial Aid Eligibility

This standard has two components: maximum time frame and course completion rate. The maximum time frame in which a student must complete a program of study cannot exceed 150 percent of the published program length measured in credit hours attempted. Example: A student pursuing a program that contains 120 hours would be allowed to attempt a maximum of 180 hours [120 x 150 percent (1.5) = 180].

The number of hours attempted includes any transfer hours accepted from other institutions that are applied to the student’s program of study. In conjunction with the maximum program length, students must successfully complete (measured as credit hours earned) at least 66.67 percent of all coursework attempted as they progress through their program of study. This is a cumulative process, illustrated as follows: A student has maintained satisfactory academic progress for the first two terms of enrollment. However, at the end of the third term the student’s academic transcript indicates 45 hours attempted and 27 hours earned. The course completion rate is 60.0 percent (27 divided by 45). The student does not meet the required 66.67 percent standard and thus will be placed on Financial Aid Warning for the following term.

Financial Aid Warning

A student who does not meet satisfactory academic progress standards is placed on Financial Aid Warning for one term, resulting in probationary status. During this time, student is eligible to receive financial aid. If the student meets the satisfactory academic progress standards at the end of the probationary term, the student is removed from Financial Aid Warning status and maintains financial aid eligibility. If the student does not meet the satisfactory academic progress standards at the end of the probationary term, the student is placed on Financial Aid Suspension.

Financial Aid Suspension

A student on Financial Aid Suspension is not eligible for any form of federal, state, or College financial assistance and remains ineligible until qualitative and quantitative satisfactory academic progress standards in Bryan College courses are met.

Appeal Process

A student who feels mitigating circumstances existed which adversely affected the student's ability to maintain satisfactory academic progress may submit a written appeal within five business days of receiving notification of the suspension status. This appeal should be directed to the Director of Financial Aid.

The Financial Aid Advisory Committee will be supplied with the written appeal and vote to grant or deny the appeal in a timely manner. The committee is chaired by the Director of Financial Aid as a non-voting member except in the eventuality of a tie. Other members include representatives from Student Life, Finance and a faculty representative. The student is allowed to supply any documentation s/he feels will support the case and should be submitted with the written appeal. The committee votes by confidential ballot. If a student's appeal is approved by the Financial Aid Advisory Committee, the student will be placed on Financial Aid Probation for one term. After the Financial Aid Probation term, the student must be making Satisfactory Academic Progress or must successfully follow an academic plan. If the student's appeal is not approved the student has no additional recourse.

FEDERAL FINANCIAL AID

Bryan College participates in the Title IV Federal Financial Aid programs, including grants, work-study and loans. These programs are administered under all applicable federal regulations and guidelines. To explore all potential Federal Aid opportunities visit www.studentaid.gov.

Student Employment

Limited student employment is available through the Federal Work-Study Program. The average work assignment is eight hours per week with the minimum hourly wage at $9 per hour. However, actual job placement, hours worked, and amount earned cannot be guaranteed. Receiving a job is competitive and students must be hired by a supervisor. Students wishing to work but not eligible for the Federal Work-Study Program may apply as part-time, temporary employees of the College as well as apply for off-campus employment through the Office of Career Services.

STATE FINANCIAL AID

STATE GRANTS AND SCHOLARSHIPS

Bryan College participates in all applicable scholarship and grant programs administered by the State of Tennessee within the regulations and guidelines set by the State. To explore all potential state aid opportunities visit www.tn.gov/collegepays. Student who expect to receive the Tennessee Promise or Tennessee HOPE Scholarship(s) must identify themselves to the Financial Aid Office.

INSTITUTIONAL FINANCIAL AID

BRYAN COLLEGE SCHOLARSHIPS AND GRANTS

The Admissions Application is the application process for all Bryan College Scholarships and Grants. Bryan College aid is generally renewable for ten (10) consecutive semesters provided the student meets the cumulative grade point average continuance requirements. A student not meeting the requirements may lose all or a portion of his/her award at the end of each academic year where his/her cumulative grade point average is below the minimum requirement. A student may regain the full amount of his/her award by raising the cumulative grade point average above the minimum requirement.

FINANCIAL OBLIGATIONS

Charges for each semester are due and payable by August 1 and December 15. The school offers a semester based monthly tuition payment plan for those students who wish to pay tuition and fees on an installment basis. Information regarding the interest-free payment plan is available at <https://mycollegepaymentplan.com/BryanCollege/>.

Non-Payment Policy

- Students whose accounts are not paid in full by the payment due date or have not established an official payment plan will be placed on a business hold and the account will be subject to a 12% finance charge applied monthly on the outstanding balance.
- In addition, students owing for the current or previous terms may be subject to any or all of the following actions:
 - Withholding of dorm key on move-in day
 - Unable to register for future courses or change classes
 - De-registration from current courses
 - Suspension from class attendance
 - Transcripts, grades and diplomas will be withheld
 - Suspension of participation in commencement ceremonies
 - Suspension of participation in athletic competition
 - Suspension of meal plan
 - Deactivation of campus identification, suspending access to various facilities and services
- Failure to pay may ultimately result in being reported to a credit bureau or turned over to a collection agency. Should this occur, credit bureaus will be notified and the student will be responsible for any outstanding balance plus all collection fees and/or legal fees. At this point, the student will no longer be able to make payment directly to Bryan College, they will be required to interact directly with the collection agency.

Bryan College retains a security interest in all transcripts, diplomas, letters of recommendation, or grade reports which will not be released until all debts are fully paid.

Student Billing

Estimated charges for the upcoming semester/term can be viewed via the MyBryan portal once a student is preregistered for classes. The itemized billing detail will including charges as well as pending financial aid (if applicable) for the registered term and is subject to change. Monthly e-mail reminders will be provided if there is a balance due on the account. A printed statement of charges can be generated upon the request of the student. Payment in full or a completed payment plan agreement is required prior to class attendance. Payments may be made via cash, check, electronic check, credit or debit card. Mailed checks should be addressed to: Business Office, Bryan College, 721 Bryan Drive, Dayton, TN, 37321 and should clearly indicate the student's name and account number. In addition, payments can be made on the MyBryan portal, in person at the Business Office in Mercer 201 or via telephone at 423-775-7214.

Withdrawal Refund Policy

The financial aid office calculates federal financial aid eligibility and Military Tuition Assistance (TA) for students who withdraw, drop out, or are dismissed prior to completing 60.01% of a semester. The federal funds calculation and TA calculation are done independently of one another and are done prior to and apart from the institutional funds calculation. Refund/repayment calculations are based on the percent of earned aid using the following formula:

$$\text{Percent earned} = \frac{\text{\# of days completed up to withdrawal date}}{\text{total days in the semester}}$$

Federal financial aid is returned to the federal government based on the percentage of unearned aid using the following formula: Federal aid to be returned = 100% - % earned. When federal financial aid is returned, the student may owe a balance to the College. The student should contact the College Business Office to arrange for balance repayment.

Federal financial aid includes the Pell Grant, SEOG, TEACH Grant, Stafford Loans (subsidized and unsubsidized), and the PLUS Loan.

Withdrawal date is defined as the actual date the student began the institution's withdrawal process, or the student's last date of recorded attendance, or the midpoint of the semester for a student who leaves without notifying the College.

Military Tuition Assistance (TA) is awarded to a student under the assumption that the student will attend school for the entire period for which the assistance is awarded. When a student withdraws, the student may no longer be eligible for the full amount of TA funds originally awarded. Bryan College will return any unearned TA funds on a proportional basis through at least the 60% portion of the period for which the funds were provided to that member's appropriate service branch. TA funds are earned proportionally during an enrollment period, with unearned funds returned based upon when a student stops attending.

If a service member stops attending due to a military service obligation, and the service member notifies the school of his/her obligation, Bryan College will work with the affected service member to identify solutions that will not result in a student debt for the returned portion.

The percent earned and used for Federal aid will be applied to determine all refund/repayment calculations. Federal regulations stipulate that when a refund (and repayment, if applicable) is calculated for a student who has received financial assistance from any of the Federal Title IV programs, the refund must be allocated in the following order and returned to the appropriate program(s):

1. Unsubsidized Stafford Loan
2. Subsidized Stafford Loan
3. PLUS Loan
4. Pell Grant
5. SEOG
6. TEACH Grant
7. Other Title IV Programs

Refund of Institutional Aid (degree seeking students)

In the event a student withdraws, drops out, or is expelled from the College prior to the end of a semester or summer term of enrollment, the student's eligibility for institutional funds used for tuition, room, and board (board is not available during summer) will be equal to the percentage of total institutional charges as determined by the Tuition Refund Schedule. See below.

Another aspect of the institutional aid calculation process will be to determine whether the student has received an overpayment for non-institutional costs (i.e., room and board off campus, books, supplies, transportation, and miscellaneous expenses) for the period of enrollment for which the student has been charged. This pertains to a student who had excess funds on account after all institutional costs were paid and the student requested all or part of the excess funds for personal use. The College will notify the student of any amount the student must return as a repayment.

Once a student's withdrawal date has been established, the refund and repayment (if applicable) amount(s) and allocation(s) will be determined by the Office of Financial Aid and Business Office in accordance with the Tuition Refund Schedule.

TUITION REFUND SCHEDULE (Residential 16 week semester)

Withdrawal prior to the first day of classes: 100%

Withdrawal during the first week of the semester: 90%

Withdrawal during the second week of the semester: 75%

Withdrawal during the third and fourth week of the semester: 50%

Withdrawal during the fifth and sixth week of the semester: 25%

Withdrawal after the sixth week of the semester: 0%

For terms less than 16 weeks, no refund will be granted after the drop period has passed.

A student who believes that mitigating circumstances warrant exceptions from the above stated refund policy may submit, within 15 days of the student's withdrawal date, a written appeal to: Controller, Bryan College, 721 Bryan Drive, Dayton, TN 37321.

Dropped Course Refund Policy

Degree seeking students are eligible for a full tuition refund on any individual courses that are dropped on or before the last day of the drop period, which concludes on the fifth day (excluding weekends) of the regular onsite fall and spring semesters and on the fifth day for any online term. This is only applicable to adjustments in student load and does not apply to withdrawal from a semester entirely (See Withdrawal Refund Policy). There will be no tuition or fee refund for individual courses dropped after the designated drop period, regardless as to when the course first meets.

GRADUATION REQUIREMENTS

Associate Degree Candidates

The Associate of Arts and Associate of Science degrees are awarded subject to candidates meeting the following requirements. Candidates must:

1. Complete a minimum of 60 semester hours of coursework with a cumulative GPA of 2.0.
2. Complete the core curriculum requirements outlined above.
3. Complete the major area of study with no grade lower than C- counting toward the major area of study.
4. Demonstrate proficiency in the use of the English language as described under Core Curriculum Requirements.
5. Complete the last 30 semester hours in residence, maintaining at least a 2.0 GPA. Transfer students must earn a minimum of fifteen semester hours at Bryan in the major area of study.
6. File an Application for Graduation two semesters prior to the expected graduation date. Students will not be placed on the prospective graduate list until this application is on file in the Office of the Registrar. This form constitutes a formal agreement between the student and the institution regarding the completion of graduation requirements.
7. Participate in commencement exercises held in early May. When participation would create a hardship, documented requests are considered for the degree to be conferred in absentia. Since there is no ceremony in August students with one or two courses (a maximum of seven credits) left to complete at the end of the spring semester may participate as candidates for graduation in the May ceremony provided they have submitted and have had approved a definitive plan to complete their program by August 31 of the same year. In no case may a student participate in two commencement exercises for the same degree. In order for students to participate in Commencement financial accounts with the College must be paid in full.

While faculty advisers and the Office of the Registrar will assist students in every possible way, final responsibility for meeting all requirements rests with the student.

Baccalaureate Degree Candidates

The baccalaureate degrees are awarded subject to candidates meeting the following requirements. Candidates must:

1. Complete a minimum of 120 semester hours of coursework, earning a minimum of 25 percent of the semester hours required for each degree through instruction at Bryan College, with a cumulative GPA of 2.0. Additionally, a minimum of 30 semester hours must be at the 300/400 level. A candidate for a second Bryan baccalaureate degree awarded either simultaneously with or subsequent to the first degree must complete meet the specific course requirements of both programs.
 2. Complete the Bible course requirements outlined above.
 3. Complete the core curriculum requirements outlined above. The College requires a variety of core curriculum assessments prior to graduation.
 4. Complete the program in a major area of study with no grade lower than C- counting toward the major area of study, and, in the case of education licensure candidates, toward their professional education core. When a student fails to earn a C- or above in a major course, the course may be repeated, or another course from the major field of study may be substituted. Students should consult with the academic adviser and the Registrar in these cases. In addition to course requirements, each department requires a senior assessment in the major area of study prior to graduation. Transfer students must earn a minimum of 15 semester hours at Bryan in the major area of study. Also, 40% of the credits in the major must be at the 300/400 level. Licensure candidates must also complete a prescribed professional education sequence. Candidates for the B.S.N. degree have additional requirements and must earn grades no less than C (2.0). Refer to the BSN Student Handbook for complete information.
 5. Complete an optional minor area of study with no grade lower than a C-. At least nine hours of a minor must be taken at Bryan. Six hours of a minor must be courses not overlapping with major courses or other minors. An application for minor form must be submitted to the Office of the Registrar for each minor program of study.
 6. Demonstrate proficiency in the use of the English language as described under Core Curriculum Requirements.

7. Complete the last 31 semester hours in residence, maintaining at least a 2.0 GPA. Students desiring to take courses at another institution within the last 31 semester hours in residence must submit and have approved a Petition for Off-Campus Credit.

8. File an Application for Graduation form by the end of the junior year. Students will not be placed on the prospective graduate list until this application is on file in the Office of the Registrar. This form constitutes a formal agreement between the student and the institution regarding the completion of graduation requirements.

9. Participate in commencement exercises held in early May. When participation would create a hardship, documented requests are considered for the degree to be conferred in absentia. Since there is no ceremony in August students with one or two courses (a maximum of seven credits) left to complete at the end of the spring semester may participate as candidates for graduation in the May ceremony provided they have submitted and have had approved a definitive plan to complete their program by August 31 of the same year. In no case may a student participate in two commencement exercises for the same degree. In order for students to participate in Commencement financial accounts with the College must be paid in full.

While faculty advisers and the Office of the Registrar will assist students in every possible way, final responsibility for meeting all requirements rests with the student.

Writing Across the Curriculum

Writing Across the Curriculum (WAC) is a program that promotes strong undergraduate writers in all disciplines. The objectives of WAC are the following: (1) Students will identify standard writing conventions within the present discourse of their discipline. (2) Students will implement writing techniques to communicate clearly and convincingly in their discipline. (3) Students will adapt their writing skills to meet a wide range of graduate and/or professional writing tasks.

These objectives are incorporated in all majors depending on each program's choice of WAC implementation. Upon graduation, students will receive writing instruction in their discipline equal to one three-credit course. For more information about Writing Across the Curriculum, please contact the WAC director.

ACADEMIC POLICIES AND PROCEDURES

Credit Toward a Degree

The most common method of earning academic credit toward a Bryan College degree is by completing the courses offered by the College. A description of course expectations is included later in this section of the Catalog.

Bryan College students may also obtain advanced placement, earn college credit, and meet certain course requirements by demonstrating proficiency on various tests: the College Level Examination Program (CLEP), the Advanced Placement (AP) Program, the International Baccalaureate (IB) Program, tests constructed locally by Bryan College, as well as through joint/dual enrollment programs linking community colleges and high schools for the purpose of college level core curriculum, and other approved off-campus programs. Credit may be allowed for work completed at military service schools if this credit is recommended by the American Council on Education in A Guide to the Evaluation of Educational Experiences in the Armed Service. Students may choose or be required to take another course from the same general area.

1. Students may earn a maximum of 30 semester hours of credit by examination (such as CLEP, AP, IB, challenge, etc.). No credit may be applied toward the 31 semester hour residency requirement without the express approval of the Provost.

2. No duplicate credit may be awarded through overlapping tests or comparable college courses. Students who complete a college course for which credit by examination has been granted forfeit the credit by examination.

3. Credit earned by examination and/or through these programs will be posted as "CR" (credit) with no quality points being awarded.

4. Students may not be allowed to meet all of the core curriculum requirements through credit by examination without taking an appropriate, regularly offered course (normally an advanced course) in that area.
5. Credit earned by examination may be applied toward major requirements only when approved by the faculty adviser, the chair of the appropriate department, and the Registrar.
6. Credit earned by examination at other institutions is not transferable to Bryan. Official test score reports must be sent to Bryan for evaluation. Credit will be awarded in accordance with Bryan's policy on credit by examination.

CLEP Examinations

Students whose score meets or exceeds the American Council on Education (ACE) recommendation on a CLEP Examination which approximates a course offered at Bryan will receive credit for the number of semester hours listed in the catalog for that course (unless the ACE recommendation is less). Students earning credit for College Composition will still need to complete ENG 110 College Writing II. Examinations which Bryan accepts include:

Cambridge International Exams

Students who have taken Cambridge International Exams should have official score reports sent to Bryan College in order to be exempt from specific courses or receive college credit for the corresponding courses. Students who have scores of a, b, c, or d on ‘A’ or ‘AS’ exams are granted college credit for the number of semester hours listed in the catalog. Actual credit awarded and course equivalencies will be determined on an individual basis.

International Baccalaureate Tests

Students who have taken International Baccalaureate (IB) Tests should have official score reports sent to Bryan College in order to be exempt from specific courses or receive college credit for the corresponding courses. Students who have scores of 4, 5, 6, or 7 on the “higher level” IB exam are granted college credit for the number of semester hours listed in the catalog. Credit also is extended to students who score a 6 or 7 on a “subsidiary level” IB exam. Actual credit awarded and course equivalencies will be determined on an individual basis.

Statewide Dual Credit (Tennessee)

Tennessee High School students who are enrolled in the Statewide Dual Credit program who earn a passing score on the challenge exam will be allowed college credit upon submission of official documents. For additional information see <https://www.tn.gov/education/early-postsecondary/dual-credit.html> or contact the Office of the Registrar.

Bryan College Tests (Challenge Tests)

Students who have gained knowledge and acquired skills for which corresponding college credit has not been given may challenge by examination some courses offered by the College. This option is not available for courses in which a CLEP or DSST exam is given. Not all courses are appropriate for a challenge exam, for example, performance based or activity courses, laboratory courses, research courses, practicums, and internships. Typically, only courses that can be evaluated by a comprehensive written exam are eligible.

1. A written request from the student must be approved by the chair of the department for the course, the academic adviser and the Office of the Registrar before the examination is taken.
2. A student may challenge a course only once and must do so prior to enrolling in the course or before completing six weeks in the course.

Charges for credit earned through proficiency examinations administered at Bryan College are $25.00 per credit hour. An additional basic charge of $25.00 is assessed for each test taken.

Transfer of Credit

Students transferring to Bryan College from other institutions of postsecondary education obtain advanced standing based on the amount of credit transferred. Only work which is comparable to that at Bryan College in level, nature and content may be accepted for credit toward a degree. Each student’s transcript is evaluated individually on a case by case basis and is, in part, dependent on the major selected.

- 1) Courses transferred to meet Bryan’s core curriculum requirements and major program requirements must approximate courses required at Bryan. Equivalency is judged by the Registrar in the case of core curriculum requirements and electives, and by the Registrar in consultation with the chair of the department in the case of major courses.
- 2) Credits earned at four-year institutions accredited by the appropriate regional accrediting association are transferred with the following exceptions:

- a) Only credits with a minimum grade of C- (or equivalent) are transferable.
 - b) Up to 30 semester hours of Bible courses are transferable.
 - c) The College will accept credit by transfer which is applicable toward degree requirements (Bible course requirements, core curriculum requirements, major program of study, professional education requirements) and elective credit, up to 90 semester hours. Elective credit beyond that required to meet the 120 semester hour minimum will not be transferred.
 - d) Courses used to satisfy the Christian Studies core curriculum requirements must be taken at an ABHE (Association for Biblical Higher Education) or CCCU governing member or associate member institutions.
- 3) Only credit hours are transferred and such hours are not included in the calculation of a student's GPA.
 - 4) Credits earned in two-year institutions accredited by the appropriate regional accrediting association are transferred as follows.
 - a) Students transferring from these institutions must earn a minimum of 62 semester hours at a regionally accredited four-year institution before earning a baccalaureate degree.
 - b) Courses completed as part of an Associate of Arts or Associate of Science degree program are transferable up to a maximum of 62 semester hours.
 - c) Courses completed as part of an Associate in Applied Science degree program, which do not satisfy core curriculum requirements or reasonably approximate other courses presently offered at Bryan College, may be transferable as electives.
 - 5) Credits from schools which are not regionally accredited or which hold specialty/national accreditation are transferred at the option of the College after a thorough review.
 - 6) Industrial/technological courses normally are not transferable. These include courses in which the credentials earned depict proficiency in an area of employment skill only (i.e., aviation, automotive mechanics, cosmetology, office administration, welding etc.).
 - 7) International students who have post-secondary transcripts that may apply toward a degree at Bryan are responsible for submitting those records to an approved agency that will evaluate and translate the documents. The cost for this service is the responsibility of the student. The official transcript must also be submitted directly to Bryan College as part of the Admissions process.
 - 8) All students should be aware that transfer of credit is always the responsibility of the receiving institution. If any student is interested in transferring credit hours from Bryan College to another institution, it is up to the student to check with that institution about their transfer credit policies and to determine what may possibly be transferred.
 - 9) Articulation agreement between Bryan and Tennessee's public community colleges: Bryan College accepts the Board of Regents-approved transfer associate degree from public community colleges in the state of Tennessee. Students earning these degrees are granted 60 semester credits and junior standing upon admission. Since some of Bryan's four-year degree programs require specific course work to be completed as core curriculum classes, students must complete these courses either as part of their associate degree or at Bryan College. (Students planning to transfer should carefully choose their core curriculum courses in consultation with their community college adviser and Bryan in order to ensure that the best selections are made in light of their intended four-year major. Students desiring to earn credit through non-traditional means should consult Bryan policies as well.) The College also requires completion of the Christian Studies core requirements plus the remaining coursework that students with a transfer associate degree must take to finish their baccalaureate program. All courses in the student's major – both lower and upper division – must have a grade of C- or higher. Though admitted with junior standing, graduation at Bryan within two additional years is not guaranteed.

Exceptions to Academic Policies and Procedures

Petition for exception to academic regulations may be made by obtaining the petition form from the Office of the Registrar. The completed form signed by the student, the academic adviser, and the Registrar is submitted to the Vice President of Academics & Provost for consideration. The student will be notified in writing of the decision.

Academic Resource Center

The Academic Resource Center (ARC) oversees our student success/engagement initiatives. We want our students to thrive, achieve, and be successful during their time at Bryan College and the ARC provides resources to assist in their success. The ARC includes Tutoring and Testing Services, Calling & Career Development, as well as Student Success Coaches. The ARC is located on the second floor of Mercer.

CALLING AND CAREER DEVELOPMENT

Calling and Career Development at Bryan College aims to serve all residential and online students as well as Bryan's Alumni community. Calling and Career Development is housed in the Academic Resource Center (ARC) and shares its mission "[t]o connect with students where they are, to help them discover where they want to go and to provide resources to guide them towards meaningful success".

Calling and Career Development provides assistance in career counseling and planning, writing resumes and cover letters, job/internship/graduate school interview preparation, etc. Resources and services can be offered virtually to allow flexibility for those who cannot visit the campus.

Calling and Career Development hosts a variety of career and networking events each year to challenge and encourage students in their professional growth and to aid in their preparation for life beyond Bryan.

Disability Services

For students with disabilities (as defined by Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended, and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990), Bryan College takes an individual, holistic approach in providing, as required by law, reasonable accommodations.

Eligible students must formally notify the College of their disability, either at the time of admission and before accommodations are requested at the beginning of each semester. The notification must be in writing, must include appropriate documentation, and must be submitted to the ADA Coordinator. Documentation required (to be obtained by the student at his/her expense) includes a formal evaluation by a physician or a professional who is able to diagnose the student's condition. The student will then meet with the ADA Coordinator to discuss what accommodations may be offered regarding specific needs and services.

Examples of alternative aids that may be appropriate include taped texts, note-takers, interpreters, readers (for test-taking only), additional time for tests, and alternative methods of assessment. The College is not required to supply students with attendants, individually prescribed devices such as hearing aids and wheelchairs, readers for personal use or study, other devices or services of a personal nature, or incompletes / extended semesters. The courts have also ruled that colleges are not required to lower the standards of any program, make fundamental alterations in the essential nature of a program, or assume undue financial or administrative burdens.

The campus ADA Coordinator considers a student's request and documentation and subsequently determines what specific services will be offered by the College. The Coordinator then provides the minimum expectations for accommodations. These accommodations are then provided to the student on a Syllabus Addendum form that student must take to the faculty of each course. A Syllabus Addendum must be completed and on file for each course within the first ten business days of the semester or within ten business days of a diagnosis/approval by the ADA coordinator. Once the basic provisions are deemed acceptable by both the faculty member and the student, the original signed copy must be turned in to the ADA Coordinator. If there are issues or concerns with the accommodations the student or his/her professor(s) may appeal the decision and will be provided a way for the grievance to be heard. For more information, please contact the ADA Coordinator, in the Office of Equity and Accessibility.

ACADEMIC REGISTRATION

Academic Advising

Prior to registration all new students participate in an orientation program designed to help guide students into a successful college experience. Orientation sessions acquaint students with college personnel, community life, co-curricular, and academic programs.

One of the most important advising tools is the college Catalog. Students are urged to become familiar with this Catalog in order to be able to track their own records and to make certain that they are meeting the graduation requirements which are outlined. The academic adviser counsels the student on the appropriate choice of curriculum and on the selection of courses for each semester. The Registrar assists the advisers in informing seniors of courses needed to meet degree requirements. Final responsibility, nevertheless, rests with the student for seeing that all degree requirements are met prior to the projected date of graduation.

Academic Adviser

Each degree seeking student is assigned an academic adviser. The purpose of this academic advising is to assist the student in setting personal, educational, and vocational goals which are consistent with Christian values and in developing an educational program which will carry the student forward toward the realization of these goals. The student meets regularly with the academic adviser prior to registration times and is encouraged to freely seek counsel at other times.

Pre-professional Studies

Most professional schools recommend that students gain a broad general background at the undergraduate level. Students who plan to enter graduate or professional school should carefully plan their undergraduate programs with their faculty adviser and should be certain that the program of studies meets all requirements for admission to a particular graduate or professional school.

Pre-professional programs in the health sciences are included in the Department of Biology and Department of Exercise & Health Science.

Students interested in pre-professional programs in church vocations may consult with the Department of Christian Studies or any number of academic departments.

For students interested in a career in the legal professions the Department of Politics, Government, and History has pre-law course sequences which have enabled students to enroll in the law school of their choice. Other academic departments also can provide direction and advice regarding law studies.

Students interested in pre-professional studies are encouraged to consult with their academic advisers to ensure they have an individualized program which will assist them in meeting their career goals.

Summer Sessions

Summer sessions are scheduled according to need and demand. Anyone desiring information about these sessions should contact the Office of the Registrar.

Course Scheduling

The class schedule is initially published for preregistration and then is updated as necessary prior to the opening of the semester. The schedule lists courses to be offered by catalog number and title together with the hours of credit awarded, the time and place of class and lab sessions, and the name of the instructor.

The curricula of the Catalog and the class schedule are designed primarily with the degree candidate in mind. Any student, who expects to attend the College for less than two years, should ascertain whether courses desired will be offered during the anticipated enrollment period. The College assumes no responsibility to offer courses for students who plan to attend only one or two semesters. Under normal circumstances, no course will be offered unless there is an enrollment of at least eight persons. Exceptions must be approved by the Vice President of Academics & Provost.

Bryan College operates on a semester basis. One semester hour of credit is defined as 15 hours of class work with appropriate out-of-class assignments or 45 hours of laboratory work. Thus, a class which meets three hours a week for 15 weeks (one semester) equals 45 contact hours which will equate to three semester hours credit. A class which meets for class work three hours a week and for laboratory work three hours a week will carry four semester hours credit. Each hour of credit earned through independent study or practicum experience will normally require about 45 hours of student work.

A late registration fee is charged when a student fails to complete the registration process by the close of registration. Failure to complete registration appropriately may result in no credit if the student is not correctly registered in a course, or an F if the student is officially enrolled and fails to complete course requirements. The burden of responsibility is on the student to ensure that registration is completed in a timely manner.

Academic Load

An average full-time student load is 15-16 hours a semester. The minimum full-time load is 12 hours and the usual maximum load is 17 hours, although students may attempt more with the concurrence of the faculty adviser and the Registrar. A student who makes a grade point average of 3.0 or above may register for 19 hours. A student who achieves a grade point average of at least 3.25 may register for 20 hours. Full-time students are not permitted to be enrolled concurrently in other institutions without permission.

Students who maintain clear status and successfully complete an average of 15 semester hours per semester can complete the minimum 120 semester hours required for most programs in eight semesters.

Some students should carry fewer than the average 15-16 hours per semester because of a need to work in excess of 10 hours per week, involvement in co-curricular activities (such as drama or intercollegiate athletics), or because of an educational disadvantage. Those who carry reduced loads will need to plan a longer time to complete academic programs.

Some academic programs require more than 120 semester hours. Students enrolled in such programs will need to carry heavier loads or increase the length of time required to complete their programs.

Activity Courses

Students may earn a maximum of 12 semester hours of credit toward the minimum 120 hours required for graduation with a bachelor's degree through certain activities which overlap the boundary between curricular and co-curricular. These include music ensembles, drama workshops, intercollegiate sports, and news media production. Normally one hour of credit is awarded for each semester of full and active participation in one of these activities, and the grade assigned depends upon the quality and quantity of the participation. A student may not receive both academic credit and financial compensation through the work study program for the same activity.

Acadeum College Consortium

Bryan College is a member of the Acadeum College Consortium which is a group of accredited private colleges and universities that share select online courses. Courses taken through the consortium will be transcribed as Bryan College courses. However, students must be enrolled full-time (12 credit hours) to be eligible to register for a consortial course during the Fall or Spring semester. Drop/Add dates are set by the teaching institution. Bryan College has no control over said dates. Students should closely review requirements for any courses and any additional course fees required by the teaching institution.

These courses can be used to do the following:

- Repeat a course.
- Increase GPA to potentially remain eligible for scholarships and athletic eligibility.
- Meet a prerequisite.

Student Request and Approval Process

Students should work with their Advisor to identify potential courses to be taken. Students should also contact the Financial Aid Office regarding status and eligibility. Students can then request the course through the Acadeum Platform, found on myBryan, and provide rationale, as needed.

The Registrar will review requests and consider on campus course offerings, eligibility, business office standing, and prerequisites, as needed. Once the review is complete, the course request will be approved or denied or more information requested. Submissions are approved on a student by student basis.

After final approval, the student will receive assistance directly from the teaching institution and Acadeum support team in regards to log in and password, learning management systems, and starting the course.

Students may be dropped from an Acadeum course, by Bryan College, if they are found to no longer meet the eligibility requirements.

Payment

Students will pay a $1200 fee to Bryan College for all Acadeum courses, in addition to regular block tuition during Fall and Spring semesters, as long as students have 12 credit hours before adding the Acadeum course and do not exceed 17 credit hours. If a student exceeds 17 credit hours, additional tuition will be charged at the current rate. Students will pay a flat fee of $1200 during summer terms with no additional tuition required. If a student withdraws from an Acadeum course before the teaching institutions drop date, a $150 administrative processing fee will be incurred, and the remaining fee refunded to the student's account. If a student withdraws from an Acadeum course after the teaching institution's drop date, no refund will be issued. All costs and billing will come directly from Bryan College, not the teaching institution. Any questions regarding costs, fees, or billing can be directed to the Business Office at Bryan College, NOT the teaching institution. Students are responsible for all costs of learning materials, including textbooks.

Auditing a Course

Auditing of lecture-discussion courses on the main campus (excluding labs, private lessons, performance based courses, online courses and independent studies, etc.) is permitted, but the student must register for each course audited and attend classes regularly. The student must continue the course until officially dropped from the roll. A student may not switch from credit to audit after the first six weeks of classes. All students should consult the "Expenses" section of this catalog for auditing fees. Note that preference is given to students enrolling for credit.

Double Majors

Students are permitted to complete more than one major. However, it may take longer to graduate and additional expenses may be incurred. Course scheduling is designed for students attempting one major and so the College is not responsible for resulting schedule conflicts. Additionally, it is the responsibility of the student to seek both permission and academic advisement from both majors. Students desiring to complete more than one major may do so provided a minimum of 50% of the hours required in one major do not overlap with the other major.

Completing two options within the same major does not constitute a double major or a second degree. Students interested in completing more than one option within the same major should consult with the Department to see if that is feasible. Option electives cannot be double counted.

Entering Catalog

The Academic Catalog which is current during the first semester the student is enrolled as a matriculated student contains the requirements that student is to follow. That catalog will remain open to the student until the student either graduates or does not re-enroll for one or more semesters. A student, in consultation with the adviser, may opt for a newer catalog. In the case where a student leaves Bryan with 18 hours or less remaining, the student has one calendar year from the date of last attendance to complete degree requirements under the entering catalog. Prior approval is required if any coursework is taken at another institution.

In the event that a program is discontinued. Students already pursuing that program will be able to complete that program under their entering catalog as long as they maintain continuous enrollment. However, students will not be able to change to a program that has been discontinued.

Independent Study

Bryan College offers students opportunities to earn credit toward graduation requirements through independent study. A maximum of nine credit hours may be earned through independent study by students with a cumulative GPA of at least 3.0 or with the recommendation of three faculty members. Students who desire to do independent study should secure complete guidelines and application forms from the Office of the Registrar. (Note: Independent Study granted for special circumstance. An additional instructional and administrative fee is incurred by the student for approved special circumstance independent study courses).

Selected Topics

Selected topics are courses offered by an academic department to address discipline-specific content not covered in standard Catalog courses. Selected topics are offered at the impetus of the departmental faculty and are subject to approval by academic leadership. Selected topics may include prerequisites or course fees.

Selected topics courses can be offered under any discipline prefix and at variable credit (1-4 credit hours). Selected topic courses that are created and offered to address current topics or based on unique circumstances may be offered no more than once within a four-year period. However, selected topic courses created to determine viability for future programmatic growth may be offered a maximum of twice in a two-year period.

The course numbering/level of Selected Topics courses is standardized as follows:

100-level: A course that is survey in nature and focused on acquainting students with the basic terms, methods, ideas, and language of the given subject matter.

200-level: A survey course that focuses to a greater extent on analytical activity and more complicated conceptual subject matter.

300-level: An advanced course that encompasses familiarity with the basics of the subject matter, in which students work more independently in applying the skills and/or research methods of the discipline.

400-level: A highly advanced course that encompasses familiarity with the subject matter and the development of higher-order critical thinking ability. Research, synthesis, and/or evaluation may receive heavy emphasis.

Tutorials

When a particular course is required for graduation and the enrollment is not sufficient to constitute a regular class, arrangements for individual instruction on a tutorial basis may be requested. Guidelines for tutorials and application forms are available in the Office of the Registrar. All tutorials must have the approval of the Registrar, Dean, and Vice President of Academics & Provost.

Repeating a Course

Courses taken by a student at Bryan may be repeated in order to improve the grade, subject to availability. This option does not apply to courses which are designed to be taken multiple times (see section below). A repeated course with the corresponding grade will appear on the student's academic transcript each time the course is attempted, but only the highest grade earned will be used in calculating the student's cumulative grade point average. If the course is repeated at another institution, credit is transferred to Bryan to fulfill graduation requirements, but the grade is not transferred; therefore, no change of GPA occurs. Students receiving educational benefits from the Veterans Administration may not repeat a course previously passed solely for the purpose of improving the grade. To qualify for payment from the VA, the repeat must be required for graduation. A third attempt will not be eligible for any financial aid.

Repeatable Courses

There are a limited number of courses which may be repeated for additional credit. In these cases, a student may not replace a lower grade by taking the course again. The types of courses which are repeatable are music ensembles, varsity athletics, and selected topics (with different topics). Courses which may be repeated for additional credit are as follows:

REPEATABLE COURSES
Course Number	Course Title (# of credits in a term)	Total career credits
All disciplines	Selected Topics (varies)	Unlimited as long as topic is different
All disciplines	Independent Study (varies)	9 credits total
BIO 400	Supervised Research (3)	12
BUS 377	Business Internship (1-3)	3

THT 161	Theatre Practicum (1)*	4
THT 231	Intermediate Theatre Practicum (1)	2
* A grand total of 12 credits may be earned in these courses.

Course Prerequisites

Required prerequisites are noted along with the course descriptions. The course prerequisite may be satisfied by earning at least a D-. If a course is required for the major the student will still need to repeat the course to earn at least a C- but will be allowed to continue with subsequent coursework. It may not be advisable to continue without adequate preparation and the student should consult with his/her major adviser regarding the best course of action.

Schedule Adjustments

Students desiring to make schedule changes after the semester has begun will be allowed to do so within certain structured guidelines. Students may drop or add a course during the first five days of classes by filing an approved registration adjustment with the Office of the Registrar. Students who receive financial aid must check with the Financial Aid Office before taking less than 12 semester hours. The drop/add period concludes at 5 pm on the fifth day of classes of the semester.

Beginning with the 6th day of classes during the regular fall and spring semesters no courses may be added or changed and withdrawals will be recorded as a “W” on the student transcript. For sessions which are of shorter duration than the traditional fall and spring semesters the drop/add period and withdrawal period will be adjusted according to the length of the term.

In the fall semester the last day to withdraw from a course is the Friday prior to Thanksgiving. In the spring semester the last day to withdraw from a course is the Friday prior to the last three weeks of classes plus finals week. Following the last day to withdraw a student will receive a final letter grade whether he/she chooses to complete the course or not. For sessions which are of shorter duration than the traditional fall and spring semesters the drop/add period and withdrawal period will be adjusted according to the length of the term.

After the add and drop segment concludes any student who attends classes for which he/she is not registered or stops attending classes for which he/she is registered without filing in the Office of the Registrar a registration adjustment form may be penalized by receiving a grade of F or by loss of credit. The Registrar may permit a student to file a registration adjustment form after the fact, but a fee of $25.00 will be levied.

Administrative Withdrawal

Students are expected to prepare for and attend all classes for which they are registered, to act in a manner consistent with an academic environment while attending class, and to engage in all courses in a manner consistent with the expectations described in the course syllabus. The instructor may assign an administrative withdrawal (AW), subject to the approval of the academic dean over the course, when the student consistently fails to abide by the attendance policy established for the class, exhibits disruptive or unruly behavior in class, and/or fails to achieve adequate academic progress in a course.

A grade of AW would be considered punitive and calculated in the grade point average as an 'F'. Such students have seven calendar days to respond to written notification that their continuation in the class is in jeopardy. Students are responsible for correspondence that is sent to them via their Bryan e-mail account or to their campus mailbox. Students are also responsible for maintaining an accurate home mailing address with the College. Failure to respond appropriately within the seven-day period and to correct the behavior to the satisfaction of the instructor will result in an AW in the course. If one grade of AW is assigned all other instructors for that student will be contacted to see if there are other attendance or academic issues. And, if such behaviors are the rule rather than the exception, the student is subject to dismissal from the College. An AW grade, once assigned, is final and cannot be removed by withdrawal from the course or from the College. No refunds of any kind will be made in the case of an administrative withdrawal.

A request for an administrative withdrawal must be initiated no later than seven days prior to the last day for the student to withdraw from the course in question.

DURING DROP PERIOD: Students who fail to attend a course during the drop period without prior permission from the instructor may be dropped from the course by the instructor.

Official Means of Communication

All enrolled students are issued a Bryan College email account. Students are responsible for monitoring this email account on a regular basis and are responsible for information from Bryan College that is communicated in this way. Emails sent to a student's @bryan.edu account from Bryan College Administration, faculty, and staff are considered official College communication.

Course Numbering

The letter prefix for course numbers indicates the academic discipline: BIB-Bible, BIO-biology, etc. The digit in the hundreds numerical place designates the level: 100 through 199-freshman level, 200 through 299-sophomore level, 300 through 399-junior level, and 400 through 499-senior level. Courses in the 100's and 200's are referred to as lower division courses and those in the 300's and 400's as upper division courses. Courses numbered below 100 are remedial/developmental courses and the credit does not apply toward graduation.

The digit in the tens numerical place indicates the content of the course: -10 to -19 are assigned to courses offered primarily to meet core curriculum requirements; -20 to -59 are assigned to courses offered primarily to meet major program requirements; -60 to -69 are assigned to co-curricular activities such as chorale, intercollegiate sports, drama workshop, etc.; -70 to -79 are assigned to independent study and practicums; and -90 to -99 are assigned to selected topics and seminar courses.

Course Types

Students should be aware of the different types, or modalities, of various courses offered by the College.

Lecture: This is the most typical and prevalent course type. Consists of ordinary and in-person classroom instruction in which a faculty member leads students through content via lecture, discussion, in-class exercises, varied assignments, etc.

Seminar: This type of course takes place in-person, but its instructional modality is more focused on communal learning and direct student contributions to the learning environment.

Practicum/Internship: This type of course typically does not feature classroom-type meetings, but rather focuses on the facilitation of learning experiences outside the classroom in applied, practical, or professional settings. Interactions with faculty members in relation to such coursework may be more sporadic or informal depending on the needs of the practicum/internship.

Online: This modality refers to coursework that is hosted and facilitated entirely virtually, with no requirement for in-person or residential interaction.

Hybrid: This refers to a course that is facilitated partly in-person (residential classroom instruction) and partly online. Hybrid courses are offered on-campus to residential students but leverage the online environment to reduce the total amount of in-class time/meetings.

Course typing may be indicated in a variety of ways, but course title, course description, or information provided in the process of registration are most typical.

Withdrawal from the College

To withdraw from the College, a student must complete and submit to the Student Life Office a withdrawal form.

Students who officially withdraw from the College will have W's recorded on their transcript for each course in progress. A student who leaves school without filing official forms will receive AW's (administrative withdrawals) in all in progress courses.

When serious illness or extreme emergency forces a student to leave college during the last four weeks of the semester (last three class weeks and exam week), arrangements for the possible completion of academic work are governed by a policy statement published in the Faculty Handbook.

The Office of Student Life is the primary point of contact for the coordination and oversight of all actions taken upon notification of a student death. The Vice President for Student Life will designate a primary and single point of contact for the family in navigating College-related business and contacts with faculty, staff, or students.

Classification of Students

Students are classified according to the following academic standards:

FRESHMAN	Admission to freshman standing.
SOPHOMORE	At least 27 semester hours of credit.
JUNIOR	At least 56 semester hours of credit and, normally, acceptance as a major in an academic discipline.
SENIOR	At least 85 semester hours of credit, a 2.0 average, and a completed Application for Graduation on file with the Office of the Registrar.
VISITING	A visiting student is any student not working toward a degree at Bryan College, including transient students regularly enrolled in another institution but taking coursework at Bryan for transfer purposes. In addition, students who already hold a bachelor's degree who are taking additional undergraduate work, as well as non-traditional students who wish to undertake college work, but who do not intend to earn a degree, also come under this heading.

COMPUTATION OF GRADE POINT AVERAGES

A student's Grade Point Average (GPA) is determined by dividing the sum of the quality points earned by the sum of the semester hours attempted. Averages are computed only for work taken at Bryan and are shown in detail on the student grade report which is maintained and available through the Office of the Registrar.

A student who wishes to contest a grade should submit a written request to the instructor of the course. A form is available from the Office of the Registrar. This request should be submitted as soon as possible but no later than one year from the end of the term of the course in question.

Grading Practices and Standards

Symbol	Quality Points	Explanation
A	4.0	Work which fulfills course requirements at a superior level of performance and which manifests outstanding interest, effort, responsibility, and creativity.
A-	3.7
B+	3.3	Work which fulfills course requirements at an above average level of performance and which manifests above average interest, effort, responsibility, and originality.
B	3.0
B-	2.7
C+	2.3	Work which fulfills course requirements at an average level of performance and which manifests adequate interest, effort, responsibility, and improvement.
C	2.0
C-	1.7
D+	1.3	Work which falls short of fulfilling course requirements at an average level of performance and which manifests a lack of interest, effort, responsibility or which shows a need for improvement.
D	1.0
D-	0.7
F	0.0	Failure, carries no credit, and is given for work which fails to meet minimum course requirements.
AW	0.0
AU	Audit
P	Pass – equivalent to a C- or higher. Used only for designated courses such as extracurricular activities, music ensembles, and theatre practicums.
I	A grade of Incomplete is given only when extended illness or other circumstances beyond the student’s control prevent the student from completing assignments or from taking the final examination. An Incomplete is not given to allow a student time to do make-up or other work to influence a grade for which the work in reality has already been completed. No grade of Incomplete will be recorded unless formally requested by the student and approved by the Vice President of Academics & Provost. Students who receive an I are required to complete coursework within eight weeks from the last day of the exam period, unless an extension approved by the teacher and the registrar is granted. After this period, the I becomes an F and is recorded on the student’s transcript.
W	Withdrawn from the course
AW	Administrative Withdraw (calculated as an F)
S*	Satisfactory (used for developmental courses)
U*	Unsatisfactory (used for developmental courses)
NR	Not reported
NC	No credit

Grading Scale

The grading scale used for all* undergraduate-level courses is listed below:

A	93% - 100%	C	73% - 75.99%
A-	90% - 92.99%	C-	70% - 72.99%
B+	86% - 89.99%	D+	66% - 69.99%
B	83% - 85.99%	D	63% - 65.99%
B-	80% - 82.99%	D-	60% - 62.99%
C+	76% - 79.99%	F	less than 60%

* The BSN program has a separate grading scale for its nursing courses. Please reference the BSN Student Handbook.

Academic Appeals Process

If a student believes that a grade in a class is incorrect or that the professor has not graded the work in a responsible manner, he or she has the right to appeal the grade in writing to the Dean of his/her respective school. The appeal should be sent to the Administrative Assistant to the Vice President of Academics within 90 days of the final grade being posted to the student's transcript. The appeal will then be reviewed by the Dean and a decision will be forwarded to the student as quickly as possible. Appeals made after the 90-day window, inclusive of non-business days and standard college vacation days, will not be considered valid and may not be entertained by the Dean. Should the student desire further consideration, a final appeal can be made to the Vice President of Academics. Details as to the construction of the appeal letter and its contents can be obtained by contacting the Academic Office.

Honors and Awards

Dean's List

At the end of each fall and spring semester, the Office of the Registrar compiles the Dean's List, which includes the full-time undergraduate students (12 or more graded credits) who have earned a minimum current term grade point average of 3.8 to 3.999 with no individual grade less than "B" (3.0). Students carrying 11 hours or less are not eligible for the Dean's List.

President's List

At the end of each fall and spring semester, the Office of the Registrar compiles the President's List, which includes the full-time undergraduate students (12 or more completed credits) who have earned a current term grade point average of 4.0. Students carrying 11 hours or less are not eligible for the President's List.

Awards

In addition to the academic awards described in this section the following awards are given annually:

The P.A. Boyd Awards are annual awards given in accordance with the terms specified by the original underwriter of the award, Mr. P.A. Boyd of Bloomfield, New Jersey. Ordinarily, awards are made to a man and a woman in the senior class. No award is made if in the opinion of the faculty no student qualifies. These awards are given to the students whose powers and attainments of body and mind and whose principles and character have secured for them the highest degree of influence over their fellow students. Candidates for these prizes must manifest nobility of character, fearlessness, and self-sacrificing devotion to the ideals of a purposeful life, and an active identification in constructive work for the best interest of student life in the College.

Faithfulness and Loyalty Awards are given to two seniors (one male/one female) who, in the judgment of the faculty and administration, have contributed most in faithfulness and loyalty to the welfare of the College.

The Judson A. Rudd Testimony and Influence Award is a cash award given by an anonymous donor for the upperclassman having an outstanding Christian testimony and exerting the best Christian influence on incoming students. This selection is made by freshmen utilizing a secret ballot.

The Melvin M. Seguire Award is an annual award of $500.00 to a graduating male student who has been enrolled at Bryan for at least two years and who plans to do graduate work that will lead to a missionary or pastoral career.

Faculty Graduation Awards

Each year in which there are qualified candidates, prizes are awarded by the faculty to the senior who having completed at least 112 semester hours at Bryan has the highest scholastic record while attending Bryan College. As well as to two seniors (one male/one female) who in the judgment of the faculty have achieved the most progress while attending Bryan College.

Graduation with Honors

Upon the recommendation of the faculty, a candidate for a bachelor's degree who has taken at least 48 semester hours of graded coursework at Bryan, will be graduated with traditional Latin honors as follows:

cum laude for a cumulative grade point average of 3.60-3.74

magna cum laude for a cumulative grade point average of 3.75-3.89

summa cum laude for a cumulative grade point average of 3.90-4.00

Graduation with "Honors" is not to be confused with graduation from the Bryan Honors Institute, which is described under the Special Programs section in this Catalog.

Course Expectations

Course Requirements

Each instructor is required to give class members a syllabus during the first week of classes, which explains course objectives and requirements, class attendance policy, and the grading system that will be used. Students are responsible for fulfilling course requirements as outlined in the syllabus. The instructor may make reasonable modifications in course requirements, but these will be announced sufficiently far enough in advance to avoid undue hardship. Students are expected to complete all assigned work and take all examinations. Students will be graded on their performance in achieving the objectives of the course. Failure to complete assignments or to take tests will result in appropriate reduction in grades.

Class Attendance Policy

Attendance at classes is encouraged and expected by the College. Attendance policy for lower division courses is noted below. Attendance policy for upper division courses is at the discretion of the faculty member and will be outlined in the course syllabus. Each instructor must be able to document a student's last day of attendance. Students are responsible for any work missed when they are absent from a class. Please refer to the BSN Student Handbook for the School of Nursing attendance policy.

Attendance Policy for 100/200 Level Courses

Excused absences include absences for illness, personal emergency, or school-sponsored activities. To be considered an excused absence for illness or personal emergency, the student must submit a note from a doctor or appropriate person (physician, licensed counselor, etc.) to the Office of Academics, as well as to each professor affected. This should be done within a week of returning to class and must be done before the beginning of final exams.

Allowed absences are defined by the below chart, each unexcused absence in excess of the specified allowed absences will result in a point reduction (out of 1000 points) in the final course grade. Exceeding the maximum number of allowed unexcused absences will result in failure of the course or in being administratively withdrawn from the course.

Credit hours of course	Number of class meetings per week	Number of unexcused absences permitted	Points lost on final grade per each day missed after the permitted number	Maximum total number of unexcused absences before academic withdrawal
1	2	1	50	4
2	2	2	50	6
2	1	1	100	3
3	1	1	150	3
3	2	2	75	6

3	3	3	50	8
4	3	3	50	8
4	2	2	75	6
Lab	1	1	50	4

Major Assessments

Tests, papers, projects, and other major assessments are administered at the professor's discretion. Students are expected to be present for all such scheduled major assessments. If an absence during a major assessment is necessary because of illness or other emergency, the student must provide documentation and make appropriate arrangements with the course instructor to complete the major assessment in a timely manner.

Final Exams

The last four days of each semester are set aside for final exams. The final exam period is a part of the regular academic calendar. Each student is expected to make arrangements to remain on campus to complete all scheduled examinations. At the discretion of the faculty member, each senior completing the final semester with at least a B average in the course in question may be exempted from the final exam in the course. No classes are held during the final exam period. All charges, fees, penalties and student accounts are to be paid before final exams are taken.

Students desiring a change in the time of a scheduled final exam must submit a request to provost@bryan.edu no later than 10 days in advance of the exam period. In the case of illness or emergency during finals week, students should contact the Academic Office, who will then notify the appropriate faculty.

Students are reminded to consult the final exam schedule early each semester and to make all necessary arrangements, including transportation, in order to remain on campus to complete all exams according to the published schedule.

Satisfactory Academic Progress For Continuation

Standards for demonstrating satisfactory academic progress for continued enrollment at Bryan College are shown below. Students whose grades fall below this level are placed on academic probation. The BSN program has additional requirements for remaining in the BSN program. Please refer to the BSN Student Handbook for the School of Nursing progression policies.

Academic Probation

When a continuing student's cumulative grade point average falls below 2.0, the student is placed on academic probation. The academic probation student has two semesters (fall/spring) to remove this status and if failing to do so may re-enroll only with the express approval of the Provost following a written appeal by the student. The academic adviser may limit a student's academic load.

Students in a probationary status may be limited in the amount of academic load, work hours and participation in extracurricular activities (campus events, athletics etc.). Specific limitations on participation in athletic events is determined by current eligibility requirements of the National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics as well as the athletic department administration.

Academic Condition

New students who do not meet standards for clear admission may be admitted on academic condition. The student on academic condition has two semesters to remove this status; failing to do so means the student may only re-enroll with the express approval of the Provost following a written appeal by the student. In order to remove the conditional status a student must earn at least a 2.0 cumulative grade point average by the end of the first two semesters.

Academic Suspension and Dismissal

A student on condition or probation who fails to remove probationary status after two semesters will normally be suspended. The Provost will give consideration to the student's continuance for one additional semester only if the student has shown sufficient improvement in academic performance during the probationary semesters to indicate a good probability of success toward graduation.

When a student's grade point average falls to a point where there is no reasonable possibility of bringing it to the level required for graduation, the student will be dismissed. A student dismissed for academic reasons may apply for re-admission, but will be re-admitted with the approval of the Provost. In addition, a student so dismissed will be encouraged to pursue his/her education elsewhere for a period of at least six months.

Additionally, applicants who knowingly submit inaccurate, misleading, and/or falsified documents, which would include the omission of information and/or documents, during the admission process would be referred to the Dean or Vice President of Academics & Provost. Such actions would be grounds for dismissal.

Transcript of Record

The Office of the Registrar keeps on file a permanent record of all credits earned by each student. Transcripts of record are issued only upon receipt of a written request signed by the student in accordance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act. Before an official transcript of record will be issued, the student's financial obligations at the College must have been met, and there must be no record that the student is in default status on any student loan. A $10.00 fee is currently being charged for each transcript providing it can be reproduced in the normal course of business. Transcripts required in 48 hours or less require $25.00 plus the cost of USPS Overnight service. Transcript requests may also be submitted electronically through the National Student Clearinghouse.

Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA)

Purpose: The purpose of the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act is to protect the privacy of parents and students by governing access to records maintained by certain educational institutions and agencies and the release of such records.

Conformity: Bryan College hereby pledges conformity to the provisions of the law and notifies parents and students as to their rights with respect to records maintained on students who are, have been, or will be enrolled at Bryan College.

Rights: A student may have access to official records directly related to that student, within the provisions of the law. A student may have a hearing to challenge records on the grounds that they are inaccurate, misleading or otherwise inappropriate. The written consent of the student will be secured before releasing personally identifiable data about the student from records to other than the following list of exceptions:

1. Parents of a financially dependent student;
2. School officials and authorized personnel at Bryan College, with "authorized" meaning only those persons who need specific records to carry out their designated responsibilities;
3. Auditors or authorized program evaluators or representatives of Federal Financial-Aid Programs or other federally sponsored educational programs, with no release of personally identifiable information permitted by such persons;
4. Accrediting organizations for the purpose of carrying out accrediting functions only;

5. Appropriate persons if the knowledge of such information is necessary to protect the health or safety of the student or other persons;
6. School officials and Bryan College students for directory information and newspapers and other public media for recognition of awards, degrees, and activities unless the student prohibits the release of such information by August 1 of each year by giving in writing a request to the Public Relations Office of the College that a particular type(s) of item(s) be omitted (see section on "definitions" for directory information);
7. Courts in compliance with judicial order or subpoena, with the student being notified of all such orders in advance of the compliance;
8. Any other legitimate persons to whom the records are available by law

Students may not have access to financial information submitted by parents without the written permission of the parent received by the Financial Aid Office. Parents of financially dependent students have access to the records of their children in post-secondary institutions even though such students may be over the age of 18. Parents of financially-independent students may not have access to any records of their children in college unless the student signs a form releasing the specific record to the parent. Although waivers may not be used as a condition for admission to, receipt of financial aid from, or receipt of any other services or benefits from such agency or institution, the student or person applying for admission may waive his right of access to recommendations, provided the student or person is, upon request, notified of the names of all persons making confidential recommendations and such recommendations are used solely for the purpose of their specified intention.

Definitions: "Directory Information" means a student's name, telephone listing, campus address and campus e-mail address, photograph, date and place of birth, hometown and home state, major field of study, classification, participation in officially recognized activities and sports, weight and height of members of the athletic teams, dates of attendance, degrees and awards received, and the most recent previous educational agency or institution attended by the student. "Education Records" means those records, files, documents, and other material which contain information directly related to a student and which are maintained by an education agency or institution. The term does not include records of instructional, supervisory, and administrative personnel and educational personnel ancillary thereto which are in the sole possession of the maker thereof and which are not accessible or revealed to any other person except a substitute. The term does not include records on a college student which are created or maintained by a physician, psychiatrist, psychologist, or other recognized professional or paraprofessional acting in his professional or paraprofessional capacity, and which are created, maintained, or used only in connection with the provision of treatment to the student, and are not available to anyone other than persons providing such treatment, provided, however, that such records can be personally reviewed by a physician or any other appropriate professional of the student's choice. The term "Education Records" does not include records made and maintained in the normal course of business which relate exclusively to an employee of the institution and are not available for use for any other purpose.

Categories, Locations, Sources, and Routine Uses of Records: Records pertaining to students are kept in the following offices: Business, Counseling, Registrar, Student Life, Financial Aid, and Career Services.

Inquiries: Inquiries may be addressed to the chief administrative officer of any of the offices in which records are kept until such time as one person in the College is designated as the one in charge of all aspects pertaining to the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act.

Record Access Procedures: The student and/or the parent (whichever is entitled to have access to records) may request permission, in writing, to see a particular record pertaining to the student, after which the College will show the particular item or record or make a copy of the particular item or record at the expense of the student or parent. The charge is fifteen cents per sheet. The student or parent will have access to the record as soon as reasonably feasible, but no later than forty-five days after the request has been received or by whatever time is allowed by amendments to the law.

Office and Review Board: A student will be provided a hearing at Bryan College to challenge records on grounds that the records are inaccurate, misleading, or otherwise inappropriate.

Statement of Good Faith: Bryan College accepts the intent of this law, the Family Education Rights and Privacy Act, as a worthy goal and will endeavor to work within the guidelines of the law as they are understood at this time. As additional clarifications are made, adjustments will be made in the policies at Bryan College with respect to this law. Anything, therefore, that is included in this section of the Catalog that is in conflict with interpretation of the guidelines that have been or will be provided by federal government will give way to such interpretations. Information contained in this Catalog cannot of necessity be all-inclusive of the guidelines provided by the law, but it does serve its purpose in notifying parents and students of their primary rights as provided by the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act.

Addendum: As of January 3, 2012, the U.S. Department of Education's FERPA regulations expanded the circumstances under which education records and personally identifiable information (PII) contained in such records — including Social Security Number, grades, or other private information — may be accessed without the student's consent. First, the U.S. Comptroller General, the U.S. Attorney General, the U.S. Secretary of Education, or state and local education authorities ("Federal and State Authorities") may allow access to records and PII without consent to any third party designated by a Federal or State Authority to evaluate a federal- or state-supported education program. The evaluation may relate to any program that is "principally engaged in the provision of education," such as early childhood education and job training, as well as any program that is administered by an education agency or institution. Second, Federal and State Authorities may allow access to education records and PII without consent to researchers performing certain types of studies, in certain cases even when we object to or do not request such research. Federal and State Authorities must obtain certain use-restriction and data security promises from the entities that they authorize to receive your PII, but the Authorities need not maintain direct control over such entities. In addition, in connection with Statewide Longitudinal Data Systems, State Authorities may collect, compile, permanently retain, and share without consent PII from education records, and they may track participation in education and other programs by linking such PII to other personal information about students that they obtain from other Federal or State data sources, including workforce development, unemployment insurance, child welfare, juvenile justice, military service, and migrant student records systems.

Completion Rates

In compliance with federal regulations, the following information shows the rate at which students complete their programs of study.

Full time, first time freshmen entering in fall of 2016 (208 students)

Students graduated by August 2020 (4-year completion rate) - 89 or 43%

Students graduated by August 2021 (5-year completion rate) - 102 or 49%

Students graduated by August 2022 (6-year completion rate) - 102 or 49%

Total number of graduates: 102

The student/faculty ratio is 13:1

Title II of the Higher Education Act

In compliance with reporting regulations of Title II of the Higher Education Act, the Education Department of Bryan College reports the following for the 2021-2022 reporting year:

- Summary Pass Rate on the required Praxis II examinations:
 - Bryan College licensure program completers – 64%
- edTPA Pass Rate within two attempts:
 - Bryan College licensure program completers – 85%
- 14 students completed the licensure programs with an average of 450 hours of supervised practice teaching. The student-faculty ratio for the supervised practice teaching was 7:1.
- Bryan College has been approved by the Tennessee State Board of Education for teacher education and licensure.

Residential Undergraduate Programs

COMMON ACADEMIC DEFINITIONS

Academic department: An organizational structure comprised of one or more academic majors that are similar in discipline.

Academic program: A course of study leading to an academic degree/credential. Academic programs exist at all degree levels and credentials offered by the College, including associates degrees; baccalaureate degrees; graduate degrees, and varied certificates.

Activity course: A course that emphasizes and is dependent upon performance and participation as well as intellectual comprehension. Typical activity courses are exercise and health science activities, music ensembles, drama workshops, publication workshops, etc.

Discipline: A generally recognized area of academic and scholarly inquiry.

Lab course: A course which contains structured, prescribed, natural science laboratory experiences which are essential to the students' understanding and comprehension of the subject being studied. One semester hour of credit involves 45 hours of laboratory work.

Load: The total number of semester hours taken by a college student. The average full-time student will carry a load of 15-16 semester hours each semester. The minimum load for a full-time student is 12 semester hours. The normal maximum load is 18 semester hours.

Major: A focused study in one or more disciplines that includes a minimum of 30 semester hours beyond the 100-level foundational courses with at least 40 percent of the total required semester hours at or above the 300-level. A major is comprised of specific courses and may contain options for specialization.

Minor: A focused study in a single discipline that consists of a minimum of 18 semester hours with at least 30 percent of the total required semester hours at or above the 300-level. The courses leading to a minor do not, of themselves, constitute an academic program, as the minor must be attached to a baccalaureate program in order for an academic credential to be awarded.

Option/Specialization: An approved cluster of courses that permits more specific or concentrated study within a major, generally consisting of 12 or more credit hours. The courses leading to an option/specialization do not, of themselves, constitute an academic program, as they must be housed within a major in order for an academic credential to be awarded. Option is used at the undergraduate level. Specialization is used at the graduate level.

Semester hour: The basic unit of academic credit granted by Bryan College. One semester hour is equal to 15 hours of class work with appropriate out-of-class assignments or 45 hours of laboratory work. A class which meets three hours a week for a semester will ordinarily carry three semester hours credit.

DEPARTMENT OF BIOLOGY

Vogel School of Engineering

Purpose Statement

The Department of Biology introduces students to the history, methodology, and discoveries of life sciences through classroom, laboratory, and field experiences, so that they can explore and understand God's creation more fully, serve others more effectively, and execute responsible dominion over creation.

The department encourages additional coursework or summer research programs at university or national research laboratories or the Au Sable Institute of Environmental Studies. Au Sable Institute inspires and educates people to serve, protect, and restore God's earth. One way it achieves this purpose is through academic programs and professional certifications for student who attend partner colleges, including Bryan College. A variety of 4-credit field courses are offered at Au Sable campuses in northern Michigan, Washington, and Costa Rica. Approved students enroll and pay tuition through Bryan. For current course offerings visit www.ausable.org. For more information, contact the Biology Department. Students enrolling with Au Sable are not eligible to use funding from the Veterans Administration.

Programmatic Goals – Biology

1. Biology majors will understand biological concepts at the level required for professional competence.
2. Biology majors will apply an integrated knowledge of the Bible and natural sciences to evaluate philosophical and/or ethical issues in the life sciences with reference to both biblical standards and scientific data.
3. Biology majors will use scientific methods to investigate problems and critically evaluate data.

DEPARTMENT OF BUSINESS AND ECONOMICS

School of Professional Studies

Purpose Statement

The Department of Business and Economics seeks to prepare students with the professional skills and academic breadth of knowledge necessary for leadership and service. An emphasis is placed on the ability to solve practical and theoretical problems, to think critically and analytically, and to integrate Christian principles with practice.

Programmatic Goals – Business Administration

1. Students will evidence the breadth of knowledge necessary to function in entry-level positions, new ventures or graduate study in the area of business administration.
2. Students will be able to integrate Christian principles and ethics into practice
3. Students will evidence the skills necessary to function effectively in entry-level positions, new ventures, or graduate study in Business Administration.

Pre-Law/Business Studies

The Business Administration major is also an excellent alternative for students anticipating law school. Much of contemporary law is commercial in nature and involves business. It is an excellent foundation for the joint JD/MBA program.

Most law schools do not prescribe a definite pre-legal curriculum for applicants. However, they do prefer a broad liberal arts education in areas not closely related to law. Many strongly recommend knowledge in accounting, economics, and finance. Therefore, the Bachelor's Degree with a major in Business Administration is excellent preparation for the JD or the joint JD/MBA. To round out the program, students are encouraged to supplement their major with elective courses in communication, English, and history.

DEPARTMENT OF CHRISTIAN STUDIES

School of Humanities and Christian Studies

Purpose Statement

The Department of Christian Studies seeks to develop students with a mature love for God and growth in their relationship with Christ and His church by focusing on the following areas:

- training for engagement with and exegesis of Christian scripture
- preparation to study the glories of the Bible in the original languages of Scripture
- cultivation of the capacity for theological and philosophical reflection on both classic and contemporary issues
- development of the ability to articulate the Christian worldview and defend it critically, thoughtfully, and winsomely
- preparation for vocational ministry within local church and parachurch ministries

Programmatic Goals – Biblical & Theological Studies

1. Evaluate competing theological theories as they apply to biblical hermeneutics, theology and Christian thought, as well as diverse hermeneutical principles from throughout the history of biblical, theological and philosophical studies.
2. Argue for the value of biblical and theological studies focused on the whole narrative of scripture and its interpretive power and applicability to the life of the church.
3. Construct their own translations of scriptural passages from the original languages for purposes of comparison, evaluation, and application to current theological and ministerial issues.

DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

Conceptual Framework for Teacher Education

The conceptual framework which guides the activities of Bryan College's Education Department is based on our mission "to train teachers in content and pedagogy in the context of a Christian worldview".

While the first part of this statement, "to train teachers in content and pedagogy" makes Bryan's program typical in comparison to other teacher education programs, it is not what makes us distinctive. The second part of our mission statement says "...in the context of a Christian worldview." This means many things to our institution. Among these are:

Learn – "Educate students..." Licensure candidates are educated in both pedagogy and content within the context of a Biblical Worldview.

Teach – "...to become servants of Christ..." Licensure candidates experience servant leadership through various field and clinical experiences and are expected to demonstrate the same care and concern for students.

Lead – "...to make a difference in today's world." Licensure candidates demonstrate their ability to use their education in service to local education agencies, both public and private, and build healthy, professional relationships with those in the field.

Our vision is to develop reflective Christian educators who will demonstrate their faith in the way they carry out their duties as a teacher even when speech about the specifics of their faith is limited. One concept central to what we teach is the unlimited worth of each of their students as unique creations of God. This is foundational to our view that diversity is to be celebrated at all levels of society and especially in our schools.

Purpose Statement

The Department of Education provides the professional education component for prospective teachers and coordinates with a variety of other departments and programs on and off campus to offer the necessary knowledge and experiences that prepare individuals for the teaching field.

Program Approval

The Department of Education offers teacher education programs approved by the Tennessee State Board of Education. Students successfully completing one of these programs with adequate scores on the Praxis II Examinations, successful completion of edTPA, and upon recommendation of Bryan College will be eligible for a teaching license from the state of Tennessee. Bryan College reserves the right to revise published licensure programs at any time to reflect decisions and directives from the Tennessee Department of Education.

The teacher education program is also approved by the Association of Christian Schools International (ACSI) and graduates who complete the approved licensure program receive a certificate which is recognized by ACSI-member Christian schools.

Acceptance as a Teacher Licensure Candidate

All students seeking teacher licensure in any of Bryan's licensure programs must be accepted by the Education Department into the teacher licensure program. Students wishing to secure teaching credentials based on their work at Bryan should apply for admission to the teacher licensure program as early in their college career as possible. Students who enter Bryan as freshmen should apply by the end of their sophomore year. Transfer students should apply during their first semester at Bryan. Transfer students should not expect to complete a teacher licensure program in less time than the number of semesters they have remaining in their four-year program for the Bachelor's degree. In some cases, a transfer student may need more time than the remaining semesters of the standard four-year degree program.

Students filing applications for admission to the teacher licensure program will only be accepted upon recommendation of the Teacher Education Committee. The Committee will consider the student's scholastic, social, physical, and moral qualities in light of the demands and responsibilities of the teaching profession.

Criteria that must be met for acceptance into the teacher licensure program

- a minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.9
- successful completion of Progression Level 1, which includes receiving a final grade of a C- or above in EDUC 119 Introduction to Teaching
- accumulation of at least 30 hours of field experience

Appeals Process

Prior to Progression Level 2 Sophomore Interview, if candidates have not met the testing requirement, they are required to complete an appeals form and provide documentation of their current GPA (3.0 or better) and the three attempts at the Praxis Core. Based on the evidence provided, the Education Committee will determine if candidates can proceed with the Application for Acceptance to the Education Department process. They will be notified via email of the acceptance or denial of their appeal. If given approval, candidates can move forward with the application process and sophomore interviews. If the appeal is denied, the candidate can re-appeal once the noted requirements have been met.

- successful completion of Progression Level 2, which requires a minimum ACT score of 21 or SAT (critical reading/math) score of 1020 or passing the Praxis I (Core Academic Skills for Educators)
- and successful completion of Sophomore Interview by the submission of the application forms and supplementary information required by the Department of Education with a final score of 6 or better.

Enrollment in upper level Education courses

A student may not take any 300-or 400-level education courses until the student has applied and been accepted into the teacher licensure program.

All licensure candidates must complete the following requirements before beginning their clinical experience

- successful completion of Progression Level 3, which includes
 - receiving a C- or better on lesson plans and microteaching in EDUC 338 Universal Teaching Methods
 - receiving a C- or better on Pacing Guide/Curriculum Map/Lesson Plans in EDUC 340 Curriculum Design
 - receiving a C- or better on RTI Data Analysis and Decision Making in EDUC 323 Tests and Measurements
- successful completion of a minimum of 90 hours of field experience (Note regarding field experience: We advise that if it does not pose too great a hardship to the family, education students bring a car to campus in order to successfully manage field experience assignments. If a student does not have a car, we try to accommodate them when possible.)

All licensure candidates must complete the following requirements before graduation

- successful completion of Progression Level 4, which includes
 - receiving a 3 or better on final evaluations from both mentor teacher and college supervisor after completion of clinical experience

- receiving a C- or better on Philosophy of Education paper in EDUC 420 Philosophy of Education

Types of Licensure Programs Offered by Bryan College

1. A major in liberal arts leading to a Bachelor of Science degree and teacher licensure in grades K-5. Students seeking licensure must complete Bible course requirements, core curriculum requirements, professional education requirements, and major requirements outlined below under “Requirements for Elementary Licensure” and elsewhere in this Catalog.

2. A major in physical education leading to a Bachelor of Science degree and teacher licensure in grades K-12. Students majoring in physical education seeking K-12 teacher licensure must complete Bible course requirements, core curriculum requirements, professional education requirements, and major requirements outlined below and elsewhere in this Catalog.

3. A major in a focused study in one or more disciplines leading to a Bachelor of Science degree and teacher licensure at the secondary level. Students majoring in Biology, English, History, or Mathematics seeking secondary teacher licensure must complete Bible course requirements, core curriculum requirements, professional education requirements, and major requirements outlined below under “Requirements for Secondary Licensure” and elsewhere in this Catalog.

Applicants and students who desire further information on teacher licensure should consult with a faculty member in the Department of Education. Applicants may also contact the Office of Admissions for information.

Licensure in Other States

Because the College is approved by Tennessee’s Department of Education, many states recognize the completion of Bryan licensure programs as meeting their own licensure requirements. A student who wishes to teach in a state other than Tennessee should plan the program in accordance with the requirements of that state, in addition to meeting the requirements of the state of Tennessee. The student should normally secure Tennessee licensure even though licensure may also be sought in another state. Each state’s Department of Education will be glad to furnish information concerning the requirements for licensure.

Programmatic Goals – Education Licensure

1. Licensure candidates will implement effective, subject specific instructional methods, demonstrating an understanding of development and needs of students of various ages.
2. Licensure candidates will demonstrate knowledge of historical and philosophical foundations of education and navigate contemporary issues in the light of both foundations and a biblical worldview.
3. Licensure candidates will show evidence of becoming reflective practitioners who effectively assess and influence student outcomes.
4. Licensure candidates will foster healthy relationships with colleagues, parents, and the larger community to support students learning and well-being.

Requirements for a Major in Liberal Arts: Elementary Licensure

Major: Liberal Arts

Degree: B.S.

Option: Elementary Licensure*

Minimum Semester Hours Required: 120

Thirty hours are required for a major in Liberal Arts: Elementary Education:

BIO 111 Introduction to Biology	3 hours	EDUC 420 Philosophy of Education	2 hours
BIO 111L Introduction to Biology Lab	1 hour	EDUC 430 Children's Literature	3 hours
EDUC 223 Methods for Early Childhood Education	2 hours	EHS 222 School & Community Health	2 hours
EDUC 323 Tests & Measurements	2 hours	HIS 112 History of Western Civilization II	3 hours
EDUC 331 Methods of Teaching Reading	3 hours	HIS 221-222 History of the United States I & II	6 hours
		PHIL 316 Logic and Critical Thinking	3 hours

* Elementary Licensure students must select MATH 116 Contemporary Math, PSY 330 Lifespan Development, HIS 111 Western Civilization I, ENG 211 Introduction to Literature and PHYS 213 Geo-Physical Science Survey as part of the core curriculum.

 Students must also complete a total of 46 hours of professional education coursework as described below in this section of the Catalog.

Professional Education for Elementary Licensure Candidates

Students seeking elementary licensure are required to take the following professional courses in addition to the ninety clock hours of practicum experience which are also required:

EDUC 119 Introduction to Teaching	3 hours	EDUC 343 Methods of Teaching Language Arts	3 hours
EDUC 224 Human Learning	3 hours	EDUC 345 Methods of Teaching Social Studies	2 hours
EDUC 226 Classroom Management	2 hours	EDUC 440 Education Capstone	2 hours
EDUC 311 Instructional Technology	3 hours	EDUC 441 Observation and Student Teaching in Elementary Education	12 hours
EDUC 324 Exceptional Children	2 hours	EHS 221 Safety Education & First Aid	2 hours
EDUC 338 Universal Teaching Methods	3 hours	EHS 328 Teaching Elementary Physical Education	3 hours
EDUC 340 Curriculum Design	2 hours
EDUC 341 Methods of Teaching Mathematics	2 hours

Requirements for K-12 Licensure

Students who plan to teach physical education are licensed for grades K-12 in Tennessee. The respective program is described elsewhere in this Catalog. Candidates must also complete the required hours of professional education coursework as described below in this section of the Catalog. Candidates complete the core curriculum requirements outlined on the Core Curriculum Chart in this Catalog. Candidates are responsible for the Graduation Requirements outlined in the section on Academic Information in this Catalog.

Professional Education for K-12 Licensure Candidates

Students seeking K-12 licensure are required to take the following professional courses. Ninety hours of practicum experience are also required. In addition, the individual majors require some methods courses as described under the major.

EDUC 119 Introduction to Teaching	3 hours	EDUC 324 Exceptional Children	2 hours
EDUC 224 Human Learning	3 hours	EDUC 338 Universal Teaching Methods	3 hours
EDUC 226 Classroom Management	2 hours	EDUC 340 Curriculum Design	2 hours
EDUC 311 Instructional Technology	3 hours	EDUC 420 Philosophy of Education	2 hours

EDUC 440 Education Capstone	2 hours	EHS 221 Safety Education & First Aid	2 hours
EDUC 443 Observation and Student Teaching in K-12 Education	12 hours	EHS 222 School & Community Health	2 hours

Requirements for Secondary Licensure

Students who plan to teach at the secondary level complete the major in their chosen subject area as described elsewhere in this Catalog. Candidates must also complete the professional education coursework as described below in this section of the Catalog. Candidates complete the core curriculum requirements outlined on the Core Curriculum Chart in this Catalog. Candidates are responsible for the Graduation Requirements outlined in the section on Academic Information in this Catalog.

Professional Education for Secondary Licensure Candidates

Students seeking secondary licensure are required to take the following professional courses in addition to the ninety hours of practicum experience which are also required.

EDUC 119 Introduction to Teaching	3 hours	Arts (English only)
EDUC 224 Human Learning	3 hours	EDUC 345 Methods of Teaching Social Studies (History only)	2 hours
EDUC 226 Classroom Management	2 hours	EDUC 420 Philosophy of Education	2 hours
EDUC 311 Instructional Technology	3 hours	EDUC 440 Education Capstone	2 hours
EDUC 323 Tests & Measurements	2 hours	EDUC 442 Observation and Student Teaching in Secondary Education	12 hours
EDUC 324 Exceptional Children	2 hours	EHS 221 Safety Education & First Aid	2 hours
EDUC 331 Methods of Teaching Reading (English only)	3 hours	EHS 222 School & Community Health	2 hours
EDUC 338 Universal Teaching Methods	3 hours
EDUC 340 Curriculum Design	2 hours
EDUC 343 Methods of Teaching Language	3 hours

All teacher licensure programs are subject to change as needed to comply with regulations from the State of Tennessee.

DEPARTMENT OF ENGINEERING

Purpose Statement

The purpose of the Department of Engineering at Bryan College is to equip engineering graduates to go out into the world as Ambassadors of Christ, Biblically rooted, with academic excellence and servant hearts to fulfill God's Creation Mandate.

Program Educational Objectives – Engineering

Within a few years, our graduates will:

1. Serve others by leveraging engineering skills to solve complex real-world problems while embracing new and emerging technologies.
2. Be a contributing team member with a focus on serving through innovative and skillful engineering practices.
3. Display professional ethics and behavior that extend the dominion of mankind on the earth and alleviate the effects of the fall while sharing the good news of God's full dominion and complete remedy to all people.
4. Exhibit a Biblical pursuit of excellence and wisdom in integrating education, faith, and professional skills in a holistic way to guide technical decisions.

Student Outcomes – Engineering

By the time our students graduate from Bryan College with their Bachelor of Science in Engineering they will display:

1. an ability to identify, formulate, and solve complex engineering problems by applying principles of engineering, science, and mathematics.
2. an ability to apply engineering design to produce solutions that meet specified needs with consideration of public health, safety, and welfare, as well as global, cultural, social, environmental, and economic factors.
3. an ability to communicate effectively with a range of audiences.
4. an ability to recognize ethical and professional responsibilities in engineering situations and make informed judgments, which must consider the impact of engineering solutions in global, economic, environmental, and societal contexts.
5. an ability to function effectively on a team whose members together provide leadership, create a collaborative and inclusive environment, establish goals, plan tasks, and meet objectives.
6. an ability to develop and conduct appropriate experimentation, analyze and interpret data, and use engineering judgment to draw conclusions.
7. an ability to acquire and apply new knowledge as needed, using appropriate learning strategies.

DEPARTMENT OF ENGLISH

School of Humanities and Christian Studies

Purpose Statement

The English programs prepare students for a variety of professional career opportunities and graduate education by deepening their understanding of literature within a variety of cultures, giving them a broader awareness of how biblical truth is represented and exemplified in many academic disciplines within the liberal arts, and developing a dedication to Christian living that is spiritually dynamic and intellectually rigorous, growing out of an abiding love for words and for the exploration of the world and its Creator that words make possible. The programs also teach students to express their ideas through clear, persuasive communication to be “able to make a defense for the hope that is within” them.

Programmatic Goals - English

1. Students will develop an adequate preparation for graduate school or vocation.
2. Students will evidence a personal, integrative perspective regarding faith and their discipline; and an ability to apply that perspective to the community in which they live.
3. Students will develop an adequate knowledge of content and knowledge of how their discipline(s) influence present day culture.

Requirements for a Major in English

Major: English

Degree: B.A.

Option: Creative Writing

Minimum Semester Hours Required: 120

Forty-two hours are required for an option in Creative Writing*:

Programmatic Goals – Liberal Arts

1. Students will connect ideas across multiple disciplines in the liberal arts.
2. Students will evidence a personal, integrative perspective regarding faith and their discipline.

Requirements for a Major in Liberal Arts

Major: Liberal Arts

Degree: A.A.

Minimum Semester Hours Required: 60

Twenty-eight hours are required in Liberal Arts in the Associate of Arts degree program:

LA 222 Exploring the Liberal Arts	1 hour	Social & Behavioral Sciences electives	6 hours
Arts & Humanities electives (COMM, ENG, FLM, HIS, LA, MUS, PHIL, SPAN, THT)	6 hours	(ACCT, BUS, CJUS, ECFN, EDUC, EHS, MGT, MKT, PSGS, PSY)
Natural & Math Sciences electives (BIO, CHEM, CSCI, MATH, PHYS)	6 hours	Major electives	6 hours

DEPARTMENT OF EXERCISE AND HEALTH SCIENCE

Purpose Statement

The Department of Exercise and Health Science provides the content knowledge and skills for prospective health, physical education, fitness, and sport professionals; works with other departments to help students prepare for careers in the above-noted professions; and, supports the institutional demands for personal health and development.

Programmatic Goals – Exercise & Health Science

1. Students will demonstrate academic excellence by thinking critically, working independently and cooperatively, communicating clearly, and expressing themselves creatively.
2. Students will analyze ethical and social issues within the discipline from a Biblical worldview and the ability to apply that Biblical worldview in the community in which they live.
3. Students will apply knowledge of safety procedures, first aid, health promotion, and teaching of movement skills.

Major: Exercise and Health Science

Degree: B.S.

Minimum Semester Hours Required: 120

Fifty-nine hours are required for a major in Exercise and Health Science*:

BIO 210 Introduction to Anatomy & Physiology OR BIO 221 Human Anatomy & Physiology I	4 hours	EHS 334 Adapted Physical Education	3 hours
EHS 149 Foundations of Physical Education & Sport	3 hours	EHS 341 Physiology of Exercise	3 hours
EHS 200 Care & Prevention of Athletic Injuries	3 hours	EHS 342 Structural Kinesiology	3 hours

Programmatic Goals – Exercise & Health Science: Physical Education Licensure

1. Licensure candidates will demonstrate thorough knowledge of Exercise & Health content necessary to teach.
2. Licensure candidates will implement effective, subject specific instructional methods, demonstrating an understanding of development and needs of students of various ages.
3. Licensure candidates will demonstrate knowledge of historical and philosophical foundations of education and navigate contemporary issues in the light of both foundations and a biblical worldview.
4. Licensure candidates will show evidence of becoming reflective practitioners who effectively assess and influence student outcomes.
5. Licensure candidates will foster healthy relationships with colleagues, parents, and the larger community to support students learning and well-being.

DEPARTMENT OF MATHEMATICAL AND PHYSICAL SCIENCES

Purpose Statement

The Department of Mathematical and Physical Sciences offers courses which cultivate mental habits of accuracy and logical reasoning, develop the ability to communicate ideas in the language of mathematics, foster a knowledge of the place of mathematics and computer science in the history of the world, and equip students to use modern computer technology. In addition, the Physical Sciences Program will introduce students to the methods and discoveries of the physical sciences.

Programmatic Goals – Chemistry

1. Chemistry majors will solve problems using standard scientific methods, and will satisfactorily communicate their findings, both orally and in writing.
2. Chemistry majors will develop an integrated knowledge of both the Bible and the natural sciences. They will evaluate philosophical and ethical issues with reference both to Biblical standards and to scientific data.
3. Chemistry majors will exhibit the foundational knowledge and laboratory/research skills necessary for careers or further study in fields related to chemistry.

DEPARTMENT OF NURSING

Clara Ward School of Nursing

The Clara Ward School of Nursing offers the Bachelor of Science in Nursing degree (BSN). AACN's The Essentials: Core Competencies for Professional Nursing Education (2021), the Tennessee Board of Nursing Position Statements (May, 2022), the Next Generation NCLX-RN Test Plan (April, 2023), and the Rules of the Tennessee Board of Nursing (February, 2023) are used to guide program curriculum and practices.

Nursing courses build on a foundation in the liberal arts to prepare the nurse graduate for generalist practice in a variety of healthcare settings. Supervised clinical components are included throughout the nursing curriculum to allow students an opportunity to engage in evidence-based patient care.

The Clara Ward School of Nursing Purpose

The Clara Ward School of Nursing exists to mentor, inspire, and educate born healers into their calling.

The BSN Program Mission

The BSN Program prepares students to become professional nurses who utilize skill, ingenuity and grace in order to meet the world's changing needs, and thus represent the Lord Jesus.

BSN Program Values

Bryan College pursues its mission based upon specific core values. The BSN Program embraces and models the following characteristics:

- Integrity in thought, deed, and action;
- Excellence, creativity and innovation in approaches to teaching, scholarship and service;
- Leadership to promote strategic change in an evolving health care system;
- Diversity of thought, cultures, religions and the uniqueness of the individual;
- Discovery through critical thinking, lifelong learning and a commitment to the application of evidence-based practice;
- Collaboration with all members of the healthcare team in providing quality and safe nursing care;
- Stewardship of all resources with a commitment to fiscal responsibility.

BSN Program Goals and Objectives

Upon successful completion of the BSN program, graduates will be able to:

1. Integrate, translate and apply disciplinary nursing knowledge and knowledge from other disciplines, including a foundation in liberal arts and natural and social sciences. (Knowledge for Nursing Practice)
2. Provide individualized, just, respectful, compassionate, evidence-based and developmentally appropriate care to individuals and their families. (Person-Centered Care)
3. Provide collaborative, compassionate, evidence-based care to populations, from public health prevention to disease management. (Population Health)

4. Synthesize, translate, apply and ethically disseminate nursing knowledge to improve health and transform healthcare. (Scholarship for Nursing Practice)
5. Employ established and emerging principles of safety and improvement science in the compassionate care of patients. (Quality and Safety)
6. Collaborate across professions to optimize patient care, enhance the healthcare experience, and strengthen patient outcomes. (Interprofessional Partnerships)
7. Provide effective and proactive leadership and coordination of resources to provide safe, quality, equitable care to diverse populations. (Systems-Based Practice)
8. Utilize informatics processes and technologies to manage and improve the delivery of safe, high-quality, and efficient healthcare services in accordance with best practice and professional/regulatory standards. (Information & Healthcare Technologies)
9. Cultivate a sustainable professional nursing identity that reflects the characteristics and values of Christ and of the nursing profession. (Professionalism)
10. Participate in activities that foster professional, personal and spiritual health and well-being, servant leadership and acquisition of nursing expertise. (Personal, Professional and Leadership Development)

Accreditation and Memberships:

The baccalaureate degree program in nursing at Bryan College is pursuing initial accreditation by the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education, 655 K Street NW, Washington, DC 20001 (202) 887-6791. Applying for accreditation does not guarantee that accreditation will be granted.

The Tennessee Board of Nursing granted initial approval for the Baccalaureate Degree Registered Nurse Program in November, 2021.

The School of Nursing is a member of the American Association of Colleges of Nursing (AACN), the Tennessee Deans & Directors of Nursing, and the Tennessee Simulation Alliance. A complete listing of memberships is located in the BSN Student Handbook.

Admission to the Nursing Major

Students wishing to be admitted to the nursing major must first be admitted to Bryan College as a degree-seeking student. Admission to Bryan College does not guarantee acceptance into the Clara Ward School of Nursing.

Application forms for admission to the nursing major may be obtained from the Clara Ward School of Nursing. Students desiring to enroll in nursing courses for a fall semester must submit a completed application by April 1 of that same year. The School of Nursing faculty approve admission to the nursing major. The review of the pre-licensure applicant is based on the following criteria:

- I. A minimum cumulative college GPA of 3.0 is required.
- II. A minimum grade of “C” is required in any course required for the nursing program – this includes core curriculum as well as major-specific coursework.
- III. Test of Essential Academic Skills (TEAS)
 - Preference is given to students with a minimum score of 75. Applicants may repeat the test twice within a 6-month period.

- IV. A certified criminal background check. The Clara Ward School of Nursing uses a specific company to complete the criminal background checks. You will be given information on how to purchase this at the time of application.
- V. A written essay. Instructions are included in the application.

Upon acceptance into the nursing major, the following admission requirements must be completed by August 1:

1. Completion of health appraisal form
2. CPR certification
3. PPD skin test or x-ray
4. Flu vaccination
5. MMR vaccine or immunity
6. Varicella vaccine or demonstration of immunity
7. Hepatitis B vaccination series or waiver
8. 12-panel drug screen urine
9. Proof of current health insurance
10. Other elements required by Bryan College and/or the clinical sites

Progression in the Nursing Major

Progression is monitored by the BSN Dean/Chair and the CWSON faculty. Students must meet the following requirements to maintain continuous progression/enrollment in the nursing major:

1. Maintain a cumulative GPA of 3.0 in their current degree program. This means that transfer credit hours and/or courses from previous Bryan degree(s) will not be included when computing the GPA as a progressing nursing major.
2. Criminal background check remains satisfactory.
3. Satisfactorily meet both didactic and clinical elements of each clinical course. If a student fails a nursing clinical course during the semester, he/she will be removed from that course. The student will be allowed to remain enrolled in non-clinical nursing courses for the remainder of the semester.
4. Satisfactory skills lab, simulation and clinical performance.
5. Continued health clearance.
6. Current CPR certification (American Heart Association).

Failure to meet any of these requirements may result in dismissal from the nursing major. If a student earns a grade below a 'C' (2.0) for any course required for the nursing major, she/he will be dismissed from the nursing major. Students who have been dismissed may reapply after one semester away – either the fall or spring semester. (Summer sessions do not count toward the one semester away.) Readmission is not guaranteed; however, all applications will be reviewed by the nursing faculty.

When a student is dismissed from the nursing major she/he is required to meet with their faculty adviser before leaving in order to advise the student how to best prepare for applying for readmission.

Note: Any interruption in progression through the major (i.e. withdrawal, leave of absence, dismissal, etc.), may impact a student's eligibility for financial aid. Each student is responsible for contacting the Office of Financial Aid regarding their eligibility.

Technology Requirements

In addition to the Bryan technology requirements, BSN students are required to use a smartphone for class, lab and clinical. The applications used in the BSN program require either an iPhone or an Android smartphone.

Clinical Requirements

Criminal Background Checks

BSN students are required to complete clinical rotations and provide patient care as part of their degree requirements. Therefore, each BSN student is required to undergo a criminal background check and drug screen upon acceptance to the program, and annually thereafter. Initial program acceptance and continued progression in the program depend on the results of these tests.

Any change in a student's criminal background status after program acceptance may result in dismissal from the program. BSN program requirements will not be modified for students who have an unsatisfactory criminal background status. The CWSON only guarantees clinical placement for students who have maintained their original criminal background status upon which program acceptance was determined.

In addition, any clinical partner may request additional criminal background checks and drug screenings at any time during the student's matriculation through the program. Students should be prepared to abide by these set clinical protocols and incur any associated fees that may arise in the safety screening process unique to each clinical facility.

If the BSN Dean/Chair or the clinical agency find the results of any drug screen or criminal background check to be unacceptable, the student may not be able to complete the required clinical experiences. This may impede or prevent the student's progression and/or completion of the BSN degree.

Each state publishes their policies regarding criminal convictions and their impact on obtaining initial RN licensure. Information related to the Tennessee Board of Nursing's policies can be found in the BSN Student Handbook in the section titled Impact of Criminal Convictions on Board of Nursing Licensure in Tennessee. Students planning to obtain initial RN licensure in a state other than Tennessee are responsible for knowing that state's board of nursing policies regarding criminal convictions and initial licensure.

STATEMENT OF ESSENTIAL ATTRIBUTES

Students of nursing have a responsibility to society in learning the academic theory and clinical skills needed to provide nursing care. The clinical setting presents unique challenges and responsibilities while caring for human beings in a variety of health care environments. The Statement of Essential Attributes is based on an understanding that practicing nursing as a student involves an agreement to uphold the trust which society has placed in us (ANA Code of Ethics for Nursing Students, 2001). In addition to academic qualifications, the Bryan College Clara Ward School of Nursing considers the ability to consistently demonstrate these personal and professional attributes essential for entrance to, continuation in and graduation from its nursing degree program. Students are expected to sign a statement at the beginning of each academic year to indicate their commitment to consistently demonstrate these attributes. The Statement of Essential Attributes and all other program related information are located in the BSN Student Handbook.

Clara Ward School of Nursing Graduation Requirements

In addition to the graduation requirements listed elsewhere in the catalog, BSN students must have a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher and a minimum grade of 'C' (2.0) in all courses required for the degree.

Licensure to Practice as a Professional Nurse

The Bryan College BSN Program is designed to prepare students to practice as professional licensed registered nurses in a variety of practice settings. Graduates of Bryan College's Clara Ward School of Nursing who successfully complete all requirements leading to the BSN degree may sit for the NCLEX-RN in the state of Tennessee.

The State of Tennessee professional nursing license (RN/Registered Nurse) is granted through the Board of Nursing at the following location:

Tennessee Department of Health, Tennessee Board of Nursing 665 Mainstream Drive
Nashville, TN 37243
(615) 423-1566
Website: tn.gov/health

Students who wish to sit for the NCLEX-RN outside of the State of Tennessee will need to apply to the Board of Nursing of that state. Graduates of the BSN program at Bryan College are eligible to take the NCLEX-RN in the following states:

Alabama	Mississippi*	Tennessee
Arkansas	Missouri	Virginia*
Georgia	North Carolina
Kentucky	South Carolina

*Please notify the BSN Dean/Chair as soon as possible if you wish to take the NCLEX-RN in this state, as there are specific requirements we need to ensure are present.

A student wishing to take the NCLEX-RN in a state not listed above must notify the BSN Dean/Chair. A determination will be made if the Bryan College BSN program meets the licensing criteria of that state.

DEPARTMENT OF POLITICS, GOVERNMENT, AND HISTORY

School of Humanities and Christian Studies

Purpose Statements

The Politics & Government discipline has, as its foundational premise, the education and personal development of students, by providing insight into political and governmental stewardship, based upon an integrated understanding of the Bible. The linkage of a Christian worldview to one's ability to appreciate how political and governmental studies contribute to 21st Century America and the wider world in which we live and serve, is the primary focus of this discipline. Also of critical importance is an understanding of the foundational principles, institutions, and laws which have helped create and sustain the American Constitutional republic.

The History program provides students with a background in the proper techniques for evaluating historical works, engaging in professional methods of historical research, and developing advanced writing and oral presentation skills. Just as all knowledge has religious thought at its foundation, all knowledge is a compilation of historical thought.

Programmatic Goals - History

1. Students will demonstrate their recall of historical area-knowledge and content.
2. Students will evaluate views on what it means to be a Christian historian; they will ultimately formulate and articulate how they view Christian historiography.
3. Students will organize material, weigh evidence, and construct arguments in oral and written form.

DEPARTMENT OF PSYCHOLOGY

Purpose Statement

The Department of Psychology attempts to develop graduates who have strong personal identity and interpersonal skills to become professionally competent in their knowledge of the discipline of psychology; this includes a personalized, integrative understanding of how their faith interacts with psychology.

Programmatic Goals – Psychology

1. Students will understand the basic tenets of psychology including the multifaceted goals of the discipline, the major perspectives and theories within the field, and evidence-based research practices.
2. Students will demonstrate a personal, integrative perspective regarding faith and psychology; and comprehend the importance of application of their Biblical Worldview.
3. Students will develop an adequate knowledge of psychology as a discipline, critical thinking skills, and knowledge of how psychology impacts the present day culture.

Acceptance into the Psychology Major

The psychology major is open to all undergraduate students in good academic standing (2.0 cumulative GPA or higher). An essay, two pages in length, on the topic of “Why I Want to Major in Psychology,” is also required. Students are encouraged to apply to the major no later than the end of their sophomore year to aid in proper advising for degree completion.

Additionally, majors desiring to complete the 3+2 program with Richmond Graduate University must apply by the third Monday of February during the freshmen year; have a personal interview; earn a 3.0 cum gpa; have completed at least one major course; and have submitted a 500-word autobiographical essay with rationale for wanting to be a counselor. For more information, please contact the department.

3 + 2 Program with Richmond Graduate University*

The 3+2 program offers students the opportunity to complete a Bachelor of Science with a major in Psychology from Bryan College and a Master of Arts in Professional Counseling from Richmond Graduate University in as little as five years. Participants in the program will complete three academic years at Bryan College, fulfilling all major requirements and the core curriculum. During the three years at Bryan College, five courses within the major are completed as enriched courses and the student must earn no lower than a B (3.0) in each course. These five courses will then be accepted to Richmond Graduate University. After completing an additional 24 hours of graduate courses at the Richmond Graduate University campus, the student will be awarded a Bachelor of Science from Bryan College.

Psychology Department Integrative Position Paper - Fall 2003

The Psychology Department attempts to train students in the content knowledge of the discipline, while providing a distinctively Christian worldview in the study of psychology. This is done on a practical level by choosing a secular text to teach the content knowledge, plus an integrative text that explores the integrative issues in that area of the discipline. Thinking Christianly about psychology involves how we view God (God-view), how we treat and respect His Word (Bible-view), and the unique lens we use to view the world around us (world-view). A proper perspective and faith understanding of God and His Word is necessary in developing a Christian worldview. Psychology without God is like watching a 3-D movie without glasses; it is fuzzy at best.

The Psychology Department's Theme Verse is: "The Sovereign Lord has given me an instructed tongue, to know the word that sustains the weary. He wakens me morning by morning, wakens my ear to listen like one being taught". (Isaiah 50:4)

This theme verse highlights the department's assumption that God's Word provides the framework for our personal pain. Integration sees the Bible as a sifting grid. Psychology is then poured through that sifting grid. Whatever falls through agrees with biblical principles and is thus good for use in counseling. Whatever does not fall through the grid, does not agree with biblical principles, and therefore should not be used in counseling, or applied to one's life.

Jesus stated in Matthew 22:37-39, "Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the first and greatest commandment. And the second is like it: love your neighbor as yourself." This command encapsulates the entire discipline of psychology at Bryan College. The Bryan College Department of Psychology's mission is to aid students in their journey of loving and developing eternally meaningful relationships with God, others, and self.

This journey takes a lifetime to complete. Philippians 1:6, "Being confident of this, that he who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus." The healthy personality flows out of the work of the Holy Spirit: love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control. The Holy Spirit is an active agent in personal growth" (Walker, 2003). Human beings must rely on God's provision and the "body" for enabling them to become what we could never become through our own effort. "He is the head of the body, the church" (Galatians 1:18), and He wants to work in and through us. The Psychology department is about equipping its students to help God's people on the journey. Larry Crabb puts it this way, "It's about learning a language that has the power to pull back the curtains on our soul, to move through the mess, and to help each other discover that what we really want is God" (Soul Talk, p. 9).

God's children are fallen image bearers who struggle with how to reflect that image more accurately. We are fallen creatures in a fallen world that desperately want to avoid the pain of this world's fallenness. Pain in life is inevitable; misery is optional. Misery is our fleshly attempt to make this life work without complete dependency on God. Our lust for control, waywardness and sinful self-reliance block the Spirit's desire to appropriate God's grace in each of life's circumstances.

A theology of suffering is how to spiritually respond to the fallenness of this world without increasing our pain and without dishonoring our Lord. Counselors have the unique privilege of teaching this theology of suffering to clients that come to them with shattered lives and dreams. Counseling is the surgical application of God's Truth to a particular person's need at a particular time in their lives. That discernment requires God dependency and a knowledge of the human heart. Psychology can help prepare the heart to receive the Word of truth but it does not add to or otherwise augment God's Truth.

We encourage our majors to minor in Bible to better develop this necessary dual competency in God's Word and the discipline of psychology. Finally, psychology and counseling are envisioned by this department to be servants of the church to inspire and instruct towards greater Christlikeness for God's ultimate glory. To quote John Piper, "God is most glorified in us when we are most satisfied in Him."

DEPARTMENT OF WORSHIP & PERFORMING ARTS

School of Humanities and Christian Studies

Purpose Statement

The Department of Worship & Performing Arts provides professional preparation for students seeking careers in music and/or theatre as well as related vocations and offers instruction for students seeking life-long learning experiences in the arts.

Music Evaluation and Placement

1. Candidates for admission to the music program must meet the general requirements for admission to the College and must appear for an audition during registration for placement in private lessons and keyboard proficiency.
2. Candidates must demonstrate sufficient background in at least one performing medium which will be considered their area of concentration.

Programmatic Goals - Music

1. Students will demonstrate and support their progress by compiling a record of passed benchmarks related to performance, skills, research, and writing.
2. Students will develop, demonstrate, and support their Christian Worldview in music.
3. Students will demonstrate their skills in their applied area (voice, piano, instrument) in order to be successful musicians and teachers.

KEYBOARD SKILLS REQUIREMENTS

All music majors must demonstrate proficiency in keyboard skills. Piano Performance and Pedagogy students prepare skills for Sophomore Platform. All other non-piano music majors will meet their piano skills requirements by passing the keyboard proficiency exam required for their programs. All incoming music majors must audition for piano skills evaluation. It is possible to test out of one or more semesters of Class Piano.

MUSIC LESSONS

Private lessons in piano, voice, and organ are available to all students who wish them. Students who have not taken music lessons previously at Bryan College should audition for the music faculty during registration. Music majors must take music lessons according to their program requirements. Any student studying privately who is qualified to participate in recitals or other programs during the year is expected to do so.

Music Lesson/Recital/Platform Requirements

All music majors take a minimum of four semester hours of private study in one area of concentration. Most options require an additional 4-10 semester hours of private study in the same area.

Music Examinations: Music majors will perform before the music faculty at the end of each semester.

Sophomore Platform Evaluation: During the sophomore year, a performance test will be scheduled for each music major. Both musical and academic progress will be reviewed, which will lead to an assessment of the advisability of the student continuing as a music major.

Junior Recital Requirements: Students choosing the performance option will give a half-hour recital in their junior year.

Senior Recital Requirements: Students in the performance option will present a one-hour recital in their senior year. Those completing the Music Ministry/Church Music, and Piano Pedagogy options will present a half-hour recital in their senior year. The recital may be given either semester of the senior year. A recital for those completing any of the other options is optional.

Recital Attendance Policy: All music majors are required to attend all on-campus programs presented by the Department of Worship & Performing Arts.

SPECIAL PROGRAMS

COOPERATIVE STUDY PROGRAMS

Cooperative Study Programs are available to degree-seeking students who have attended Bryan College for at least one full time semester. Students must be recommended by Bryan faculty and meet admission requirements for the program in which they are interested.

Although Bryan College is no longer a member of the CCCU, the college, by mutual agreement with the CCCU, may continue to offer its students opportunities to attend the CCCU GlobalEd programs. Bryan College students may not be given priority when filling slots in a particular program, and therefore may not be guaranteed acceptance into that program in a given semester.

Oxford Summer Programme (OSP)

Mr. Stanley P. Rosenberg, Director

The Oxford Summer Programme (OSP) is a program of the Council for Christian Colleges and Universities and Wycliffe Hall, Oxford. Wycliffe Hall was established in Oxford in 1877 with a vision for training godly Christian leaders for the church and is today considered one of the premier theological institutions in the world. The program is designed to enable students to gain a more comprehensive understanding of the relationship between Christianity and Culture and to do specialized work under Oxford academics. The program is appropriate for rising college sophomores, juniors, and seniors. Participants in this program will not receive Bryan College institutional financial aid funds or funding from the Veterans Administration.

Contemporary Music Center (CMC)

Mr. Warren Pettit, Director

The Contemporary Music Center provides you with the opportunity to live and work in the refining context of community while seeking to understand how God will have them integrate music, faith and business. The CMC offers three tracks: Artist, Business and Technical Tracks. The Artist Track is tailored to students considering careers as vocalists, musicians, songwriters, recording artists, performers and producers. The Business Track is designed for arts management, marketing, communications and related majors interested in possible careers as artist managers, agents, music publishers, tour managers, concert promoters and entertainment industry entrepreneurs. The Technical Track prepares you for a career in live sound, concert lighting and studio recording. Within each of the tracks you will receive instruction, experience and a uniquely Christ-centered perspective on creativity and the marketplace, while working together to create and market a recording of original music. Each track includes coursework, labs, directed study and a practicum. Students earn 16 hours of credit. Participants in this program will not receive Bryan College institutional financial aid funds or funding from the Veterans Administration.

Oxford Study Abroad Programme (OSAP)

Bryan has a contractual agreement with Oxford Study Abroad Programme (OSAP) that allows students to apply for a semester of study at Oxford. Courses taken directly through the OSAP program will apply toward the students' degree at Bryan. Federal and state financial aid is available for OSAP, but participants in the program will not receive Bryan institutional financial aid funds or funding from the Veterans Administration.

BRYAN CENTERS

CREATION RESEARCH CENTER (CRC)

Neal A Doran, M.A., M.S., Ph.D., Director

William Jennings Bryan's final historic encounter centered on Creation. The College's existence is partly attributable to Bryan's efforts to defend Christianity in the realm of creation. The goal of the Creation Research Center is to provide a Biblical perspective of creation during a time of increasing encroachment of positivist and naturalistic philosophies within Western Christian thought. As a result, the goal of the Center is to provide the Bryan community and supporters the benefits of an interdisciplinary creation model through original research in the areas of natural science, theology, philosophy and history. The Center seeks to promote primary research, train future researchers, and provide the college with a Biblical creation perspective. Students are provided an opportunity to research and work with scientists involved in creation research in addition to participating in field trips, conferences, and interacting with scholars in a range of disciplines.

BRYAN CENTER FOR UNDERGRADUATE RESEARCH (BCUR)

K. Daniel Gleason, Ph.D., Director

The Bryan Center for Undergraduate Research (BCUR) promotes the academic research endeavors of the college's undergraduate students and supports the college's motto and mission. There is a thoughtful, productive, and necessary tension between the tassel and the cross. The mission is to provide opportunities for students to engage in a number of research projects both on and off campus. The BCUR annual undergraduate research conference is the primary means through which we encourage and promote student research. One of the many advantages of attending Bryan is the opportunity to participate in research. Undergraduates acquire first-hand research experience in their academic disciplines while developing important skills such as critical thinking, information gathering and processing, and effective communication. The BCUR encourages holistic education of the entire person: heart, soul, and mind, so he or she can truly and competently make a difference in today's world.

PERFORMING ARTS ACADEMY OF BRYAN COLLEGE

The Performing Arts Academy of Bryan College Community Music School is an outreach of the Worship and Performing Arts Department and exists to provide music learning opportunities for Dayton and surrounding communities. The faculty include members of the college music faculty, students with pedagogical training, and other qualified teachers from the area. Private lessons are offered on a variety of instruments, as well as several options for group instruction. The academy also provides recitals, workshops, master classes, and other events to its students. In addition to enhancing the college-community relations and increasing arts awareness in the community, this program provides a laboratory situation for collegiate music students involved in observation or practice teaching.

THE HONORS INSTITUTE

The Bryan College Honors Institute provides academically qualified students with alternative methods of instruction and extra-curricular education and cultural opportunities for the purpose of challenging students intellectually, spiritually, and morally in order to foster the formation of a sublime life while a student at Bryan and the years beyond. The Honors Institute provides the opportunity to enhance and customize the students' educational experience.

At least 18 semester hours of Honors courses are required. All incoming students take a first-semester entry Honors course as well as a senior internship/project course taken in conjunction with an upper level major course. Students have the opportunity for Honors only classes, extending classes for honors credit, advanced research classes, extra-curricular field learning trips and experiences, and a major discipline thesis or project. Honors classes are generally small and allow for more interaction with the professor. Honors classes also tend to focus more on reading, research and writing, and somewhat less on quizzes and exams. One honors course per semester is the recommended limit.

Admission to the Honors Program as a freshman requires one of the following three options:

1 - an ACT of at least 27, or a SAT (EBRW/math) score of 1260, or a CLT score of 84;

2 - a high school GPA of at least 4.0;

3 - or a combination of an ACT of at least 25, or a SAT (EBRW/math) score of 1200, or a CLT score of 78 AND a high school GPA of at least 3.75.

Students who do not meet the requirements as incoming freshmen may be considered at the end of their freshman year if they earn a 3.75 cumulative GPA.

Continuation in the Honors Program requires a cumulative GPA of 3.5. If a student's cumulative GPA falls below 3.5 at the completion of any semester, the student must meet one of the following two criteria to continue in the Honors Institute: the student has one semester to bring up cumulative GPA to 3.5; or the student must have a semester GPA of 3.5 or above for each semester from that point forward.

SUMMIT SEMESTER – COLORADO

Samuel J. Youngs, Ph.D., Campus Contact

Tripp Almon, Director of Summit Semester

The Summit facility is located in the Colorado Rocky Mountains where as many as thirty students build friendships and a foundation from which to learn and to serve. This community nurtures character development and hones intellectual skills while helping students develop strong relationships. Summit Semester animates students toward academic excellence and a coherent Christian worldview. The mentors motivate students to pursue influential leadership. Participants leave Summit Semester with habits that will greatly enhance their future studies, and indeed their entire lives.

Summit Semester is a program designed for recent high school graduates. Students who enroll in the Summit Semester are considered visiting students at Bryan College.

COURSE DESCRIPTIONS

Residential Undergraduate Programs

ACCOUNTING

ACCT 231 PRINCIPLES OF ACCOUNTING I

First semester 3 hours

An introduction to the concepts and principles involved in the preparation of financial reports for proprietorships and partnerships, including accrual accounting, customer receivables, inventories, plant assets, debt, and equity. This course is designed to provide the student with a working knowledge of basic financial accounting concepts and an understanding of the economic events represented by the accounting process and financial statements. Prerequisite: BUS 121 or MATH 115.

ACCT 232 PRINCIPLES OF ACCOUNTING II

Second semester 3 hours

A continuation of ACCT 231 to include accounting for corporations. Coverage includes stockholder's equity, long-term liabilities, time value of money concepts, statement of cash flows, and financial analysis. It will also include an introduction to cost/managerial accounting, which is the study of internal reporting of accounting data for the purpose of planning and controlling operations, policy making and long-range planning. Areas of study include cost behavior analysis, product costing, cost-volume-profit relationships, relevant costs, budgeting, standard costs, and capital expenditures. Prerequisite: ACCT 231.

ACCT 331 INTERMEDIATE ACCOUNTING I

First semester 3 hours

The first in a series of two intermediate financial accounting courses which provide a comprehensive study of financial accounting theory and financial accounting reporting. The course will concentrate on the foundations of financial accounting and include an in-depth study of generally accepted accounting principles and concepts. Emphasis will be on a deeper understanding of financial statements, earnings management, and the revenue/receivables/cash cycle. Prerequisite: ACCT 232.

ACCT 332 INTERMEDIATE ACCOUNTING II

Second semester 3 hours

The second in a series of two intermediate financial accounting courses which provide a comprehensive study of financial accounting theory and reporting. The course will concentrate on the foundations of financial accounting and include an in-depth study of generally accepted accounting principles and concepts. Emphasis will be on a deeper understanding of debt and equity financing, dilutive securities and earnings per share, investments, revenue recognition, income taxes, pensions, leases, statement of cash flow, and full disclosure in financial reporting. Prerequisite: ACCT 331.

ACCT 335 FINANCIAL STATEMENTS ANALYSIS

First semester 3 hours

Students will analyze and use information from corporate financial reports for the purpose of financial analysis and valuation. The goal of this course is to learn how to use financial statement information to evaluate the firm's past and present performance and to predict likely future outcomes. Emphasis is placed on evaluating how well the financial statements depict the firm's economics and how to use additional information, especially from footnote disclosures, to better understand and analyze financial statement information. Prerequisite: ACCT 232.

ACCT 336 TAX ACCOUNTING

Second semester 3 hours

A study of the principles of federal income taxation of individuals and corporations. There will be some coverage of partnerships, estates, and trusts. The emphasis will be on the conceptual foundations of the tax system. There will be some coverage of the tax forms and compliance with tax laws. Prerequisite: ACCT 232.

ACCT 338 COST ACCOUNTING

First semester 3 hours

An in-depth study of the concepts introduced in ACCT 232. The development of cost accounting systems to assign costs to finished units of product or services. A study of how the accounting data from the cost system can be interpreted and used by management in planning, controlling, and evaluating business activities. Areas of study include job-order and process costing, standard costing and variance analysis, variable versus full-absorption costing, profit planning, non-routine decisions, and decisions about capital expenditures. Prerequisite: ACCT 232.

ACCT 421 AUDITING

Either semester 3 hours

Provides an introduction to auditing. It introduces principles and practices used by public accountants and internal auditors in examining financial statements and supporting data. This course is a study of techniques available for gathering, summarizing, analyzing and interpreting the data presented in financial statements and procedures used in verifying the accuracy of the information. Ethical and legal aspects and considerations. Offered on demand. Prerequisite: ACCT 232.

BIBLE

BIB 115 BIBLICAL FOUNDATIONS

Every semester 3 hours

This course, designed for students with minimal knowledge of the Bible, will explore basic issues related to the Bible's big story (metanarrative), origin (canonicity), trustworthiness (revelation and inspiration), and proper interpretation and application (hermeneutics). Students choosing this course must take it prior to taking BIB 222 and 224 and with permission of their adviser.

BIB 222 OLD TESTAMENT LITERATURE & INTERPRETATION

Every semester 3 hours

This course provides an analysis of the Old Testament as the foundation of the whole Bible. It focuses on the theological, literary, and historical dimensions of the Old Testament text and story; draws theological connections to Jesus and the New Testament; and makes application to modern Christianity, both corporate (church) and personal (spiritual growth).

BIB 224 NEW TESTAMENT LITERATURE & INTERPRETATION

Every semester 3 hours

This course provides an analysis of the New Testament as the culmination of the whole Bible. It focuses on the theological, literary, and historical dimensions of the New Testament text; draws theological connections to major figures of the Old Testament and its biblical theological emphases; and it makes application to modern Christianity, both corporate (church) and personal (spiritual growth).

BIB 320 THE BOOK OF ISAIAH

Either semester 3 hours

This course offers a detailed study of the book of Isaiah, as well as a study of the times, message, and messianic hope of the prophets. This class will focus on the whole book of Isaiah and also develop smaller sections in a more detailed way. Prerequisites: BIB 222 & BIB224. Offered on demand.

BIB 328 THE BOOK OF ROMANS

Either semester 3 hours

An exegetical and theological study of Romans. This course includes coverage of pertinent historical, critical, and methodological issues in the study of Romans as well as careful exegesis (textual analysis) of the book's structure and content for the purpose of both theological interpretation and application to the life of the church. Prerequisite: BIB 222 and 224. Offered on demand.

BIB 329 ACTS

Either semester 3 hours

An exegetical and theological study of the book of Acts. This course includes coverage of pertinent historical, critical, and methodological issues in the study of Acts as well as careful exegesis (textual analysis) of the book's structure and content for the purpose of both theological interpretation and application to the life of the church. Prerequisite: BIB 222 and 224. Offered on demand.

BIB 334 THE GOSPELS

Either semester 3 hours

An exegetical and theological study of the Gospels. This course includes coverage of pertinent historical, critical, and methodological issues in the study of the Gospels as well as careful exegesis (textual analysis) of each book's structure and content for the purpose of both theological interpretation and application to the life of the church. This class may focus on the whole of these books and/or develop a smaller section in a more detailed way. Prerequisite: BIB 222 and 224. Offered on demand.

BIB 337 CHRISTIAN THEOLOGY I

First semester 3 hours

A study of the science of God and His relations to the universe. Includes the major doctrines that have constituted the history of Christian thought, specifically: God, the Trinity, the person and work of the Holy Spirit, creation, and biblical anthropology. Prerequisite: BIB 222 and 224.

BIB 338 CHRISTIAN THEOLOGY II

Second semester 3 hours

A study of the science of God and His relations to the universe. Includes the major doctrines that have constituted the history of Christian thought, specifically: the person and work of Christ, biblical covenants, salvation, the church, and prophecy.

Prerequisite: BIB 222 and 224.

BIB 434 SEXUALITY AND THE BIBLE

Second semester 3 hours

This course offers a biblical and theological study of sexuality, and its application – professional, ministerial, and personal – to current trends and debates in the church and culture. Topics will cover the basics of a theology of sexuality, sexual problems and dysfunctions, and redemptive prospects. Prerequisites: CT 113, BIB 222 and BIB 224. Offered on demand.

BIB 438 ANGELOLOGY

Either semester 3 hours

A theological study of the doctrine of angelology as it relates to the spiritual life. Included are consideration of the nature and work of angels, Satan, and demons with comparisons and contrasts to divine nature and the implications for living the spiritual life. Comparisons and contrasts are made with classic depictions of the spirit world as well as with current cultural representations. Prerequisite: BIB 222 and 224.

BIB 440 GENESIS AND BIBLICAL THEOLOGY

Either semester 3 hours

This class traces the development of major themes in Genesis and how God expands those themes throughout the Old Testament and the New with particular observation to the exegetical methods of the New Testament writers. Prerequisites BIB 222 and 224. Offered on demand. Prerequisites BIB 222 and 224. Offered on demand.

BIB 441 DANIEL AND BIBLICAL THEOLOGY

Either semester 3 hours

This class is a biblical-theological approach to the main themes in Daniel as they appear in the Old Testament and the New. Special emphasis will be on the exegetical methods of the New Testament writers when reading Daniel. Prerequisites BIB 222 and 224. Offered on demand.

BIB 442 PSALMS AND BIBLICAL THEOLOGY

Either semester 3 hours

This class develops a biblical-theological approach to exegesis of the Psalms. Special emphasis will be on themes as they also appear in the New Testament with particular observation to the exegetical methods of the New Testament writers. Prerequisites BIB 222 and 224. Offered on demand.

BIB 443 SYNOPTIC WRITERS AND BIBLICAL THEOLOGY

Either semester 3 hours

A systematic study describing the biblical theology of various synoptic writers. This class will focus on the major teaching and theology of various Gospels. It will also look at these Gospels with particular examination of their use and development of major Old Testament themes. Students will also examine the author's contribution to the theology of the Bible as a whole. Prerequisites BIB 222 and 224. Offered on demand.

BIB 444 JOHN AND BIBLICAL THEOLOGY

Either semester 3 hours

A systematic study describing the biblical theology of John. This class will focus on the major teaching and theology of John. It will also look at the epistles and Revelation of John with particular examination of John's use and development of major Old Testament themes. Students will also examine the author's contribution to the theology of the Bible as a whole. Prerequisites BIB 222 and 224. Offered on demand.

BIB 445 PAULINE EPISTLES AND BIBLICAL THEOLOGY

Either semester 3 hours

A systematic study of Paul's epistles with particular examination of Paul's use and development of major Old Testament themes. Students will also examine the author's contribution to the theology of the Bible as a whole. Prerequisites BIB 222 and 224. Offered on demand.

BIB 446 HEBREWS - REVELATION & BIBLICAL THEOLOGY

Either semester 3 hours

A systematic study of the General Epistles and Revelation. Students will also examine the various authors' contributions to the theology of the Bible as a whole. Prerequisites BIB 222 and 224. Offered on demand.

BIB 447 DIFFICULT PASSAGES & BIBLICAL THEOLOGY

Either semester 3 hours

This course addresses many classically difficult issues in both biblical theology and biblical interpretation. Students will be exposed to different approaches on these issues, with a strong focus on Christocentric and intertextual hermeneutics. Prerequisites BIB 222 and 224. Offered on demand.

BIB 490 SENIOR THESIS

Either semester 3 hours

Provides seniors an opportunity to research and produce a thesis on the topic of their choosing. Open only to senior Biblical & Theological Studies majors. Prerequisites: BIB 222 and 224. Offered on demand.

BIOLOGYBIO 111 INTRODUCTION TO BIOLOGY

First semester 3 hours

Introduction to the principles of biology from a Christian worldview: basic chemistry, macromolecules, cell structure and function, photosynthesis and cellular respiration, cell division, Mendelian and molecular genetics, evolution, basic ecology, and a survey of prokaryotic and eukaryotic kingdoms. Intended for majors and non-majors.

BIO 111L INTRODUCTION TO BIOLOGY LAB

First semester 1 hour

This course enhances BIO 111 by employing laboratory exercises. This lab introduces students to basic techniques and safety practices in the laboratory. Consists of specific experiments and demonstrations that will implement the scientific method, explore cells and cellular processes. Topics addressed may include the use of microscopy, observing structure-function relationships of animal systems through the dissection of preserved specimens, performing classical and modern genetic manipulations, and observing animal behavior and organismal interactions in ecosystems. Prerequisite (or concurrent enrollment): BIO 111. Lab, 3 hours. Additional lab fee applies. Intended for majors and non-majors.

BIO 115 ENVIRONMENTAL SCIENCE

Either semester 3 hours

Environmental Science is an introduction to biological and social issues affecting the environment. Topics include energy resources; land conservation; ecosystem diversity and sustainability; soil, water and air quality management; climate change; and environmental policy. Of special emphasis will be a Christian perspective on responsible stewardship of the earth and its resources.

BIO 210 INTRODUCTION TO ANATOMY & PHYSIOLOGY

Second semester 4 hours

A systematic study of the structure and function of the human body, including foundational topics such as surface anatomy and tissues as well as the essential elements of all eleven body systems. 4 credit hours: Lecture, 3 hours; lab, 3 hours. Credit may not be earned for both BIO 210 and BIO 221/222. Additional lab fee applies.

BIO 211 PRINCIPLES OF BIOLOGY

Second semester 4 hours

An in-depth continuation of BIO 111 for majors and minors from a Christian worldview. Covers details of cell structure, function and division, photosynthesis and respiration, Mendelian and molecular genetics, evolutionary and ecological concepts, as well as a study of eukaryotic and prokaryotic kingdoms, anatomy, physiology, reproduction, development, and interactions. Lecture, 3 hours; Lab, 3 hours. Additional lab fee applies.

BIO 216 DINOSAURS & CATASTROPHES

Either semester 2 hours

An overview of the history of life and earth with a concentration on two themes: dinosaurs and catastrophes in the fossil record. The course will explore principles of geological, paleontological, and biological research and discuss extraordinary geological events that have shaped earth's surface: earthquakes, landslides, tsunamis, volcanic eruptions, and other catastrophes.

BIO 220 INTRODUCTION TO NUTRITION

First semester 3 hours

A study of nutrient sources, functions, utilization, and their relationship to health and human development. Examines the need for reliable nutrition information, education, exercise, and dietetics. This course will also meet the core curriculum requirement for a non-laboratory science course.

BIO 221 HUMAN ANATOMY AND PHYSIOLOGY I

First semester 4 hours

This course is a systematic study of anatomy and physiology of the human body. The topics studied include body surface anatomy and planes, basic chemistry, cell structures and functions, tissues, skeletal-joint systems, muscular system, nervous system, and the special senses. Lecture, 3 hours; lab, 3 hours. Students cannot earn credit for both BIO 221 and BIO 323. Additional lab fee applies.

BIO 222 HUMAN ANATOMY AND PHYSIOLOGY II

Second semester 4 hours

This course is a systematic study of anatomy and physiology of the human body. The topics studied include endocrinology, blood and cardiovascular system, lymphatic system and immunity, respiratory system, digestive system, metabolism and nutrition, urinary system and water-ionic balances, and reproduction and early development. Lecture, 3 hours; lab, 3 hours. Students cannot earn credit for both BIO 222 and BIO 324. Additional lab fee applies.

BIO 224 MICROBIOLOGY

First semester 4 hours

A survey of microorganisms with emphasis on bacteria. Includes a study of basic biology, ecology, and applied aspects of resident and pathogenic microbes. Aseptic techniques used for culturing and identifying bacteria stressed in laboratory. With special permission of the Department Chair the lecture (3 credits) may be taken without the lab or the lab (1 credit) may be taken subsequent to the lecture. Prerequisite: general biology survey course. Lecture, 3 hours; lab, 3 hours plus additional time for analysis. Additional lab fee applies.

BIO 310 PHILOSOPHY OF SCIENCE

Second semester 3 hours

An examination of the nature of science: its methods, its scope, its strengths and limitations, and how it relates to other ways of knowing. Emphasis is on 20th century philosophies of science. A previous college-level science class is recommended preparation for the course. Cross-listed with PHIL 310.

BIO 314 BIOLOGICAL ORIGINS

First semester 3 hours

An introductory survey of current theories for the origin of life, the origin of culture and its diversity, and the origin of language and its diversity. The first half of the course presents an evolutionary perspective on these issues; the second half presents a young-age creation perspective. In each case the best argument in favor of the position is presented.

BIO 317 HISTORY OF LIFE

First semester 3 hours

An introductory survey of life's origin, diversification, and history. Includes a review of mechanistic theories for the origin of the first cell, intra-specific variation and change, speciation, and the origin and diversification of higher groups. Also includes a survey of the fossil record and the evidence it gives of the history of diversity and organismal form through time. Prerequisite: two semester general biology survey. Offered alternate years.

BIO 321 CELL BIOLOGY

Second semester 4 hours

A study of cell structure and function with emphasis on the molecular, biochemical and regulatory mechanisms common to all cells. Topics include membrane structure, function and transport; energy metabolism; the molecular basis for the expression of genetic information; the organelles involved in the regulation of cell shape and motility; growth, reproduction and their control. This course is accompanied by a three- hour lab designed to introduce the student to a wide range of techniques used in modern cell biology including spectrophotometry, chromatography, immuno- and cytochemistry, and fluorescent microscopy. Lecture, 3 hours; lab, 3 hours. Prerequisite: two semester general biology survey, and CHEM 132 with no grade lower than C-, or permission of the instructor. Additional lab fee applies. Offered alternate years.

BIO 323 ADVANCED HUMAN ANATOMY & PHYSIOLOGY I

First semester 4 hours

This course is an enhanced study of anatomy and physiology of the human body, covering the integumentary, skeletal, muscular, and nervous systems, including special senses. This course also provides molecular content and practice with clinical case analysis and application. Lecture, 3 hours; lab, 3 hours. Prerequisite: two semester general biology survey. Students cannot earn credit for both BIO 221 and BIO 323. Additional lab fee applies.

BIO 324 ADVANCED HUMAN ANATOMY & PHYSIOLOGY II

Second semester 4 hours

This course is an enhanced study of anatomy and physiology of the human body, covering the endocrine, cardiovascular, lymphatic, immune, respiratory, digestive, urinary, and reproductive systems. This course also provides molecular content and practice with clinical case analysis and application. Lecture, 3 hours; lab, 3 hours. Prerequisite: two semester general biology survey. Students cannot earn credit for both BIO 222 and BIO 324. Additional lab fee applies.

BIO 325 GENETICS

Second semester 4 hours

A study of the genetic factors in viruses, microorganisms, plants, and animals. The nature of the gene and its expression is a central theme. Lectures will meet three hours a week to discuss topics in classical and modern genetics including mendelian and microbial genetics, linkage analysis, pedigree analysis, cytogenetics, genetic engineering, and the transmission and regulation of genetic information. A weekly three-hour lab is devoted to "hands-on" experience with Drosophila genetics, human DNA fingerprinting, and recombinant DNA technology. Lecture, 3 hours; lab, 3 hours. With special permission of the Department Chair, the lecture (3 credits) may be taken without the lab or the lab (1 credit) may be taken subsequent to the lecture. Prerequisites: two semester general biology survey, and CHEM 132 with no grade lower than C-, or permission of the instructor. Offered on demand. Additional lab fee applies.

BIO 328 ADVANCED MICROBIOLOGY

First semester 4 hours

This course is an enhanced study of microbiology, with an emphasis on bacteria. Includes a study of basic biology, ecology, immunology, and applied aspects of resident and pathogenic microbes. Aseptic techniques used for culturing and identifying bacteria stressed in laboratory. This course also provides molecular content and practice with clinical case analysis and application. With special permission of the Department Chair the lecture (3 credits) may be taken without the lab or the lab (1 credit) may be taken subsequent to the lecture. Credit may not be earned for both this course and BIO 224. Prerequisite: two semester general biology survey. Lecture, 3 hours; lab, 3 hours plus additional time for analysis. Offered alternate years. Additional lab fee applies.

BIO 340 ENVIRONMENTAL ECOLOGY

First semester 4 hours

A study of populations, communities, ecosystems, and the theoretical and actual interactions of factors controlling their distributions and abundances. Labs provide opportunities for in depth and/or hands-on application of concepts covered in lecture. Special emphasis on the temperate terrestrial and aquatic habitats. Lecture, 3 hours; lab, 3 hours. Prerequisite: two semester general biology survey. Offered alternate years. Additional lab fee applies.

BIO 342 THE DINOSAURIA

Summer 4 hours

A field course introduction to The Dinosaurs. Topics include biological classification, environment, and the dinosaur fossil record. The class will provide training in field methods for vertebrate paleontology in the dinosaur research project. The class is normally taught for four weeks in Wyoming. Field fee covers transportation, room, board, and camp costs. 3 lecture hours, 1 lab hour. Prerequisite: PHYS 213 or PHYS 211. Offered summers only. Additional Lab fee applies.

BIO 348 PRINCIPLES OF BIOETHICS

Either semester 3 hours

A discussion-based course that examines Christian principles of bioethics pertaining to topics of interest to biologists, including key issues in medicine, biotechnology, animal care, and the environment. A previous college-level science class is recommended preparation for the course. Cross-listed as PHIL 348.

BIO 351 BIOMEDICAL ETHICS

Second semester 3 hours

An exploration of ethical issues, cases, and principles in modern medicine and related fields from the perspective of Christian thought and practice. Interactive, case-based lecture and discussion will help students develop resources for ethical decision-making and apply critical thinking skills to clinical scenarios. A previous college-level science class is recommended preparation for the course. Offered on demand.

BIO 400 SUPERVISED RESEARCH

Either semester 3 hours

A course in the principles of biological research within a Christian worldview, including design, implementation, and scientific experimentation. Students will be required to participate in a scientific research project of the professor's design. Permission of the instructor is required. May be repeated with different projects for a total of 12 credits. Additional lab fee applies.

BIO 420 BIOCHEMISTRY

Second semester 4 hours

Emphasizes essential biochemical principles common to all cells. Topics include the structure and function of proteins, nucleic acids, lipids, and polysaccharides; thermodynamics and bioenergetics; enzyme kinetics; membrane structure and function; basic eukaryotic metabolism; and replication, transcription and translation. Lecture, 3 hours; lab, 3 hours. Offered alternate years. Prerequisites: CHEM 241. Cross-listed as CHEM 420. Additional lab fee applies

BIO 430 MEDICAL TERMINOLOGY

Either semester 1 hour

This course will be offered to students needing a background in medical terminology in preparation for advanced studies in the medical field, such as physical therapy, nursing, dentistry, optometry, pharmacy, or medicine. The course will explore roots, prefixes, and suffixes of medical terminology and will analyze principles used for combining forms. Terminology used in the description of human anatomy and the diagnosis and treatment of diseases will be emphasized. Abbreviations and symbols are included, as are some specialty terms that are used in such areas as pharmacology, radiology and nuclear medicine. Offered on demand.

BIO 440 METHODS OF TEACHING SCIENCE

First semester 4 hours

A study of instructional techniques, student activities, and materials needed to teach lab-based sciences in elementary and/or secondary schools. This course will include an examination of the Tennessee State Standards as well as the Next Generation Science Standards. Offered on demand. Lecture, 3 hours; lab, 3 hours. Prerequisites: EDUC 119. Additional lab fee applies.

BIO 499 SEMINAR IN BIOLOGY

Second semester 2 hours

An examination of current topics of interest to biologists. Outside reading, oral and written reports, and a term paper required generally. Open only to juniors and seniors in majors which require this course and students granted permission by the instructor.

BUSINESS

BUS 111 INTRODUCTION TO SOFTWARE WITH BUSINESS APPLICATIONS

First semester 3 hours

This course develops the fundamentals of using industry-standard software for word processing, spreadsheet, and presentation applications. The use of computers from a Christian worldview is specifically addressed. Focus will be on the academic and professional application of these programs. It also deals with issues associated with the use of digital information in the current information age, including professionalism, copyrighted/trademarked content, and ethical standards.

BUS 121 INTRODUCTION TO BUSINESS

Either semester 3 hours

This course examines the core functions of business, introducing learners to management, accounting, economics, finance and marketing. Through both formal academic and experiential training, learners are encouraged to determine if business is a calling on their life. In addition, this course explores the biblical basis for business, the free market, distinguishes between profit and greed, and establishes a biblical standard for ethical business decision-making.

BUS 326 LEGAL ENVIRONMENT FOR BUSINESS

Either semester 3 hours

A study of the American court systems. A detailed examination of the legal rules applying to business transactions, especially those concerning contracts, agency, corporations, and partnerships. Cases used as study media.

BUS 377 BUSINESS INTERNSHIP

Either semester 1-3 hours

Student works in a business and interacts with various finance, management, and operating functions. The student is under contract with the College and the business organization. Combines theory with on-the-job training. Student must have junior or senior standing and have at least 12 hours of business administration courses at the 200-level or higher, and be accepted as a business administration major. Course grade is based on various written and oral reports and the evaluation of the business site supervisor. Expense for transportation to and from the internship site is the responsibility of the student. Course may be repeated for a total of three credits.

BUS 448 INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS

Second semester 3 hours

An examination of international organizational structures and managerial processes; cultural, political, economic, and legal environments of global marketing. World market patterns and international trade theory.

BUS 497 BUSINESS SEMINAR

Second semester 2 hours

A capstone course for the business administration major designed to synthesize knowledge and applications gained through the major courses completed and to address integrative issues. Open only to Business Administration majors. Prerequisites: Senior standing and permission of instructor.

CHEMISTRYCHEM 115 INTRODUCTION TO MOLECULAR STRUCTURE

Either semester 2 hours

A study of the structure of molecules including the following topics: atomic theory, localized electron model, covalent bonding, valence-shell electron pair repulsion, conformational analysis, organic functional groups, and nomenclature. Does not apply to Chemistry minor. Offered on demand. Students may not earn credit for both CHEM 115 and CHEM 131.

CHEM 131 GENERAL CHEMISTRY I

First semester 4 hours

A study of the fundamental concepts of chemistry including the following topics: atomic theory, states of matter, stoichiometry, thermodynamics, and nuclear chemistry. Emphasis is given to lab safety. High school chemistry is recommended and a working knowledge of algebra is required. Lecture, 3 hours; lab, 3 hours. Students may not earn credit for both CHEM 115 and CHEM 131. Additional Lab fee applies.

CHEM 132 GENERAL CHEMISTRY II

Second semester 4 hours

A study of the fundamental concepts of chemistry, including the following topics: chemical bonding, solutions, kinetics, equilibria, thermodynamics, and electrochemistry. In lab, emphasis is given to safety and qualitative analysis. Lecture, 3 hours; lab, 3 hours. Prerequisite: CHEM 131. Additional Lab fee applies.

CHEM 241 ORGANIC CHEMISTRY I

First semester 4 hours

A study of the nomenclature, properties, stereochemistry, reactions, and reaction mechanisms of major classes of organic compounds. Particular emphasis is given to alkanes, alkenes, aromatics, alcohols, and alkyl halides. In lab, emphasis is given to safety. Lecture, 3 hours; lab, 3 hours. Prerequisite: CHEM 131-132. Additional Lab fee applies.

CHEM 242 ORGANIC CHEMISTRY II

Second semester 4 hours

A study of the nomenclature, properties, reactions, reaction mechanisms, and synthesis of major classes of organic compounds. Particular emphasis is given to organometallics, alcohols, ethers, aldehydes, ketones, amines, carboxylic acids and derivatives. Several classes of biological molecules will also be studied. Spectroscopy of organic molecules will also be discussed. In lab, emphasis will be given to lab safety. Lecture, 3 hours; lab, 3 hours. Prerequisite: CHEM 241. Additional Lab fee applies.

CHEM 322 TOPICS IN COMPUTATIONAL CHEMISTRY

First semester 2 hours

An overview of the origin and development of quantum mechanics and of the use of ab initio molecular orbital theory to model the properties of molecules. This course will then introduce a particular topic, varied from year to year, in chemistry to which computational methods can be applied. Offered alternate years. Prerequisite: CHEM 241.

CHEM 325 THERMODYNAMICS & KINETICS IN CHEMISTRY

First semester 3 hours

A study of the applications of thermodynamics and kinetics to chemistry. Students will apply key concepts in thermodynamics and kinetics in order to model and predict the behavior of chemical systems. This course will require the application of calculus to chemical problem solving. Offered on demand. Prerequisites: CHEM 242; MATH 221.

CHEM 331 ANALYTICAL CHEMISTRY

Either semester 4 hours

An overview of quantitative analytical chemistry: principles and methods of separation, of equilibria, and of stoichiometry. Modern analytical chemistry with an emphasis on instrumental techniques. Lecture, 3 hours; lab, 3 hours. Prerequisites: CHEM 131-132. Offered on demand. Additional Lab fee applies.

CHEM 420 BIOCHEMISTRY

Second semester 4 hours

Emphasizes essential biochemical principles common to all cells. Topics include the structure and function of proteins, nucleic acids, lipids, and polysaccharides; thermodynamics and bioenergetics; enzyme kinetics; membrane structure and function; basic eukaryotic metabolism; and replication, transcription and translation. Lecture, 3 hours; lab, 3 hours. Offered alternate years. Prerequisites: CHEM 241. Cross-listed as BIO 420. Additional Lab fee applies.

CHEM 470 INTRODUCTION TO CHEMICAL RESEARCH

Either semester 1-4 hours

A study of special topics, accompanying related research. Topics and research problems chosen by the instructor, or by the student with the approval of the instructor. Course may be repeated up to four credits total. Offered on demand.

CHEM 491 SEMINAR IN CHEMISTRY

Second semester 1 hour

An examination of current topics of interest to chemists. Students will explore published research on a particular topic, and present (orally and in writing) a summary and critique of recent research in this area. A discussion of ethical and philosophical topics related to chemistry research will also be included. This course is open to junior and senior chemistry majors. Offered on demand. Prerequisite: CHEM 242.

CHRISTIAN MINISTRY

CM 121 INTRODUCTION TO CHRISTIAN MINISTRY

First semester 3 hours

The student is introduced to the essential elements of the discipline of Christian Ministry. Emphasis is given to vital aspects of teaching practice and ministry programming.

CM 122 PRINCIPLES OF EVANGELISM

Second semester 3 hours

Students use a network simulator in labs to gain practical experience. Offered alternate years. Prerequisite: CSCI 116.

CSCI 472 COMPUTER SCIENCE PRACTICUM

Either semester or summer 3 hours

Use of computer systems in on-the-job situations. Must comply with Department practicum guidelines. Offered on demand. Must have direct application to the student's course of study and will not substitute for courses in area of concentration. Prerequisite: Permission of department chair.

CRIMINAL JUSTICE

CJUS 120 INTRODUCTION TO CRIMINAL JUSTICE

First semester 3 hours

An introduction to and overview of the discipline and practice of Criminal Justice including its historical and philosophical background. This course will give students an overview of the three main functions of the Criminal Justice system to include: Police, Courts and Corrections.

CJUS 121 INTRODUCTION TO DIGITAL FORENSICS & CYBERCRIME

First semester 3 hours

This course explores how digital evidence is generated in every aspect of modern life, including the corporate world, and both civil and criminal activities. Students will be introduced to cybercrime and crimes committed using digital devices, including identity theft, fraud, cyber terrorism, hacking, cyber bullying, and child sexual exploitation. Introduces students to the nature of digital evidence and the types of digital evidence that could exist in relation to a crime. Offered on demand.

CJUS 222 CRIMINAL INVESTIGATIONS

First semester 3 hours

This course will cover essential techniques and procedures for conducting criminal investigations, including how to approach, structure, and manage a criminal investigation. Students will learn how to organize the various parts of an investigation into a written affidavit establishing probable cause. The course will also contain an analysis of pertinent court decisions and problems, and methods of dealing with current situations that face law enforcement daily.

CJUS 223 CORRECTIONS

Second semester 3 hours

This course is designed to familiarize the student with the criminal correctional (or penal) system in the U.S. It will cover the history, administration, and law of corrections, in the U.S., and occasionally, by comparison, other nation-states.

CJUS 226 POLICE PROCEDURES

First semester 3 hours

An overview of the role, scope, organization, and management of police agencies including the philosophy and history of policing. Emphasis is placed on police operations, critical issues, community policing and the personal side of policing.

CJUS 231 HOMELAND SECURITY

First semester 3 hours

An overview of the form and functions of the U.S. Department of Homeland Security and its vital mission: to secure the nation from the many threats we face. DHS missions involve anti-terrorism, border security, immigration and customs, cyber security, and disaster prevention and management. This course will explore each of these missions in some detail. Offered on demand.

CJUS 235 CRIMINAL PSYCHOLOGY

Either semester 3 hours

This course examines the interrelationship between criminal justice and psychology. From criminal delinquency to victim advocacy, this course will study the motivations of criminal behavior. The course will analyze how human behavior interacts with and impacts the criminal justice system and related services. It will also explore the psychology of law enforcement and the impact of the careers in this field on professional and personal mental health. Cross-listed as PSY 235.

CJUS 237 VICE & NARCOTICS INVESTIGATIONS

Second semester 3 hours

This course will examine criminal activities related to various vice and narcotics crimes as well as explore investigative techniques in dealing with delinquent behaviors related to illegal drugs, gambling, sex crimes, and gangs. The course will investigate the underlying causes of these behaviors, the personal and social factors related to what are defined as immoral crimes, and the consequences across the spectrum of incarceration, treatment, prevention, and advocacy programs. Offered on demand.

CJUS 239 WHITE COLLAR CRIMES

First semester 3 hours

The course will examine white-collar crimes and related criminal statutes for such crimes as mail and wire fraud, Racketeer Influenced and Corrupt Organizations Act, criminal tax violations, bank fraud, health care fraud, perjury, obstruction and false statements. The course will explore the complexities and difficulty of these criminal investigations and their prosecution through the criminal justice system.

CJUS 252 INTRODUCTION TO FORENSIC SCIENCE

Second semester 3 hours

An introduction and overview of forensic science, or the use of scientific data to provide valuable information in criminal cases (such as time of death, cause of death/injury, etc.)

CJUS 323 HUMAN TRAFFICKING

Second semester 3 hours

An in-depth analysis of human trafficking and modern-day slavery, including the perspective of victims, and how these things relate to the criminal justice system. Emphasis is placed on understanding the ethical and legal dimensions of related issues, as well as identifying and constructing solutions from a faith-based perspective. Offered on demand.

CJUS 325 ADVANCED CRIMINAL INVESTIGATIONS & OPERATIONS

Second semester 3 hours

This course explores advanced techniques and processes in criminal investigations. Topics include the investigator's use of technology, undercover operations, interviews, interrogations, and report writing. Students will get "hands-on" experience as well as a foundation in the legal implications connected with these special operations and techniques. Offered on demand.

CJUS 326 JUVENILE JUSTICE

Second semester 3 hours

An in-depth study of the juvenile justice system in the U.S., including theories of differential treatment of juveniles and adults, the general administration of the system, the law related to juveniles, and various experiments within the general system. Offered on demand.

CJUS 331 CRIMINAL LAW AND PROCEDURE

Second semester 3 hours

An overview of those areas of law which apply most directly to Criminal Justice, including Criminal Law, Criminal Procedure, the Law of Evidence, Juvenile Justice Law, and the Law of Corrections.

CJUS 329 DIGITAL FORENSIC EVIDENCE: LAW OF SEARCH & SEIZURE

Second semester 3 hours

This course instructs students how to understand and apply legal principles in the acquisition of digital evidence to ensure it will be admissible in court. Digital evidence derived from a wide array of digital devices that is used daily to investigate and convict criminals of crimes ranging from child exploitation, fraud, to murder will be investigated. Offered on demand.

CJUS 345 RESEARCH METHODS IN CRIMINAL JUSTICE

Second semester 3 hours

An analysis of research techniques and methodologies utilized by criminal justice researchers and criminologists. Students will evaluate various research strategies and learn how to implement select techniques in their own work.

CJUS 349 THE PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION OF CRIMINAL JUSTICE

First semester 3 hours

An examination of principles of administration, organization, and functional interrelation of criminal justice agencies. An evaluation of personnel policies, divisions, operations, management procedures and policies.

CJUS 421 CRIMINOLOGY

Second semester 3 hours

The course covers the various theories from past to present that examine crime from a philosophical, psychological, and sociological perspective and how it shapes the criminal justice system. This course examines the theories that attempt to explain criminal behavior and the impact of crime on society and society's responses and policies to attempt to control and prevent crime.

CJUS 427 SERIAL & MASS MURDER INVESTIGATION

First semester 3 hours

This course gives the student a better understanding of those that kill and what psychological and environmental factors can be operative in such circumstances. Contemporary and classic case studies along with commonalities and variations amongst multiple murders will be studied. This course explores these subjects from a Christian worldview, with an emphasis on applied ethics and biblical injunctions against murder. Offered on demand.

CJUS 431 DIGITAL FORENSICS TOOLS & TECHNOLOGY

First semester 3 hours

To provide practical, hands-on experience, by utilizing virtual machine technology in analyzing digital storage media to obtain evidence. Students will learn and utilize a variety of digital forensic programs. Students will cover the basics of digital acquisition and data handling necessary to properly identify, preserve, and collect data from a range of digital media devices. The legal integrity of the evidence process will be demonstrated. Offered on demand.

CJUS 441 ETHICS & DIVERSITY IN CRIMINAL JUSTICE

First semester 3 hours

Students will engage in discussions and research ethical issues related to the criminal justice system and community relations. Students will examine diversity within the criminal justice field.

Students will explore multicultural communities and evaluate and propose possible solutions to current criminal justice-community relation issues.

CJUS 475 CRIMINAL JUSTICE INTERNSHIP

Either semester 3 hours

An experience-based course in which upper class Criminal Justice majors further develop the knowledge and skills gained in their course of study through on-the-job training under the professional supervision and the guidance of a professor within their major. This is a structured program in which students must participate in local, state, and/or federal criminal justice agencies or a combination thereof. The internship is typically completed off campus. Permission of the Criminal Justice Department Chair is required. Prerequisite: CJUS 120

ECONOMICS/FINANCE

ECFN 110 INTRODUCTION TO PERSONAL FINANCE

Either semester 3 hours

A study of a personal wealth management from a Christian worldview. Topics covered include personal budgeting, financial planning, tithing, taxes, insurance, investments, giving, managing credit, and retirement planning. Additional course fee required.

ECFN 221 PRINCIPLES OF MICROECONOMICS

First semester 3 hours

This course is an introductory course in microeconomic theory. It is a study of the theoretical economic framework that explains the operations of and the interrelationships between individual markets. The course emphasizes the market mechanism including supply and demand, consumer choice, costs and output determination, the role of competition, and the factor markets.

ECFN 222 PRINCIPLES OF MACROECONOMICS

Second semester 3 hours

An introductory course in macroeconomic theory. A study of national income accounting, the determination of national output and employment levels, the banking system, fiscal and monetary policy, and stabilization policy. Inflation, unemployment, lagging productivity, economic growth, and the public debt are considered. Emphasis placed on economic aggregates.

ECFN 323 INVESTING

Either semester 3 hours

Introductory course focusing on the process and instruments of investment. Emphasis on investment alternatives, techniques of security valuation and analysis, security market structure, and portfolio construction, management, and control. Prerequisite: ECFN 325. Offered on demand.

ECFN 325 PRINCIPLES OF FINANCE I

First semester 3 hours

This is the first of a two-semester survey/problem-solving course that presents the basic concepts and tools of contemporary managerial finance, as it relates to business; including the role of managerial finance, the financial market environment, financial statements and ratio analysis, cash flow and financial planning, the time value of money, interest rates, bond and stock valuation, and risk and return. Emphasis is placed on practical financial problem solving using financial formulas, a calculator, and Excel.

Prerequisite: ACCT 231.

ECFN 326 PRINCIPLES OF FINANCE II

Second semester 3 hours

The second of two introductory courses presenting the analytical tools of contemporary managerial finance. This second semester considers capital budgeting cash flows and techniques, the cost of capital, leverage and capital structure, dividend policy, working capital and current assets management, and current liabilities management. Prerequisite: ECFN 325.

ECFN 337 MONEY AND BANKING

Either semester 3 hours

This course considers the history of money and banking and the principles of commercial and central banking, with special emphasis on the pros and cons of centralized banking and fiat money. The course focuses on those monetary policy issues that enable students to understand relevant national economic policy debates. Emphasis is placed on the function of banks and the Fed, multiple deposit creation, the tools and conduct of monetary policy, and the impact of the money supply on inflation. Offered on demand. Prerequisite: ECFN 222.

ECFN 342 INTERMEDIATE FINANCE

Second semester 3 hours

A course providing more depth in the field of corporate finance. The study focuses on risk and return, the cost of capital, capital budgeting, capital structure, long- and short-term financial planning, and financial management for not-for-profit businesses. Prerequisite: ECFN 325 and MATH 211.

ECFN 346 HISTORY OF ECONOMIC THOUGHT

Either semester 3 hours

This course explores the history of economic ideas. It covers the main schools of economic thought: Mercantilist, Physiocratic, Classical, Marxist, Marginalist, Neoclassical, Keynesian, the German Historical School, Institutional, Austrian, the New Classical, Welfare, and Game Theory. Emphasis will be placed on the schools that have a free market focus as well as the ideas of America's founding fathers. Offered on demand.

ECFN 348 CAPITALISM

Either semester 3 hours

This course provides the student with an understanding of the rationale behind capitalism. As such, it is the study of the domestic and global creation and distribution of goods and services as guided by the price system. In addition, the impact of the microeconomic environment and technological changes on the behavior of business firms as well as consumer behavior in competitive and monopolistic markets will be examined. A study of changing and competitive industries in which the firm operates will also be of concern. Additional topics include domestic and global antitrust policy, pollution and competitive advantage firms. Offered on demand.

ECFN 439 MANAGERIAL ECONOMICS

First semester 3 hours

This course is an examination of the economic environment within which the manager of the business firm operates. It describes a systematic, logical way of analyzing business decisions that focus on the economic forces that shape both day-to-day decisions and long-run planning decisions. It applies microeconomic theory—the study of the behavior of individual economic agents—to business problems that will enable management to achieve the firm's goal—maximization of profit. The course will emphasize price determination, the theory of optimization, demand functions and forecasting, production and cost, and other economic issues for firms today. Prerequisites: MATH 211 and ECFN 221.

EDUCATION

EDUC 119 INTRODUCTION TO TEACHING

Both semesters 3 hours

The development and practice of classroom observational techniques and the introduction of basic lesson planning and presentation. An introduction to the knowledge and skills that promote good teaching, historic and current influences on education, and various philosophies of education. Practicum is required and provides early exposure to the world of teaching.

EDUC 223 METHODS FOR EARLY CHILDHOOD

EDUCATION

Second semester 2 hours

A review, evaluation, and practical application of methods of instruction and current educational media in early childhood education. Requires 15 clock hours of practicum. Prerequisite: EDUC 119.

EDUC 224 HUMAN LEARNING

Both semesters 3 hours

Designed to acquaint students with the various principles and theories of learning, behavior, and motivation, particularly as they relate to classroom teaching. Included in the study is an overview of the major schools of thought which have informed educational psychology including, cognitive theory, developmental theory, behaviorism, and constructivism. Student traits and exceptionalities, group behavior management, and differentiated instruction will be examined in the course. Prerequisite: EDUC 119.

EDUC 226 CLASSROOM MANAGEMENT

Both semesters 2 hours

This course will explore all facets of classroom management including: planning, procedures, physical environment, discipline, assessment, grades and records. It is designed to prepare the classroom teacher to organize and manage the class smoothly in order enhance the teaching learning process and prevent unnecessary disruptions. Prerequisite: EDUC 119.

EDUC 311 INSTRUCTIONAL TECHNOLOGY

Both semesters 3 hours

Designed to introduce the prospective classroom teacher to the multimedia equipment and software of the model modern classroom. Students will learn about equipment assembly, operations and maintenance and various computer operation systems. Also, included will be exercises using popular productivity software packages. Educational software titles from both the primary and secondary levels will be reviewed along with the exploration and use of the Internet.

EDUC 323 TESTS AND MEASUREMENTS

First semester 2 hours

Basic descriptive statistics related to classroom and standardized test scores; techniques of evaluation and grading; types of standardized tests, principles of test construction, item analysis, validity, and reliability; test criticisms and analyses; and guidance functions. Prerequisite: EDUC 119.

EDUC 324 EXCEPTIONAL CHILDREN

Second semester 2 hours

Survey of the field of special education with major emphasis on individual differences and strategies in adapting educational programs for intellectually disabled, emotionally disturbed, learning disabled, gifted, visually impaired, auditory impaired, autistic, and neurologically and orthopedically handicapped students. Prerequisite: EDUC 119.

EDUC 331 METHODS OF TEACHING READING

Second semester 3 hours

A study of the reading process, factors involved in the acquisition of reading skill, methods and materials for reading instruction remediation, and consideration of current issues in the field. A particular focus of the course will involve procedures for meeting individual needs of all children in the classroom, including those mainstreamed. Requires 15 clock hours of practicum for all elementary endorsements. Prerequisite: EDUC 119.

EDUC 338 UNIVERSAL TEACHING METHODS

Both semesters 3 hours

A study of the aims, content, methodology, and procedures for planning and delivering instruction in the elementary and secondary grades. Each student will be able to concentrate on his or her major teaching area. Prerequisite: EDUC 119.

EDUC 340 CURRICULUM DESIGN

Both semesters 2 hours

A study of the theory and practical application of curriculum development and related methods with technical emphases on systematic interaction, administrative and organizational systems, and the role of the teaching faculty, grades K-12. Prerequisite: EDUC 119.

EDUC 341 METHODS OF TEACHING MATHEMATICS

First semester 2 hours

A study of instructional techniques, student activities, and material needed to teach mathematical concepts and skills to children in grades K-12. Topics will include pre-number concepts, counting, basic arithmetic of whole numbers and rational numbers, number theory, geometry, and measurement.

EDUC 343 METHODS OF TEACHING LANGUAGE ARTS

Second semester 3 hours

An introduction to the basic aims, problems, and materials in teaching Language Arts in school. Offered alternate years. Prerequisite: ENG 110 or 111.

EDUC 345 METHODS OF TEACHING SOCIAL STUDIES

First semester 2 hours

This course is a survey of methods for teaching in all of the disciplines of the social studies. The course will also cover both the curricular and instructional characteristics of the State Standards for teaching social studies in Tennessee public schools. Prerequisite: EDUC 119.

EDUC 400 ADVANCED RESEARCH

Either semester 3 hours

Provides the academically gifted student with research skills useful in the pursuit of graduate work. Must comply with FDC guidelines.

EDUC 420 PHILOSOPHY OF EDUCATION

Both semesters 2 hours

A survey of the various ideologies used as guidelines in the development of institutionalized education over the centuries from a Christian perspective. The intellectual foundations of the various ideologies are examined in terms of both their assumptions and implications. Prerequisite: EDUC 119.

EDUC 430 CHILDREN'S LITERATURE

Second semester 3 hours

An introduction to children's literature, children's interests in reading, and the place of supplementary reading in the elementary curriculum. Prerequisite: ENG 110 or 111.

EDUC 440 EDUCATION CAPSTONE

Both semesters 2 hours

A seminar class in which students deal with the active and ongoing issues of student teaching through reflection, discussion, and review of teaching and classroom management principles. Students will review, research, and rethink all the components of successful teaching in light of their field based experiences. To be taken in conjunction with Observation and Student Teaching.

EDUC 441 OBSERVATION AND STUDENT TEACHING IN ELEMENTARY EDUCATION

EDUC 442 OBSERVATION AND STUDENT TEACHING IN SECONDARY EDUCATION

EDUC 443 OBSERVATION AND STUDENT TEACHING IN K-12 EDUCATION

Both semesters 12 hours

Observation and teaching under the joint supervision of a qualified school classroom teacher and a member of the education department faculty. Open only to students who have senior standing, are fully qualified as prospective graduates, have completed the required preliminary courses, and have been approved by the Teacher Education Committee. Requires 15 weeks of classroom observation and teaching in 2 settings.

ENGINEERING

EGR 121 INTRODUCTION TO ENGINEERING

First semester 2 hours

An introduction to the engineering profession. The course will introduce students to the profession through involvement in solving problems in a project team approach as well as individual study. The course will also cover engineering in society, ethics, the importance of mathematics and communication. Engineering Course fee.

EGR 124 INTRODUCTION TO DESIGN

Second semester 3 hours

An introduction to the artistic aspect of engineering from Christian worldview with emphasis on developing creativity and artistic expression in engineering design. Students will gain knowledge and appreciation for the works of historic and modern artists/engineers. Principles of manual engineering graphical design as well as computer aided design will be introduced. Engineering Course fee.

EGR 222 CIRCUITS AND INSTRUMENTATION

Second semester 3 hours

DC and AC circuit analysis, network theorems, Kirchoff's Laws, topology, and computer aided techniques. Emphasis will be on analog and linear circuit theory and devices. Design of digital circuits with digital integrated circuit components and microcontrollers. Apply, program, and synthesize microcontroller circuits to simplify sequential circuits and complex control logic. Prerequisite: PHYS 242 or 246. Engineering Course fee.

EGR 223 STATICS

First semester 4 hours

Introduction to engineering mechanics, including the analysis of 2D and 3D force systems, pin-connected structures, trusses, frames and machines. Statics of particles and rigid bodies. Equivalent force-couple systems and equilibrium in 2D and 3D. Centroids and area moment of inertia. Introduction to friction. Lecture, 3 hours; Lab, 3 hours. Prerequisite: PHYS 245. Engineering Course fee.

EGR 224 DYNAMICS

Second semester 3 hours

Introduction to kinematics and kinetics of systems of particles and rigid bodies. Applying equations of motion, work and energy, impulse and momentum to engineering problem solving. Prerequisite: EGR 223. Engineering Course fee.

EGR 225 ENGINEERING ECONOMICS

First semester 2 hours

Application of economic and financial principles to capital investment of engineers. Analysis by present worth, annual cash flow, rate of return, benefit-cost, and replacement considerations. An understanding of depreciation, taxes, inflation, probability and risk, and evaluation of optimum use of resources.

EGR 226 MECHANICS OF MATERIALS

Second semester 4 hours

Introduction to stress and strain, bending, torsion, direct stress and transverse shear in beams; curved members; thin-walled members; combined stresses; experimental stress analysis using strain gauges; theories of failure; deflection of beams; statically indeterminate problems; elastic stability of columns. Lecture, 3 hours; Lab, 3 hours. Engineering Course fee. Prerequisite: EGR 223.

EGR 321 DESIGN OF EXPERIMENTS

First semester 3 hours

Introduction to statistical design of experiments techniques for engineering problem solving. Topics will include: introduction to experiments, completely randomized designs, blocking designs, full factorial designs with two levels, fractional designs with two levels and response surface designs. Prerequisite: MATH 211. Engineering Course fee.

EGR 322 FLUID MECHANICS

Second semester 4 hours

The study of fluid properties and hydrostatics. Open channel flow, compressible flow, pipe flow and pipe networks, pumps and turbo machinery, boundary layers, dimensional analysis, similitude, lift and drag. Prerequisite: EGR 224 and MATH 326. Engineering Course fee.

EGR 323 THERMODYNAMICS

First semester 4 hours

Application of first and second laws of thermodynamics. Work, heat, thermodynamic properties of pure substances. Introduction to refrigeration and power cycles. Lecture, 3 hours; Lab, 3 hours. Prerequisite: PHYS 245. Engineering Course fee.

EGR 331 DATA VISUALIZATION

Either semester 3 hours

Students are introduced to some of the key computational techniques and visualization methods used in modeling and simulation of real-world phenomena, including error analysis, matrices and linear systems, and identifying bias and data errors. Students will also be introduced to a data computation system, such as MATLAB or R. Cross-listed as CSCI 331.

EGR 341 ADVANCED COMPUTER AIDED DESIGN

Either semester 1 hour

Use of parametric, solid modeling design software with emphasis on advanced part and assembly modeling techniques. Case studies and lessons are taken from industrial applications. Prerequisite: EGR 124. Engineering Course fee.

EGR 342 INTRODUCTION TO MAKERSPACE

Either semester 1 hour

Introduction to rapid prototyping using materials and equipment accessible in the Makerspace. Hands-on training with emphasis on safely operating the CNC mill & lathe, chop saws, grinders and other tools, which may include welding. Lab, 3 hours. Prerequisite: EGR 124. Engineering Course fee.

EGR 347 ENGINEERING PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

First semester 1 hour

This course will prepare students for the engineering internship process. Students will be introduced to standards of professionalism in resume and cover letter writing, interview preparation as well as potential internship opportunities. Additionally, the class will cover best practices to prepare students for a productive internship experience. Topics may include leadership, safety, social media, and working together in a team environment.

EGR 422 HEAT TRANSFER

Second semester 3 hours

Introduction to heat transfer by conduction, convection, and radiation. Applications to heat exchanges, ducts & pipes, surfaces, phase exchanges, and mass transfer. Application of dimensional analysis and numerical methods for solving heat transfer problems. Design of equipment involving heat-transfer processes. Prerequisite: EGR 323 and MATH 326. Engineering Course fee.

EGR 424 ENGINEERING ETHICS

Second semester 3 hours

Analysis of the engineering professional code of conduct. Christian ethics applied to engineering, discussion of case histories of ethical problems in engineering. Cross-listed as PHIL 424. Prerequisite: EGR 121.

EGR 491 CAPSTONE SENIOR DESIGN I

First semester 2 hours

Research and development of projects derived from industry sources or realistic integrated design problems. Projects may be undertaken by individuals or teams. Projects may be interdisciplinary or specific to an area of concentration. Prerequisite: Senior standing. Engineering Course fee.

EGR 492 CAPSTONE SENIOR DESIGN II

Second semester 4 hours

Design and Fabrication of projects researched in Capstone Design I. Projects may be undertaken by individuals or teams. Projects may be interdisciplinary or specific to an area of concentration. Prerequisite: EGR 491. Engineering Course fee.

ENGINEERING – CIVILEGCI 321 GEOMATICS ENGINEERING

First semester 3 hours

Students will conduct field measurements of distance, elevation, and angles using various instruments including tape, automatic level, and total station. Topics include types of surveying, legal aspects, and error analysis. Prerequisite: EGR 223. Engineering Course fee.

EGCI 322 TRANSPORTATION ENGINEERING

Second semester 3 hours

Introduction to the primary modes of transportation. Main emphasis on planning, design, and operation of roadways, including traffic flow theory, highway capacity, traffic control, geometry, drainage, and design of pavements. Prerequisite: EGCI 321

EGCI 323 STRUCTURAL ANALYSIS

First semester 3 hours

Students will construct shear and moment diagrams and influence lines in structural systems models and perform analyses of statically determinate and indeterminate trusses and frames using virtual work, moment distribution, and matrix methods. Prerequisite: EGR 223. Engineering Course fee.

EGCI 421 ENGINEERING PROJECT MANAGEMENT

First semester 3 hours

This course focuses on applying the principles of project management in engineering. Topics include: project planning, budgeting, scheduling, estimating as well as construction management and contract administration. There will be significant hands-on exposure to “real-world” engineering projects. Prerequisite: EGR 223.

EGCI 422 DESIGN OF CONCRETE & STEEL SYSTEMS

Second semester 3 hours

Students will design reinforced concrete beams, columns, frames, and slabs using the strength method with concentration on use of the ACI 318 Code. Students will be introduced to the design of structural steel beams, columns, tension members, frames, trusses, and connections (bolted and welded) using the load and resistance factor design (LRFD) method with concentration on AISC specifications and manuals. The course will include design software applications and a practical design project. Prerequisite: EGCI 323. Engineering Course fee.

EGCI 424 ENVIRONMENTAL ENGINEERING

Second semester 3 hours

Management of the environment by means of engineered solutions. Introduction to water pollution, air pollution, hazardous and solid wastes, and their control, including water and wastewater treatment processes, environmental impact statements, and environmental laws. Prerequisite: CHEM 131. Engineering Course fee.

EGCI 426 GEOTECHNICAL ENGINEERING

Second semester 3 hours

Students will study physical and chemical properties of soils and subsurface structures with a focus on mechanics of aggregations applied to earthwork and foundations design. Prerequisite: EGR 223. Engineering Course fee.

EGCI 428 HYDROLOGY

Either semester 3 hours

Water supply and sewer systems, reservoirs, wells, water transmission and distribution, sanitary sewers, storm sewers, flooding and flood control. Practical design projects. Instructor approval required. Engineering Course fee.

ENGINEERING - MECHANICALEGME 321 ENGINEERING MATERIALS

First semester 3 hours

An introduction to the science of engineering materials. Engineering properties of materials - mechanical, electrical, and chemical - are closely linked to the underlying solid state and molecular structure. Chemistry relating to various aspects of design including phase change, solution theory, acid-base solutions, and chemical equilibrium is presented. The processes by which these materials are produced and manufactured is also presented. Other topics include atomic bonding, crystal lattices, dislocation theory, phase diagrams, heat treatment, ferrous and non-ferrous alloys, ceramics and glasses, polymers and composites. Prerequisite: CHEM 131 and EGR 226. Engineering Course fee.

EGME 323 MANUFACTURING ENGINEERING

First semester 3 hours

Introduction to both traditional and modern manufacturing engineering. Traditional manufacturing topics include machining, stamping, forming (plastics and metal), casting, metrology, etc. Modern manufacturing topics include Computer Numerical Control, Flexible Manufacturing Systems, robotics, CAD/CAM/CIM, nano-fabrication, etc. Hands-on projects/labs and/or plant tours included. Prerequisite: EGR 226. Engineering Course fee.

EGME 421 MECHANICAL VIBRATIONS

First semester 3 hours

Introduction to the modeling, analysis and design of mechanical vibrating systems. Study of damping and its effects on vibration. Topics include steady state and transient analysis of systems with a single or multiple degrees of freedom, free, harmonic and forced responses of such systems, Laplace transform, and stability. Prerequisite: EGR 224 and MATH 326 (or concurrent enrollment). Engineering Course fee.

EGME 422 KINEMATICS & ROBOTICS

Second semester 3 hours

A study of displacement, velocity, and acceleration analysis of linkage and cam mechanisms by graphical and analytical methods. Topics include synthesis of mechanisms such as the slider-crank and four-bar linkage, gears and gear trains, and the kinematics and inverse kinematics of robotics. Prerequisite: EGR 224 and MATH 326. Engineering Course fee.

EGME 423 QUALITY ENGINEERING

First semester 3 hours

Introduction to traditional quality engineering topics such as statistical quality control (control charts, acceptance sampling, process capability analysis, design of experiments), total quality management, lean manufacturing, six-sigma concepts and practices, measurement, detection, reduction, elimination, and prevention of quality deficiencies. Includes the Taguchi method and its application to engineering design. Prerequisite: MATH 211.

EGME 424 MACHINE COMPONENT DESIGN

Second semester 3 hours

Application of statistical concepts, reliability, factor of safety, fatigue, and wear failure to machine designs. Applications to the design of shafting, bearings, gears, springs, and fasteners. Design optimization. Prerequisite: EGR 226. Engineering Course fee.

EGME 425 FRACTURE OF MATERIALS

Either semester 3 hours

Advanced study of the failure and fracture of materials under applied stress: yield and fracture criteria under combined loading; an introduction to linear-elastic fracture mechanics; stress- and strain-based fatigue analysis; creep failure mechanisms and life estimates; and environmentally assisted cracking. Prerequisite: EGR 226 and MATH 222. Engineering Course fee.

ENGINEERING TECHNOLOGY MANAGEMENT

TECHNOLOGY - STATICS

Either semester 3 hours

Introduction to non-calculus based engineering mechanics, including the analysis of 2D and 3D force systems, pin-connected structures, trusses, frames and machines. Statics of particles and rigid bodies. Equivalent force-couple systems and equilibrium in 2D and 3D. Centroids and area moment of inertia. Introduction to friction. Practical hands-on labs/projects. Prerequisite: PHYS 241 or PHYS 245. Engineering Course fee.

TECHNOLOGY – STRENGTH OF MATERIALS

Either semester 5 hours

Introduction to stress and strain, axial load, torsion, transverse shear; bending, thin-walled members; combined loading; experimental stress analysis using strain gauges and other practical hands-on labs/projects. Prerequisite: EGTM 221 or EGR 223. Engineering Course fee.

ENGLISH

ENG 109 COLLEGE WRITING I

First semester 3 hours

This course focuses on writing in a variety of rhetorical modes including exposition, argument, and an introduction to research skills. Students will write at least four major essays and complete a number of informal writing assignments. At least one major essay involves a literary work. Students enrolled in the ENG 109-110 sequence may not enroll in ENG 111.

ENG 110 COLLEGE WRITING II

Second semester 3 hours

This course focuses on source-based writing, research writing, and literary analysis. Students will write at least four major essays and complete a number of informal writing assignments. Major essays include a research paper on a current topic and an analytical essay on a major work of literature. Prerequisite: ENG 109. ENG 110 is prerequisite for ENG 211. Students enrolled in the ENG 109-110 sequence may not enroll in ENG 111.

ENG 111 FRESHMAN ENGLISH

Each semester 3 hours

This course combines the content of ENG 109 and ENG 110 in a single semester. It focuses on critical thinking, expository writing, research writing, and revising. Students will write a number of essays, at least one of which involves a literary work, learning the skills required for a variety of writing modes. Placement in this course requires a score of 21 or higher on the ACT English OR a score of 530 or higher on the SAT Evidence Based Reading & Writing OR a score of 68 or higher on the CLT. ENG 111 is prerequisite for ENG 211. Credit cannot be earned for both ENG 110 and 111.

ENG 115 INTRODUCTION TO THE WESTERN LITERARY CANON

3 hours

A study of the development of the Western Canon from Beowulf through Gerard Manley Hopkins. Special emphasis is given to major writers, including Chaucer, Shakespeare, Milton, Pope, Dryden, and Hopkins, among others. Does not apply to English major nor substitute for ENG 211. (This course is typically offered only in conjunction with Summit Ministries, Manitou Springs, Colorado.)

ENG 211 INTRODUCTION TO LITERATURE

Each semester 3 hours

An introduction to the basic terms and genres of literature with emphasis on English and American works as models, and a continuation of the writing instruction of ENG 110/111, with emphasis on critical thinking and further instruction in research writing. This course serves as an introduction to the study of Hebrew. The course emphasizes developing skills, competence in vocalizing Hebrew and the use of Hebrew in personal Bible study.
Prerequisite: HEB 111.

HEB 390 ADVANCED TOPICS IN HEBREW

Either semester 3 hours

An upper level Hebrew reading course covering a major portion of the Hebrew Old Testament. The student will translate an assigned section of Old Testament Hebrew and be trained to understand its grammar, vocabulary and sentence structure. May be taken for up to 12 credits. Offered on demand. Prerequisite: HEB 112.

HISTORY

HIS 111 HISTORY OF WESTERN CIVILIZATION I

First semester 3 hours

A survey course studying ancient and medieval Western civilization to 1660 with an emphasis on political, religious, and cultural history. Credit may not be earned for both HIS 111 and HIS 211.

HIS 112 HISTORY OF WESTERN CIVILIZATION II

Second semester 3 hours

A survey course studying early modern and modern Western civilization from 1660 to the present, with an emphasis on political, religious, and cultural history. Credit may not be earned for both HIS 112 and HIS 212.

HIS 211 HISTORY OF WESTERN THOUGHT & CULTURE I

First semester 3 hours

This course will introduce students to significant features of Western thought and culture from ancient civilizations to the beginning early modern period (end of 16th century), including the rise and development of the Christian church. Philosophy, religious and intellectual development, and cultural analysis are brought to bear to render an introductory examination of the development of Western history, thought, and culture from the ancient to the early modern periods. Credit may not be earned for both HIS 111 and HIS 211.

HIS 212 HISTORY OF WESTERN THOUGHT & CULTURE II

Second semester 3 hours

This course will introduce students to significant features of Western thought and culture from the early modern period (end of 16th century) up to the present day, including key developments in the Christian tradition. Philosophy, religious and intellectual development, and cultural analysis are brought to bear to render an introductory examination of the development of Western history, thought, and culture from the early modern period up to the present day. Credit may not be earned for both HIS 112 and HIS 212.

HIS 220 HISTORICAL WRITING

First semester 3 hours

This course introduces students to the process of writing the most common kinds of humanities-based research essays and papers, to the ethical and historical issues of historical writing, and to the study of history. Prerequisite: ENG 110 or 111 and a 100/200 level history survey course. Does not satisfy the core history survey requirement.

HIS 221 HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES I

First semester 3 hours

A survey course that focuses on the political, military, social, economic, and religious history of the United States from the eve of colonization through Reconstruction.

HIS 222 HISTORY OF THE UNITED STATES II

Second semester 3 hours

A survey course that focuses on the political, military, social, economic, and religious history of the United States from Reconstruction to the present.

HIS 321 EARLY MODERN EUROPE

First semester 3 hours

A study of economic, political, religious, and social trends in European society from 1350-1815. Offered on demand.

HIS 322 MODERN EUROPE

Second semester 3 hours

A study of economic, political, religious, and social trends in European society from 1815 through 1960. Offered on demand.

HIS 323 HISTORY OF ENGLAND

Either semester 3 hours

This course explores the political, social, economic, and cultural history of England from its Roman occupation to the present day. Offered on demand.

HIS 324 HISTORY OF THE COLD WAR

Either semester 3 hours

This course will focus exclusively on the Cold War from its origins in the early twentieth century to the fall of the Berlin Wall and the dismemberment of the Soviet Union. Offered on demand.

HIS 325 HISTORY OF MODERN VIETNAM

Either semester 3 hours

A description and analysis of the history of modern Vietnam and its interaction with the outside world. Offered on demand.

HIS 326 AMERICAN RELIGIOUS HISTORY

Either semester 3 hours

A broad overview of the history of American religion with particular emphasis on various individuals and denominations related to the topic. Can be used as an historical theology elective. Offered on demand.

HIS 327 HISTORY OF FREE MARKET THOUGHT

Either semester 3 hours

This course is a reading and discussion course designed to delve into the issue of the history of free market thought and its application. Offered on demand.

HIS 332 MEDIEVAL EUROPE

Second semester 3 hours

The social, cultural, political, and religious development of Europe from the decline of Rome to the close of the fifteenth century. Offered on demand.

HIS 334 HISTORY OF THE REFORMATION

Either semester 3 hours

Political, cultural, social, and economic history of the period of Protestant and Catholic reformations. Offered on demand.

HIS 336 NON-WESTERN CIVILIZATIONS

Either semester 3 hours

This course comprises a wide historical discussion, exploring the social, political, and religious factors of specifically non-Western cultures. Offered on demand.

HIS 339 THE HISTORICAL IMAGINATION

Either semester 3 hours

This course will unravel the tensions and contradictions inherent in the historical imagination in order to reflect on more fundamentally theoretical issues related to cultural representations of the past (such as novels, artwork, and films) and its relation to academic history. Offered on demand.

HIS 341 TWENTIETH CENTURY AMERICA

Either semester 3 hours

An in-depth analysis of the people, trends, events, and ideas impacting the U.S. in the twentieth century. Offered on demand.

HIS 343 AMERICAN CIVIL WAR

Either semester 3 hours

A thorough study of the causes, conduct, and results of the American Civil War. Offered on demand.

HIS 345 HISTORY & TRADITIONS OF CHRISTIANITY

First semester 3 hours

This course explores the historical developments of the Christian faith with an emphasis on key movements, moments, figures, and shifts that have continuing implications for the church today. Special attention is paid to the emergence and formation of diverse Christian traditions. Cross-listed with CT 345. Offered alternate years.

HIS 348 READINGS IN AMERICAN HISTORY

Either semester 3 hours

This course is a reading and discussion course designed to delve into various topics on American history. Offered on demand.

HIS 357 HISTORY OF AFRICA

Either semester 3 hours

This course deals with the history of the continent of Africa, with special reference to the impact of geography and resources, the impact of political and religious ideologies, and the importance of non-written sources of history.

HIS 398 WORLD WAR II

Second semester 3 hours

An analysis and description of World War II. Explores the military, diplomatic, political, technological, and social elements which influenced the war and its outcomes.

HIS 475 HISTORY TEACHING ASSISTANTSHIP

Either semester 3 hours

This course is designed to give history majors an opportunity to gain supplemental teaching and mentoring skills in an applied setting by working with a history professor inside and outside the classroom. Responsibilities would include, but are not be limited to, leading study groups for tests and quizzes, facilitating small group work in and out of the classroom, and recording of grades, and other duties as assigned by the instructor. Approval of instructor required. Prerequisite: HIS 220.

HIS 476 HISTORY INTERNSHIP

Either semester 1-3 hours

The History Internship is an elective opportunity that should be viewed as an enhancing and enriching experience. One that will assist the student in determining a career vocation following college. The internship is selected by the student in consultation with the History professors; the day-to-day supervision for this applied learning experience is on-site, with departmental supervisory assistance rendered as needed. Requires 50 clock hours for each credit. Prerequisite: HIS 220 and approval of instructor.

HIS 492 SENIOR SEMINAR IN HISTORY

Second semester 3 hours

A research and writing course for seniors which emphasizes scholarly methods of historical research and writing, which, in the end, results in the production of a senior thesis. Prerequisite: Acceptance by history department faculty as history major and HIS 220.

HONORS

HNR 111 INTRODUCTION TO HONORS

First semester 2 hours

This course is required of all entering Honors Institute students and serves as a foundation for the Bryan College Honors Institute. Students will examine the various components of a holistic sublime life from a Christian perspective. Students will critically examine how we look at our relationships with God, ourselves, each other, and the world around us; students will be encouraged to determine how to live an outstanding life in the spiritual, intellectual, and moral realms.

HNR 411 HONORS SENIOR CAPSTONE

Either semester 1 hour

The thesis or project allows for in-depth research in the student's major area of study. This course must be taken in conjunction with an upper-level course in the major area of study. Offered on demand.

LIBERAL ARTS

LA 101 GREAT BOOKS OF THE ANCIENT WORLD

Either semester 3 hours

The course will examine some of the influential works from the ancient world, particularly from Greece and Israel (c. 8th century BC to 100 BC). Students will be encouraged to critically examine these works from a biblical perspective, discussing, debating, and evaluating the validity of the authors' ideas and ethics.

LA 102 GREAT BOOKS OF CHRISTENDOM

Either semester 3 hours

The course will examine some of the influential works of Rome, early and medieval Christendom, and Islam (c. AD 70 to AD 1000). Students will be encouraged to critically examine these works from a biblical perspective, discussing, debating, and evaluating the validity of the authors' ideas and ethics.

LA 105 BIBLE, ART, AND CULTURE: OLD TESTAMENT

3 hours

This course surveys the wide range of the Christian Bible's cultural impact, with particular focus on the Old Testament. The Bible's influence on civilization, politics, literature, and art are all considered and analyzed, deepening student understanding of historical and cultural development. Normally only offered in conjunction with an educational partner for dual enrolled high school students.

LA 106 BIBLE, ART, AND CULTURE: NEW TESTAMENT

3 hours

This course surveys the wide range of the Christian Bible's cultural impact, with particular focus on the New Testament. The Bible's influence on civilization, politics, literature, and art are all considered and analyzed, deepening student understanding of historical and cultural development. Normally only offered in conjunction with an educational partner for dual enrolled high school students.

LA 201 GREAT BOOKS OF THE RENAISSANCE & REFORMATION

Either semester 3 hours

The course will examine some of the influential works from the Renaissance and Reformation (c. 14th century to 17th century). Students will be encouraged to critically examine these works from a biblical perspective, discussing, debating, and evaluating the validity of the authors' ideas and ethics.

LA 202 GREAT BOOKS OF THE MODERN ERA

Either semester 3 hours

The course will examine some of the influential works of the Modern World (late 17th century to 20th century). Students will be encouraged to critically examine these works from a biblical perspective, discussing, debating, and evaluating the validity of the authors' ideas and ethics.

LA 222 EXPLORING THE LIBERAL ARTS

Either semester 1 hour

A course exploring the history and vision of the liberal arts. Students will read primary and secondary texts on the subject in order to develop an understanding of its concepts and applications.

LA 292 LIBERAL ARTS RESEARCH

Second semester 3 hours

Special studies in selected topics pertinent to the arts and sciences. Includes researching and writing a major paper to evaluate historical or contemporary topics. Open only to second year students pursuing an Associate of Arts degree in Liberal Arts.

MANAGEMENT

MGT 237 PRINCIPLES OF MANAGEMENT

Second semester 3 hours

A survey of management theory and practice with emphasis on the functional and task requirements of management. Specific topics include decision making, time management, planning, organizing, directing, motivating, and controlling.

MGT 322 SOCIAL ENTERPRISE

Either semester 3 hours

Introduces the breadth and depth of Social Entrepreneurship and Business as Mission. Topics include the definition, differences, types, effectiveness and Biblical basis. The course requires building a proposal for a new venture that will address a specific social problem. Offered on demand.

MGT 327 HUMAN RESOURCE MANAGEMENT

Either semester 3 hours

This course is an introductory study of the management of employees within an organization. The focus is on the selection, training, placement, promotion, appraisal, pay incentives, and laws affecting personnel management. It also addresses the organization and administration of a personnel department. Offered on demand.

MGT 329 PROJECT MANAGEMENT

Either semester 3 hours

Introduces the fundamental practices needed to achieve organizational results and excellence in the practice of project management. Topics include project quality, scope, time, cost, human resources, communication, risk, procurement, and stakeholder management. Completion of the course will qualify students to take the Certified Associate in Project Management (CAPM) ® examination. Additional course fee required. Prerequisite: MGT 237. Offered on demand.

MGT 333 BUSINESS ANALYTICS

Either semester 3 hours

This course will concentrate on case-based research techniques for problem solving, optimization of data, business modeling using statistical concepts in industry standard software, and the presentation of the analysis. The course includes the practical application of quantitative analytical techniques and data analysis. Prerequisite: BUS 111 and MATH 211. Offered on demand.

MGT 341 EMPLOYEE SELECTION

Either semester 3 hours

Development and implementation of effective employee selection programs is a critical component in an organization's success. As part of the process of selection, this course will examine the differences between staffing and selection, recruitment, predictors of job performance, and measurements.

MGT 342 EMPLOYEE BENEFITS

Either semester 3 hours

An understanding of employee benefits programs and how they relate to human resource management and total rewards is important for managers who deal with human resource issues on a daily basis. This course will seek to strike a balance between academic thought and practical benefit administration examples providing students with a solid foundation for dealing with employee benefit issues and laws affecting benefits.

MGT 343 NEW VENTURE STUDIES

Either semester 3 hours

A study of the start-up of new businesses. Emphasizing entrepreneurship and small business management. Consideration will be given to the necessary skills and resources needed to attain short- and long-term success in a new venture. Ethical considerations of idea use, funding, and resource acquisition. Prerequisites: ACCT 232, MGT 237, and MKT 243. Offered on demand.

MGT 346 ORGANIZATIONAL BEHAVIOR

Either semester 3 hours

The nature and consequences of human behavior in work organizations; contemporary models of organizational design, work structuring, motivation and performance, group and intergroup behavior; planned change. Prerequisite: MGT 237. Offered on demand.

MGT 347 PERFORMANCE MANAGEMENT

Either semester 3 hours

In today's organization it is essential to establish systems and measures that develop motivated and productive employees. This course will explore how to get top employee performance by working toward a cooperative work environment and through goals-focused planning and appraisals.

MGT 415 PRODUCTION AND OPERATIONS MANAGEMENT

First semester 3 hours

An introduction to the management of the operations/production system. An understanding of the operational practices and functions used to obtain optimal utilization of production factors and business resources with emphasis on quantitative analysis in planning, controlling, and decision-making. Focuses on types of production systems, forecasting, allocating resources, designing products and services, and assuring quality. The scope of this course includes applications for manufacturing and non-manufacturing organizations. Prerequisites: MGT 237 and MATH 115 or higher.

MGT 424 MANAGEMENT INFORMATION SYSTEMS

First semester 3 hours

A study of the fundamentals of computer information systems that integrates a perspective of how managers develop, operate, and control such systems. The course is designed to prepare students to be competent partners with systems analysts and programmers in the evaluation and development of information systems applications. Prerequisite: MGT 237. Offered alternate years.

MGT 441 LEADERSHIP AND MANAGING CHANGE

Either semester 3 hours

This course explores leadership traits, styles, roles and responsibilities of successful leaders over time. This course seeks to determine the students' individual leadership style and to promote the development of the servant leadership approach modeled by Christ. The course also deals with the practical issues of leading organizations through change and managing the day-to-day aspects of organizational change. Prerequisite: MGT 237. Offered on demand.

MGT 492 POLICY AND STRATEGY

Second semester 3 hours

The capstone course of the business program, developing a comprehensive management perspective, emphasizing policy and strategy formulation and implementation in handling multi-functional business problems, and integrating these disciplines with a Christian business ethic. Open only to senior business majors.

MARKETING

MKT 243 PRINCIPLES OF MARKETING

First semester 3 hours

An introduction to marketing in relation to the business environment; involves a study from the conception of the idea for a good or service to its utilization by the consumer with emphasis on major decision areas (product, place, price, and promotion) and tools.

MKT 321 BUYER BEHAVIOR

Either semester 3 hours

An overview of consumer behavior in the market place. Emphasis is placed on the consumer consumption process from purchase, to use, to disposal of goods, services, and experiences. This course applies concepts from the social sciences in order to understand consumer decision making, buyer behavior, and consumer research. Offered on demand. Prerequisite: MKT 243.

MKT 329 ADVERTISING & PROMOTION

Either semester 3 hours

An overview of advertising and promotion presented from an integrated marketing perspective. This course focuses on coordinating all elements of the promotion mix to develop an effective communication strategy. A basic understanding of the traditional advertising and promotional tools and their integration with marketing communications will be covered. Offered on demand. Prerequisite: MKT 243.

MKT 421 MARKETING RESEARCH & DECISION MAKING

First semester 3 hours

This course explores marketing research in the context of making business decisions. The topics in this course include defining research objectives, selecting appropriate research techniques, defining the problem statement, selecting and planning the basic research methods, designing a sample, collecting data, editing data, and interpreting findings. Prerequisites: MATH 211 and MKT 243.

MKT 422 APPLIED MARKETING INNOVATION

Either semester 3 hours

This course integrates concepts from marketing strategy to focus on creating value and growth through innovation in new and existing markets. Marketing strategy concepts will be studied and tactical details will be evaluated through real life business situations, case studies, and interactive scenarios. Students will apply innovation methods in the determination of general marketing strategy, segmentation, targeting, positioning, and product mix decision. Offered on demand. Prerequisite: MKT 243.

MKT 423 DIGITAL MARKETING

Second semester 3 hours

A survey of current strategies and techniques in digital marketing and new media. Prerequisite: MKT 243.

MKT 424 SPORTS MARKETING

Either semester 3 hours

Examines various aspects of sport marketing with emphasis on intercollegiate athletics, professional sport and multi-sport club operations. This course provides students with an understanding of marketing concepts as they are currently being applied in various sport managements contexts. Offered on demand. Prerequisite: MKT 243.

MATHEMATICS

MATH 115 COLLEGE ALGEBRA

Either semester 3 hours

A college level course covering operations of real numbers, first and second degree equations, inequalities, linear functions, systems of equations, operations on polynomials, rational expressions and exponents, ratio and proportion, radicals and quadratic equations, and exponential and logarithmic functions. There is an emphasis placed on real-world applications to business and the sciences. Credit may not be earned for both MATH 115 and MATH 117. Satisfactory test scores (ACT Math of 22 or higher; SAT Math of 530 or higher) are highly recommended prior to enrolling.

MATH 116 CONTEMPORARY MATHEMATICS

Either semester 3 hours

Intended for students majoring in liberal arts disciplines not requiring additional study in mathematics. Designed to stimulate mathematical thinking by looking at areas of mathematics not usually encountered in the high school curriculum with an emphasis on their applications in real life. Topics include geometry, applications of exponents and logarithms, probability, and statistics. Satisfactory test scores (ACT Math of 22 or higher; SAT Math of 530 or higher) are highly recommended prior to enrolling.

MATH 117 PRECALCULUS

First semester 4 hours

Properties of real numbers and complex numbers; coordinate geometry; properties of relations and functions, including polynomial and rational functions, exponential and logarithmic functions, and trigonometric functions. Includes computer lab once each week. Open to degree seeking college students (assumed proficiency with high school level Algebra I, II and Geometry). Prerequisite: Passing score on placement test; or ACT Math of 22 or higher; or SAT Math of 530 or higher. Credit may not be earned for both MATH 115 and MATH 117.

MATH 122 CALCULUS I

Either semester 4 hours

Functions and graphs; differentiation and antidifferentiation of algebraic, exponential, and trigonometric functions; introduction to differential equations; applications. Includes computer lab once each week. Prerequisite: MATH 117.

MATH 132 INTRODUCTION TO LOGIC & PROOF

Second semester 3 hours

Introduction to formal logic, sets, relations and functions, algorithms, recursion, number bases, mathematical proofs, methods of proof, and bijections. Does not meet core curriculum math requirement.

MATH 211 ELEMENTARY STATISTICS

Either semester 3 hours

An introduction to the subjects of probability and statistics. A partial listing of topics includes collection and presentation of data, computation and use of averages, measurements of dispersion, introduction to statistical inference, hypothesis testing, regression, correlation, and chi-square tests. Open to degree seeking college students. Satisfactory test scores (ACT Math of 22 or higher; SAT Math of 530 or higher) are highly recommended prior to enrolling.

MATH 221 CALCULUS II

Either semester 4 hours

Fundamental Theorem of Calculus, methods and uses of integration, Taylor series. Includes computer lab once a week. Prerequisite: MATH 122.

MATH 222 CALCULUS III

Either semester 4 hours

Algebra and geometry of two- and three-dimensional vectors, partial derivatives, multiple integration, vector calculus, linear systems, and matrix operations. Prerequisite: MATH 221.

MATH 321 PROBABILITY

First semester 3 hours

Concepts of probability, computation rules, discrete and continuous probability distributions, Central Limit Theorem. Offered alternate years. Prerequisite: MATH 222 and 211.

MATH 322 STATISTICS

Second semester 3 hours

Sampling distributions, estimation, hypothesis testing, regression, analysis of variance, non-parametric tests. Offered alternate years. Prerequisite: MATH 321.

MATH 324 NUMERICAL METHODS

Second semester 3 hours

Numerical methods, numerical differentiation and integration, approximation, polynomial interpolation, iterative and other algorithmic processes, curve fitting, significant figures, round-off errors. Use of the computer in numerical solutions will be included in the class assignments. Offered alternate years. Prerequisites: CSCI 116 and MATH 222.

MATH 326 DIFFERENTIAL EQUATIONS

First semester 4 hours

Methods of solution of common types of ordinary differential equations. First-order equations, second- and higher-order linear equations, systems of first-order linear equations, and numerical methods. Prerequisite: MATH 222.

MATH 330 HISTORY AND PHILOSOPHY OF MATHEMATICS

Second semester 2 hours

A brief overview of the history of mathematics and introduction to philosophical issues in mathematics. Exploration of the relationship of Christianity to mathematics. Intended for math majors and minors. Does not meet core curriculum math requirement. Offered alternate years. Prerequisite: junior or senior standing.

MATH 335 BIG DATA: APPLIED ANALYTICS

Either semester 3 hours

This course provides an introduction to the concept of Big Data. Students will use statistical software to perform analyses on large data sets. Topics covered in the class will include multiple linear regression, ANOVA & MANOVA, naïve Bayesian analysis, and the design & implementation of experiments. Prerequisite: MATH 115, 117 or 122; MATH 211 or 242; CSCI 331; and CSCI 241.

MATH 340 MODERN GEOMETRY

First semester 3 hours

Postulational systems; Euclidean and non-Euclidean geometry. Prerequisite: MATH 132. Offered alternate years.

MATH 342 LINEAR ALGEBRA

Second semester 3 hours

A study of vector-space theory, matrix operations, solutions of linear equations, determinants, vector spaces, eigenvalues, orthogonality, decomposition, and linear transformations. Includes applications and proofs. Offered alternate years. Prerequisites: MATH 132 and 222.

MATH 350 NUMBER THEORY

Second semester 3 hours

Prime factorization, Diophantine equations, congruence, quadratic reciprocity, sums of squares, Pythagorean triples, and discussions about prime numbers. Prerequisite: MATH 132. Offered alternate years.

MATH 400 ADVANCED RESEARCH

Either semester 3 hours

Provides the academically gifted student with research skills useful in the pursuit of graduate work. Must comply with FDC guidelines. Prerequisite: MATH 221.

MATH 421 REAL ANALYSIS

First semester 3 hours

Structure of the real number system, sets and functions, sequences, continuity, the derivative, and Riemann integration. Offered alternate years. Prerequisite: MATH 132 and 221.

MATH 423 ABSTRACT ALGEBRA

Second semester 3 hours

Homomorphisms, groups, rings, fields. Prerequisite: MATH 132 and 222. Offered alternate years.

MATH 490 SENIOR SEMINAR

Second semester 1 hour

Review of mathematics in preparation for ETS Mathematics test, which is required for the course. Open only to seniors majoring in Math.

MUSIC

MUS 110 FUNDAMENTALS OF MUSIC THEORY

First semester 3 hours

An introductory study of music theory. This course will provide an overview of the elements of music including notation, scales, intervals, key signatures, chords, and basic harmonic analysis.

MUS 111-112, 211-212, CLASS PIANO I - IV

Each semester 1 hour

Class instruction in piano designed specifically for non-keyboard music majors who are working to pass the keyboard proficiency examination. Courses must be taken in sequence. Intended for music majors. Instructor permission required.

MUS 113-114, 213-214, 313-314, 413-414 ORGAN(non-major)MUS 115-116, 215-216, 315-316, 415-416 PIANO(non-major)MUS 117-118, 217-218, 317-318, 417-418 VOICE(non-major)MUS 119-120, 219-220, 319-320, 419-420 INSTRUMENT(non-major)

Each semester 1-2 hours

Music lessons for non-music majors or secondary performing areas of music majors. Beginning students in voice and piano may be grouped in class lessons. One hour of credit for 5 hours of practice and one half-hour lesson per week. Audition required of all new students.

MUS 121 MUSIC THEORY I

First semester 3 hours

A study of basic music theory materials, including notation, scales, intervals, and chords. Also includes methods of melodic organization and principles of part-writing.

MUS 122 MUSIC THEORY II

Second semester 3 hours

A continuation of basics learned in MUS 121 with harmonic patterns, seventh chords, and modulation. Also includes methods for analyzing simple forms. Prerequisite: MUS 121.

MUS 123 AURAL SKILLS I

First semester 1 hour

A study of basic harmonic materials, including scales, intervals, and triads; includes sight-singing, melodic, rhythmic, and harmonic dictation.

MUS 124 AURAL SKILLS II

Second semester 1 hour

A study of basic harmonic materials, including scales, intervals, and triads; includes sight-singing, melodic, rhythmic, and harmonic dictation. Prerequisite: MUS 123.

MUS 125 INTRODUCTION TO MUSIC IN FILM

Either semester 3 hours

This course will explore the major genres of film and notable film composers from the early twentieth century to the present. There will be an emphasis on discovering how film composers influence the mood of the film, affect the development of characters and propel the narrative. Offered on demand. Does not apply to the music major or minor.

MUS 127 CLASS VOICE I

First semester 1 hour

Class vocal instruction to develop a healthy foundation for singing in both classical and non-classical styles with a focus on breathing, tone production, and diction. Designed for students with little or no previous voice training. Offered on demand.

MUS 128 CLASS VOICE II

Second semester 1 hour

Continuation of vocal techniques in MUS 127. Offered on demand. Prerequisite: MUS 127

MUS 152 PIANO ACCOMPANIMENT/ENSEMBLE

Each semester 1 hour

Meets ensemble requirement for pianists. Requires intermediate piano proficiency. May be taken eight times. Graded on a pass/fail basis.

MUS 153-154, 253-254, 353-354, 453-454 ORGAN (major)MUS 155-156, 255-256, 355-356, 455-456 PIANO (major)*MUS 157-158, 257-258, 357-358, 457-458 VOICE (major)MUS 159-160, 259-260, 359-360, 459-460 INSTRUMENT(major)

Each semester 1-2 hours

Music lessons for the music major in area of primary performance. One half-hour lesson per week with 5-7 hours of practice for each hour of credit. Audition required of all new students.

MUS 161 BRYAN CHORALE

Each semester 1 hour

Membership by audition. Meets three hours weekly. May be taken eight times. Graded on a pass/fail basis.

MUS 163 CHAMBER SINGERS

Each semester 1 hour

Membership by audition. Meets two hours weekly. May be taken eight times. Graded on a pass/fail basis.

MUS 167 WOODWIND ENSEMBLE

Each semester 1 hour

Membership by audition. Meets weekly as scheduled by instructor. May be taken eight times. Graded on a pass/fail basis.

MUS 168 STRING ENSEMBLE

Each semester 1 hour

Membership by audition. Meets weekly as scheduled by instructor. May be taken eight times. Graded on a pass/fail basis.

MUS 169 OPERA/MUSIC THEATRE WORKSHOP

Either semester 1 hour

Participation in an actual production. Instruction in set design, stage lighting, costuming, etc. Offered on demand. May be taken eight times. Graded on a pass/fail basis.

MUS 207 CLASS GUITAR I

First semester 1 hour

Class instruction in guitar will help students learn a variety of guitar performance techniques.

MUS 208 CLASS GUITAR II

Second semester 1 hour

Class instruction in guitar will help students learn a variety of guitar performance techniques. Prerequisite: MUS 207.

MUS 210 MUSIC APPRECIATION

Each semester 3 hours

An introductory course designed to investigate the nature and role of music. Emphasis on the elements of music, the characteristic styles of major historical periods, and the lives and works of key composers within the Western musical tradition. Not open to music majors.

MUS 221 MUSIC THEORY III

First semester 3 hours

Continuation of MUS 122 with a comprehensive approach to advanced harmony and musical forms from various periods. Prerequisite: MUS 122.

MUS 222 MUSIC THEORY IV

Second semester 3 hours

Continuation of MUS 221 with a comprehensive approach to advanced harmony and musical forms from various periods. Also includes an introduction to 20th Century analysis. Prerequisite: MUS 221.

MUS 223 AURAL SKILLS III

First semester 1 hour

A study of basic harmonic materials, including scales, intervals, and triads; includes sight-singing, melodic, rhythmic, and harmonic dictation. Prerequisite: MUS 124.

MUS 224 AURAL SKILLS IV

Second semester 1 hour

A study of basic harmonic materials, including scales, intervals, and triads; includes sight-singing, melodic, rhythmic, and harmonic dictation. Prerequisite: MUS 223.

MUS 225-226 KEYBOARD SKILLS FOR WORSHIP I & II

Each semester 1 hour

Preparation for the church pianist, from hymns to praise choruses. Instructor approval required. Offered on demand.

MUS 235 INTRODUCTION TO MUSIC TECHNOLOGY

First semester 2 hours

An introduction to the history, issues, and procedures related to Music and Technology. Focus is on Midi, Audio, and Studio issues. Open to Music majors or permission of instructor only.

MUS 237 MUSICAL THEATRE

Either semester 3 hours

An introduction to the nature and history of American musical theatre from its early influences to contemporary productions. Emphasis on the development of the genre, significant works, people, and issues. Cross-listed as THT 237.

PHYS 241 GENERAL PHYSICS I

Either semester 3 hours

First half of an algebra-based course stressing the fundamental concepts of physics: mechanics, wave motion, and sound. Prerequisite: MATH 117 or 122 or ACT Math score of 22.

PHYS 241L GENERAL PHYSICS I LAB

Either semester 1 hour

Laboratory exercises in motion, dynamics, oscillations, and thermodynamics will enhance PHYS 241. The course introduces students to basic techniques and safety practices in the laboratory. Prerequisite (or concurrent enrollment): PHYS 241. Lab, 3 hours. Additional lab fee applies.

PHYS 242 GENERAL PHYSICS II

Either semester 3 hours

Second half of an algebra-based course stressing the fundamental concepts of physics: electricity and magnetism, circuits, and optics. Prerequisite: PHYS 241 or 245.

PHYS 242L GENERAL PHYSICS II LAB

Either semester 1 hour

Laboratory exercises in electricity, magnetism, electronics, and optics will enhance PHYS 242. Techniques and safety practices in the laboratory are emphasized. Prerequisite (or concurrent enrollment): PHYS 242 General Physics II. Lab, 3 hours. Additional lab fee applies.

PHYS 245 COLLEGE PHYSICS I

Either semester 3 hours

First half of a calculus-based sequence introducing classical mechanics and thermodynamics, including kinematics, dynamics, energy, momentum, rotational motion, oscillatory motion, wave motion, fluid mechanics, and the laws of thermodynamics. Prerequisite: MATH 122 or taken concurrently with MATH 122.

PHYS 245L COLLEGE PHYSICS I LAB

Either semester 1 hour

Laboratory exercises in motion, dynamics, oscillations, and thermodynamics will enhance PHYS 245. The course introduces students to basic techniques and safety practices in the laboratory. Prerequisite (or concurrent enrollment): PHYS 245 College Physics I. Lab, 3 hours. Additional lab fee applies.

PHYS 246 COLLEGE PHYSICS II

Either semester 3 hours

Second half of a calculus-based sequence introducing classical electricity and magnetism, circuits, electromagnetic waves, geometrical optics and interference. Prerequisites: PHYS 245.

PHYS 246L COLLEGE PHYSICS II LAB

Either semester 1 hour
Laboratory exercises in electricity, magnetism, electronics, and optics will enhance PHYS 246. Techniques and safety practices in the laboratory are emphasized. Prerequisite (or concurrent enrollment): PHYS 246 College Physics II. Lab, 3 hours. Additional lab fee applies.

PHYS 321 ASTRONOMY

Either semester 3 hours
An introduction to the history and practice of astronomy. Topics include the celestial sphere, properties of light, lifecycle of stars, galaxies, cosmology and the solar system. Prerequisite: MATH 117 or 122. Offered on demand.

Admission Requirements

Undergraduate Programs

Students desiring to pursue a degree from Bryan College must first apply for admission to Bryan College. Submitting an application for admission and all official transcripts will begin the process of evaluation and review for admission as a degree seeking student.

The requirements for admission at the associate's or bachelor's levels include:

1. High school diploma or equivalency.
2. Completion of the application form.
3. Official transcripts from all schools, including high school, colleges and universities previously attended. (Note: High School transcript is not required if student has at least 12 hours of acceptable transfer credit.) Exceptions may be made for closed institutions or other extenuating circumstances. Requests for exceptions must be submitted in writing.
4. Transfer students are expected to have at least a cumulative GPA of 2.0 or higher in college work.
5. Students planning to use veterans' benefits are required to submit official transcripts from all previously attended institutions.
6. Access to a stable internet connection and an appropriately equipped computer are required for completion of coursework. Please see technology information for further details.

Conditional Admission

Applicants not meeting these requirements may be given consideration for conditional admission. Conditional admission is reserved for prospective students that may not meet all requirements for full admission but demonstrate potential for success in the program. Students admitted on condition must earn a minimum of a 2.0 cumulative gpa in the first term (6 credit hours) before he/she can be registered for the second term. If conditions of admission are not met, the student will be dismissed. Further stipulations may be outlined in the acceptance letter.

Entering Catalog

The Academic Catalog which is current during the first term the student is enrolled and attending as a degree-seeking student contains the academic program requirements that the student is to follow. That catalog will remain open to the student as long as the student maintains continuous enrollment (up to five years) until the student either graduates or does not re-enroll for one or more terms. After a break in enrollment the student would need to apply for re-admission and return under the current academic catalog. Academic policy defines continuous enrollment as enrolling in both the fall and spring terms with either a full or part time load.

In the event that a program is discontinued. Students already pursuing that program will be able to complete that program under their entering catalog as long as they maintain continuous enrollment. However, students will not be able to change to a program that has been discontinued.

Transfer of Credit

Each student's transcript is evaluated as part of the admission process. Credits will normally be accepted in transfer from regionally accredited colleges for college level coursework (remedial/developmental courses are not transferred) in which a minimum grade of C- (or equivalent) has been earned. No more than 12 hours of repeatable coursework in a discipline or field of study will be accepted in transfer. Only credit hours are transferred and such hours are not included in the calculation of a student's GPA.

Credits from schools which are not regionally accredited or which hold specialty/national accreditation are normally not transferrable. In some cases, credit will be allowed, at the option of the College, after a thorough review. Industrial, technological, and/or vocational courses normally are not transferable. Credit beyond what is needed for the degree is not transferred.

Students who have post-secondary transcripts from schools outside of the United States that may apply toward a degree at Bryan must submit them for evaluation and translation to an agency that is approved by the National Association of Credential Evaluation Services (NACES). For a list of approved agencies, see www.naces.org. The cost for this service is the responsibility of the student. Bryan College will need official transcripts in addition to the evaluation/translation.

All students should be aware that transfer of credit is always the responsibility of the receiving institution. If any student is interested in transferring credit hours from Bryan College to another institution, it is up to the student to check with that institution about their transfer credit policies and to determine what may possibly be transferred.

Associate's Programs

The College will accept credit by transfer for an Associate's program which satisfies general education required courses or specific courses required for the major, up to 30 hours. Please note that students must complete a minimum of 30 hours at Bryan College (a minimum of 15 hours must be in the major) in order to earn an associate's degree from Bryan College. A student should contact their Academic Adviser if already completed coursework seems the same as a course (or courses) within the program. The exemption of any program requirements will need to be determined during the admissions process prior to enrollment.

Bachelor's Programs

The College will accept credit by transfer which is applicable toward general education requirements and elective credit, up to 90 semester hours (but no more than 76 hours will be accepted from two year colleges). Elective credit beyond that required to meet the 120 semester hour minimum will not be transferred. No more than 15 semester hours of transfer credit will be applied toward major requirements. Please note that students must complete a minimum of 30 hours at Bryan College in order to earn a bachelor's degree from Bryan College. The exemption of any major requirements will need to be determined during the admissions process prior to enrollment.

Non-degree seeking Students/Undergraduate Certificates

Students who want to enroll in one or more courses but not pursue a degree from Bryan College must submit an application as a non-degree seeking student. Students are limited to 18 hours as non-degree seeking. Some courses may require additional documentation of satisfactory GPA and/or completed prerequisites. Bryan College does offer some undergraduate certificates. Enrollment for the purpose of an undergraduate certificate is limited to the coursework required for the certificate. Non-degree seeking students are not eligible for most forms of financial aid.

Visiting Students

Students who want to enroll in one or more courses but not pursue a degree from Bryan College must submit an application as a non-degree seeking student. Some courses may require additional documentation of satisfactory GPA and/or completed prerequisites. Enrollment under this condition is limited to one semester or 18 credit hours.

Transient Students

Students who are enrolled in another college or university and do not plan to transfer to Bryan College in order to earn a degree must submit an application and may enroll as transient students. Enrollment under this condition is limited to one semester or 18 credit hours. It is the student's responsibility to communicate with the home institution regarding the transfer of credit from Bryan College.

Articulation Agreement with Tennessee's Public Community Colleges

Bryan College Online accepts the Board of Regents approved transfer associate degree from public community colleges in the state of Tennessee. Students earning these degrees are granted 60 semester credits and junior standing upon admission to Bryan College Online. Students planning to transfer to Bryan should carefully choose their core curriculum/general education courses in consultation with both their community college adviser and Bryan College in order to ensure the best selections are made in light of their intended four-year major. Students desiring to earn credit through non-traditional means should consult Bryan policies as well. Students should contact a Bryan Admissions Counselor for additional information regarding needed coursework specific to the planned four-year major. All courses in the student's major must have a grade of C- or higher.

Additionally, Bryan College Online participates in the Tennessee Transfer Pathway for Business Administration and Applied Psychology. Please refer to www.tntransferpathway.org for more information.

Graduation Requirements

Application for Graduation

All candidates for undergraduate degrees are required to complete an Application for Graduation form and submit it to their Academic Adviser well in advance of the anticipated graduation date. Normally, by February 1 for May conferral, June 1 for August conferral, September 1 for December conferral. No student will be placed on the prospective graduation list until this application is on file in the Registrar's Office. The graduation fee (see "Graduation Fee" under Financial Information) should be submitted at least two weeks prior to the anticipated graduation date. The graduation fee must be paid, whether the graduate participates in commencement activities or not.

There are three possible conferral dates each year (early May, late August and late December). There is one commencement ceremony each calendar year which is at the end of the spring semester. In the spring semester all grades must be posted and all official transcripts on file by the Monday prior to the commencement ceremony.

Commencement Participation

All students eligible for graduation are encouraged to participate in commencement exercises held in May, following the completion of the program of instruction and the completion of all graduation requirements.

Since there is no ceremony in August students with one or two courses (a maximum of seven credits) outstanding may participate as candidates for graduation in the May ceremony provided they are registered at Bryan College for the outstanding courses (the seven-hour limit would include courses which are in progress) and have an approved plan to complete their program by August 31 of the same year. Students engaged in the Credit for Prior Learning Process do not qualify for this exception. In no case, may a student participate in two commencement exercises for the same degree.

Associate of Science degrees require the following:

1. Complete a total of 60 semester hours accepted by Bryan College.
2. Complete a minimum of 30 hours of coursework through instruction at Bryan College.
3. A minimum of 15 hours in the major must be taken through instruction at Bryan College. All coursework in the major must be completed with a C- or better.
4. Have a cumulative grade point average of at least 2.0 (on a 4.0 scale).
5. Complete the program of study.
6. Complete the General Education requirements.

Baccalaureate degrees require the following:

1. Complete a total of 120 semester hours accepted by Bryan College.
2. Complete a minimum of 30 hours of coursework through instruction at Bryan College.
3. All coursework in the major must be completed with a C- or better.
4. Have a cumulative grade point average of at least 2.0 (on a 4.0 scale).
5. Complete the selected program of study.
6. Complete the 33 hours of General Education requirements.

Graduation with Honors (Bachelor's Programs)

Upon the recommendation of the faculty, a student who is a candidate for the Bachelor's degree who has completed at least 48 semester hours of graded coursework at Bryan College will graduate with honors as follows:

- cum laude for a cumulative grade point average of 3.60 – 3.74
- magna cum laude for a cumulative grade point average of 3.75 – 3.89
- summa cum laude for a cumulative grade point average of 3.90 – 4.00

Undergraduate Certificates

The purpose of undergraduate certificates at Bryan College is to offer students the opportunity to gain a greater depth of knowledge in certain fields of study. Students in undergraduate certificate programs are non-degree seeking. Enrollment in undergraduate certificate programs does not qualify students for financial aid funds.

1. Undergraduate certificates require a minimum number of semester hours. Each certificate program differs; therefore, the student must follow the certificate requirements for the selected certificate carefully.
2. Each undergraduate certificate program requires a minimum GPA of 2.0.
3. To satisfy the requirements for the fields of study, only final grades of C or above, in all certificate courses, will apply towards successful certificate completion.
4. Students who return to Bryan College to complete a second certificate at the undergraduate level must have at least 6 credit hours remaining to qualify for a second certificate.
5. A minimum of one-third of the semester hours of the certificate coursework must be completed at Bryan College.

MKT 321 Buyer Behavior (3)	MKT 423 Digital Marketing (3)
MKT 329 Advertising & Promotion (3)

* MKT 243 must be completed prior to enrolling in any other courses.

Completion of Certificate

The Undergraduate Certificate will be issued after completion of all course work and all financial obligations are fulfilled. All appropriate undergraduate policies and practices at Bryan College will apply to certificate seeking students. Applications for the certificates may be completed and submitted to the Registrar's Office upon completion of the final course and submission of final grades along with the $50 fee. Certificate students are not eligible to participate in graduation ceremonies.

Credit for Prior Learning

Students in bachelor's programs may be eligible to earn additional semester hours through submission and evaluation of a Credit for Prior Learning (CPL) Portfolio. This credit may be derived from a number of different sources, including workshops, seminars, self-study, non-credit classes, military, workplace or other training programs, and work experience. Please note that it is the learning from these sources that is evaluated (not experience alone) and may result in credit hours being awarded.

GS 110 Portfolio Development Workshop will be offered each term to instruct the student how to prepare a Credit for Prior Learning Portfolio. This course is required for any student who desires to submit a portfolio for assessment. Details on this process may be found on the website at <https://www.bryan.edu/wp-content/uploads/cpl-handbook.pdf>. The portfolio must be submitted within one year of completing the GS 110 Portfolio Development Workshop or the student will forfeit the opportunity to earn credit via portfolio.

Any student who has previously completed GS 110 Portfolio Development Workshop and is still working on a Credit for Prior Learning portfolio but is not registered for any other courses, will be required to register, as an auditor, for GS 110. The student will incur a per credit hour audit fee. The student may audit the GS 110 course two times.

Please note that a maximum of 24 semester hours may be earned through a Credit for Prior Learning Portfolio with a total overall maximum of 31 semester hours that can be earned by a combination of Credit for Prior Learning through portfolio, Credit by Examination (see information on Credit by Examination below) and/or military training credit.

Academic Policies and Procedures

Policy on Catalog Change and Course Schedule

Although this catalog is intended to give a realistic statement of admissions requirements and procedures, academic policy and practice, the program of instruction, expenses, financial aid programs, etc., Bryan College reserves the right to make alterations as circumstances may require.

Credit by Examination

Bryan College will grant credit for nationally recognized examinations (CLEP, AP, DSST) in addition to the program courses and Credit for Prior Learning (CPL) credits. Students anticipating completing a nationally recognized examination must complete a Petition for Off-Campus Credit form which can be obtained by contacting their Academic Adviser.

CLEP Examinations

Students whose score meets or exceeds the American Council on Education (ACE) recommendations on a CLEP Examination which approximates a course offered at Bryan will receive credit for the number of semester hours listed in the catalog for that course (unless the ACE recommendation is less).

Examinations which Bryan accepts include:

Registration

Students will normally be registered for courses at least three weeks prior to the start of a course or the term. The term will be made official five days following the first day of the first course that a student is registered for in the term. Attendance and participation (online participation is defined as one of the following: a quiz attempt, a discussion post, or submission of an assignment) in the first five days of the first course in a term is required for the term to be made official. Under normal circumstances, no course will be offered unless there is an enrollment of at least seven persons.

Academic Load

A full-time load at the undergraduate level is 12 semester hours during the regular fall and spring semesters. Students can enroll in up to six credits per 8-week session. There are currently three 8-week sessions each semester, however, the sessions do overlap hence consideration needs to be made with regard to actual course load overall. With the Dean's approval a student, who is strong academically, may be able to enroll in 15 or 18 hours per semester. For terms or sessions that are shorter, the same principles apply.

Official Means of Communication

All enrolled students are issued a Bryan College email account. Students are responsible for monitoring this email account on a regular basis and are responsible for information from Bryan College that is communicated in this way. Emails sent to a student's @bryan.edu account from Bryan College Administration, faculty, and staff are considered official College communication.

Attendance Policies

Regular weekly attendance is expected throughout the length of each course. Attendance will be reported weekly by the instructor for the purposes of grading submitted work and establishing a final grade for each student.

Census date – the college finalizes enrollment/number of credits/charges

Unofficial – a course or term is not finalized and charges are not locked in

Official – once a student has participated in the first session of the term, all charges for the entire term are locked in and making changes may have financial implications for the student.

Online participation – any one of the following: a quiz attempt, a discussion post, submission of an assignment, or completion of a formal check-in assignment.

1. The census date is five calendar days after the beginning of each session. On the census date if the student has not participated in the course(s) or contacted the Academic Adviser the student will be considered a “no-show”.
 - a. Unofficial – all unofficial courses will be dropped
 - b. Official – if a student has not participated the course may be dropped. Financial Aid will likely be impacted and the student will have to declare his/her intent for the remaining courses in the term. Student remains financially responsible for the course(s).
2. Out of Attendance: A student can miss two weeks of an eight week course and remain in the course. If a student is marked absent three or more times during the course, he/she may be withdrawn from the course up through the end of the fifth week. Following the fifth week a final grade will be earned.
3. Voluntarily Withdraw: A student can voluntarily withdraw from a course and receive a “W” up through the end of the fifth week of an eight-week course. Contact the Academic Adviser for more information.
4. Following the fifth week of an eight week course a student will receive a final earned letter grade for the course whether he/she chooses to finish the course or not.
5. If a student is withdrawn for being out of attendance in a course that is in official there will be no refund of tuition. Students determined to be out of attendance, or who voluntarily withdraw, will still be responsible for tuition.
6. Students must notify their Academic Adviser in writing by email should they need to withdraw from a course. A withdrawal form will need to be completed in order to complete the withdrawal process. If a student is withdrawing from the last course in the term a notation regarding this withdrawal will be noted on the official transcript.
7. Students who have not completed financial aid forms and paid tuition for the term by the end of the first course may be administratively withdrawn from term.
8. Full Tuition Refund: There is only one way for students to voluntarily drop and receive a 100% tuition refund for all courses that they are registered for in a term. To receive a 100% refund, students must notify their Academic Adviser in writing via email prior to the official start date of the term. A term is made official when the student has attended and/or participated in the first week of the first course(s) in a term.

For classes which are shorter or longer than the usual eight week format the withdrawal policies are prorated accordingly.

There will be no refund of tuition for courses that are dropped, or in which the student withdraws or is withdrawn, when the course or courses are in a term that is official and in progress. Prior to withdrawing from a course or courses, students should contact Financial Services to determine the financial impact withdrawing from a course or courses(s) may have on financial aid and/or billing.

Dean’s List

At the end of each fall and spring semester, the Office of the Registrar compiles the Dean’s List, which includes the full-time undergraduate students (12 or more graded credits) who have earned a minimum current term grade point average of 3.8 to 3.999 with no individual grade less than “B” (3.0). Students carrying 11 hours or less are not eligible for the Dean’s List.

President's List

At the end of each fall and spring semester, the Office of the Registrar compiles the President's List, which includes the full-time undergraduate students (12 or more completed credits) who have earned a current term grade point average of 4.0. Students carrying 11 hours or less are not eligible for the President's List.

Satisfactory Academic Progress

Students must demonstrate satisfactory academic progress toward completion of their program of study in order to maintain eligibility for enrolling in classes. The qualitative standard for academic progress requires that students must maintain a cumulative grade point average of 2.0 or higher. Also, see the section on Student Financial Assistance regarding maintaining eligibility for financial aid.

Academic Probation

Should the cumulative grade point average of a student fall below 2.0, the student will be placed on academic probation. Students must earn a minimum of a 2.0 cumulative gpa in the probationary term (6 credit hours) before he/she can be registered for the subsequent term. If conditions of probation are not met, the student will be dismissed. Further stipulations may be outlined in the notification letter.

Academic Dismissal

A student on probation who fails to remove probationary status as prescribed by the Dean may be dismissed from the program. Consideration will be given to the student's continuance only if the student has shown sufficient improvement in academic performance during the probationary term to indicate a good probability of success toward graduation. Should a student's grade point average fall to a point where there is no reasonable possibility of bringing it to the level required for graduation, the student will be dismissed. A student dismissed for academic reasons may apply for re-admission after six months from the date of dismissal, but will be re-admitted only on the approval of the Vice President of Academics and Provost.

Additionally, applicants who knowingly submit inaccurate, misleading, and/or falsified documents, which would include the omission of information and/or documents, during the admissions process would be referred to the Dean or Vice President of Academics & Provost. Such actions would be grounds for dismissal.

Repeating a Course

Courses taken by a student at Bryan may be repeated in order to improve the grade, subject to availability. A repeated course with the corresponding grade will appear on the student's academic transcript each time the course is attempted, but only the highest grade earned will be used in calculating the student's cumulative grade point average. If the course is repeated at another institution, credit is transferred to Bryan to fulfill graduation requirements, but the grade is not transferred; therefore, no change of GPA occurs. Tuition costs for the repeated class are the responsibility of the student.

Students receiving educational benefits from the Veterans Administration may not repeat a course previously passed solely for the purpose of improving the grade. To qualify for payment from the VA, the repeat must be required for graduation. A third attempt will not be eligible for any financial aid.

Withdrawal from the Program

To withdraw from the program, students must notify their Academic Adviser by completing a withdrawal form. Prior to withdrawing from the program, students should contact the Financial Services to determine the financial impact withdrawing from the program may have on financial aid and/or billing.

Application for Re-Admission Following Withdrawal from the Program

Should a student desire to re-apply to an undergraduate program following a withdrawal from the program, it is required that he/she submit an application for re-admission. In addition to the application for re-admission, a student must submit a $50.00 non-refundable re-admission fee, and official transcripts from any school attended since he/she was last enrolled at Bryan College. Re-admission will be based upon a review of all re-admission materials. Should the time between withdrawal and re-admission be such that the program requirements have changed, the student would be admitted under the new requirements and any deficiencies would have to be satisfied. If the student is being considered for conditional re-admission, he/she may be required to complete additional documentation before the application will be reviewed.

Administrative Withdrawal from the Program (non-attendance/participation)

Should a student miss a minimum of three consecutive class meetings or three consecutive weeks of attendance (in one course or in two courses back to back) with no notification to his/her Academic Adviser and without completing the withdrawal form, that student may be administratively withdrawn from the program. There will be no refund of tuition for courses that are dropped, or in which the student is withdrawn, when the course or courses are in a term that is official and in progress.

Administrative Withdrawal

Bryan College Online encourages students to reach the highest level of self-discipline and academic excellence. To maintain a professional learning environment, the College reserves the right to withdraw a student from classes at any time during the term. Student withdrawals may be initiated as a result of non-attendance, disruptive or disciplinary issues, or the non-payment of tuition.

The Honor Code

The Christian Life Standards apply directly to the academic area through the Bryan College Honor Code. The Honor Code is simply stated: "Every student shall be honor bound to refrain from cheating (including plagiarism). Every student shall be honor bound to refrain from stealing. Every student shall be honor bound to refrain from lying. Any violation of this Honor Code can result in dismissal from the College." The Bryan College Honor Code is designed to enhance academic uprightness on the campus. However, in the event that a student engages in activity relating to dishonesty in their academics, they will be subject to outcomes explained below.

Academic Dishonesty

Students are expected to submit their own work and engage in their own research. The Community Life Standards and Bryan College Honor Code apply, but are not limited to, three specific areas in academics; plagiarism, cheating and falsification. The honor code defines cheating as using any resource that was not authorized by your professor. With that, the use of an Artificial Intelligence (AI) tool, such as but not limited to ChatGPT, without the consent of your professor is considered to be cheating and a violation of the honor code.

Plagiarism

In regard to plagiarism, the Chicago Manual of Style (2003) states “with all reuse of others’ materials, it is important to identify the original as the source.” (p. 136). Even when one uses other people’s thoughts or concepts without crediting them as the source they have stolen intellectual work. It is plagiarism to turn in any previously submitted work without the current professor’s prior written permission; without the prior permission, this will be considered self-plagiarism.

It is not plagiarism to quote material from a book, article, or web site as long as the author or source of the material is properly cited. Similarly, it is not plagiarism to copy a chart or a diagram from such a source, as long as the source is clearly credited. It is plagiarism to copy verbatim or closely paraphrase a chart or illustration, or material from any book, article, or web site without clearly identifying the source from which it was obtained.

Plagiarism is the intentional failure to give sufficient attribution to the words, ideas, or data of others that the student has incorporated into his/her work for the purpose of misleading the reader. In some cases, a student may be careless and fail to give credit to the words, ideas or data of others. In such situations, plagiarism has still occurred, but the professor may choose a sanction as deemed appropriate. In order to avoid plagiarism, students must conscientiously provide sufficient attribution. Attribution is sufficient if it adequately informs and, therefore, does not materially mislead a reasonable reader as to the true source of the words, ideas, or data. Students who have any doubt as to whether they have provided sufficient attribution have the responsibility to obtain guidance from their professor or other person to whom they are submitting their work.

Plagiarism in papers, projects or any assignment prepared for a class shall include the following:

- Omitting quotation marks or other conventional markings around material quoted from any printed source (including digital material)
- Directly quoting or paraphrasing a specific passage from a specific source without properly referencing the source
- Replicating another person’s work or parts thereof and then submitting it as an original
- Purchasing a paper (or parts of a paper) and representing it as one’s own work

Cheating

Cheating is a form of dishonesty in which a student gives the appearance of a level of knowledge or skill that the student has not obtained, provides unauthorized aid, or wrongly takes advantage of another’s work.

Examples include, but are not limited to:

- Copying from another person’s work on an examination or an assignment
- Allowing another student to copy any portion of one’s work on an examination or an assignment
- Using unauthorized materials or giving or receiving any other unauthorized assistance on an examination or an assignment
- Taking an examination or completing an assignment for another, or permitting another to take an examination or to complete an assignment for the student.
- Reusing a paper from a previous course
- Paying another student to complete a course, an individual assignment or exam

Falsification

Falsification is a form of dishonesty in which a student misrepresents the truth, invents facts, or distorts the origin or content of information used as authority. Examples include, but are not limited to:

- Dishonestly answering or providing information in the application process
- Citing a source that is known not to exist
- Attributing to a source ideas and information that are not included in the source

- Falsely citing a source in support of a thought or idea when it is known not to support the thought or idea
- Citing a source in a bibliography when the source was neither cited in the body of the paper nor consulted
- Intentionally distorting the meaning or applicability of data
- Inventing data or statistical results to support conclusions

Academic Implications of the Bryan College Honor Code

The Bryan College Honor Code is the expectation that each student is operating with full integrity - both inside and outside the classroom. As a reminder of this commitment, students must pledge to abide by the Honor Code in every class, use of the Learning Management System (LMS) to submit coursework is an inherent pledge the student is abiding by the Honor Code. The pledge means that, except where noted or when work is expected to be done jointly, the academic work submitted is that person's alone.

Violations & Appeals Procedure

To ensure a uniform, standardized process, all incidents of academic dishonesty will be reported by faculty using the Honor Code Violation Form. The Honor Code Violation Form will be submitted to the Dean, where decisions on student standing in regard to each reported event will be determined. The Honor Code Violation Form will become part of the official student record. Students who are found to be in violation of the Honor Code will face the following discipline as a minimum.

Upon the identification or perception of academic dishonesty, the faculty member will communicate with the student in writing – via email or the LMS. This communication will initiate either academic coaching or the referral process, and will require a meeting between the faculty and the student to review the academic dishonesty occurrence. Traditional undergraduate student meetings will occur no more than five business days after the initial communication. Bryan College online student meetings will occur no more than ten business days after the initial communication. Should a student fail to meet with the faculty member within a week of the faculty member's communication, this will result in an official referral for academic dishonesty/misconduct via the Honor Code Violation Form.

After an academic dishonesty violation has been reported, all stakeholders will receive notice from their Dean. The student has the right to appeal the accusation and the resulting sanction using the form provided in the notice. The appeal form must be completed within five business days of receiving notification regarding an honor code violation. The faculty member and Dean will review the appeal, and a decision will be forwarded to the student within five business days of receipt of student appeal. Appeals made after the 5-day window will not be considered valid.

Honor Code Offense Tiers

Faculty are to indicate the corresponding Tier in the Honor Code Violation Form. See below for the definition of the four Tiers, including limited examples.

Tier- 0: Coaching - For plagiarism only

Faculty are to coach the student about the improper writing incident and include coaching information in the Honor Code Violation form. Plagiarism within this document is defined as a small, isolated violation, e.g., in one or two brief parts of the paper, the student fails to acknowledge a source, leaves out quotation marks, or fails to change the wording and sentence structure of a paraphrase sufficiently—an offense that seems to be a result of momentary carelessness, a misunderstanding about documentation, or not having sufficiently developed the skill of paraphrasing.

Tier-1: Opportunistic honor code violation

Failing to cite several sentences worth of material in a paper or incorrectly citing sources.

Tier-2: Premeditated honor code violation

Such as a student submitting another's assignment as their own or cheating on a test. Tier-2 violations automatically escalate to Offense Level 2.

Tier-3: Severe honor code violation

Such as paying another to complete school work or gaining access to a grade book and making changes. Tier-3 violations automatically escalate to Offense Level 3 or 4.

Honor Code Offense Levels

Offense Level 0

The student will be penalized 10% of the total grade earned on the assignment. The faculty member will meet with the student and provide coaching on how to correct the deficiency within the timeframe mentioned above. The professor may also require the student to make an appointment at the Writing Support Center in the ARC to work on these skills.

After two instances of Tier 0 coaching the student will be required to go to the ARC for support and future instances will automatically move to a Tier 1/Level 1 violation.

Offense Level 1

Proportional reduction of points on the assignment or course. Academic shareholders are notified

Offense Level 1 referrals may require the student to (a) complete an online training module and, in instances of plagiarism, (b) meet with a designated ARC representative to ensure adequate understanding of the offense (academic writing tutoring will be encouraged).

Offense Level 2 - Automatic failure of assignment. Academic shareholders are notified.

Offense Level 2 or higher offenses may also require students to (a) complete an online training module; (b) meet with a designated ARC representative to ensure student understanding; (c) academic writing tutoring and follow-up meetings with a designated ARC representative will be required, and (d) meet with their respective dean.

Offense Level 3 – Course Failure. Academic shareholders are notified.

Offense Level 4 – Suspension from the College. Academic shareholders are notified.

Offense Level 5 – Expulsion from the College. Academic shareholders are notified.

Transcript of Record

The registrar keeps on file a permanent record of all credit earned by each student. Transcripts of record are issued only upon receipt of a written request signed by the student in accordance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act. Before an official transcript will be issued, the student's financial obligations at the college must have been met, and there must be no record that the student is in default status on any student loan. A $10 fee is currently being charged for each official transcript providing it can be reproduced in the normal course of business. Transcripts required in 48 hours or less will incur an additional fee plus the cost of USPS Overnight service. Transcript requests may also be submitted electronically through the National Student Clearinghouse.

End of Course

Students may view the start and end date of a course that they are registered for in a term through their MyBryan account. Following the end date of a course, assignments will not be accepted unless prior arrangements have been made with the instructor. Final grades will typically be posted within one week after the end of the course and may be viewed through a student's MyBryan account.

Disability Services

For students with disabilities (as defined by Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended, and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990), Bryan College takes an individual, holistic approach in providing, as required by law, reasonable accommodations.

Eligible students must formally notify the College of their disability, either at the time of admission and before accommodations are requested at the beginning of each semester. The notification must be in writing, must include appropriate documentation, and must be submitted to the ADA Coordinator. Documentation required (to be obtained by the student at his/her expense) includes a formal evaluation by a physician or a professional who is able to diagnose the student's condition. The student will then meet with the ADA Coordinator to discuss what accommodations may be offered regarding specific needs and services.

Examples of alternative aids that may be appropriate include taped texts, note-takers, interpreters, readers (for test-taking only), additional time for tests, and alternative methods of assessment. The College is not required to supply students with attendants, individually prescribed devices such as hearing aids and wheelchairs, readers for personal use or study, other devices or services of a personal nature, or incompletes / extended semesters. The courts have also ruled that colleges are not required to lower the standards of any program, make fundamental alterations in the essential nature of a program, or assume undue financial or administrative burdens.

The campus ADA Coordinator considers a student's request and documentation and subsequently determines what specific services will be offered by the College. The Coordinator then provides the minimum expectations for accommodations. These accommodations are then provided to the student on a Syllabus Addendum form that student must take to the faculty of each course. A Syllabus Addendum must be completed and on file for each course within the first ten business days of the semester or within ten business days of a diagnosis/approval by the ADA coordinator. Once the basic provisions are deemed acceptable by both the faculty member and the student, the original signed copy must be turned in to the ADA Coordinator. If there are issues or concerns with the accommodations the student or his/her professor(s) may appeal the decision and will be provided a way for the grievance to be heard. For more information, please contact the ADA Coordinator, in the Office of Equity and Accessibility.

Exceptions to Academic Policies and Procedures

A petition for exception to academic regulations may be made by obtaining a Petition for Academic Exception from the Academic Adviser. The completed form, signed by the student, is then reviewed. Once a decision has been made regarding the exception, the student will be notified by the Academic Adviser. If the student finds the outcome unsatisfactory, the student may appeal the decision. A written response to the second appeal will be communicated to the student within 90 days of the second appeal.

Grading Practices and Standards

Definition of Grades Used

- The grade of A is given for on-time work which fulfills course requirements at a superior level of performance and which manifests outstanding interest, effort, responsibility, and creativity. (A = 4.0 Quality Points; A- = 3.7)
- The grade of B is given for work which fulfills course requirements at an above average level of performance, and which manifests above average interest, effort, responsibility, and originality. (B+ = 3.3 Quality Points; B = 3.0; B- = 2.7)

- The grade of C is given for work which fulfills course requirements at an average level of performance, and which manifests an adequate interest, effort, responsibility, and improvement. (C+ = 2.3 Quality Points; C = 2.0; C- = 1.7)
- The grade of D is given for work which falls short of fulfilling course requirements at an average level of performance, and which manifests a lack of interest, effort, responsibility, or which shows a need for improvement. (D+ = 1.3 Quality Points; D = 1.0; D- = 0.7)
- The grade of F indicates failure, carries no credit, and is given for work which fails to meet minimum course requirements. (F = 0.0 Quality Points)
- W - Withdrawn from course

The grade of I, for incomplete, is given only when extended illness or other emergency circumstances beyond the student's control prevent the student from completing the course requirements. Students who are approved for an incomplete in an undergraduate course are required to complete course work within eight weeks from the last day of the course unless an additional extension is approved by the instructor and the Dean. After this period, if the student fails to complete the course requirements, the I will be changed to an F and is recorded on the student's transcript. Requests for an incomplete grade in a course must be submitted in writing to the Academic Adviser prior to the end date of the course.

Grading Scale for Bryan College Online – Undergraduate

The grading scale used for all undergraduate-level courses is listed below:

A 93% - 100%	C 73% - 75.99%
A- 90% - 92.99%	C- 70% - 72.99%
B+ 86% - 89.99%	D+ 66% - 69.99%
B 83% - 85.99%	D 63% - 65.99%
B- 80% - 82.99%	D- 60% - 62.99%
C+ 76% - 79.99%	F less than 60%

Late Homework

All assignments must be completed on time. Students should refer to the general course policies in each course for guidelines and specific information regarding late submissions.

Course Credit

For information on the content of the courses and credited awarded, see the Program of Study section of this catalog and the course descriptions located at the end of the undergraduate information. In all of the courses which are part of the major, a grade of C- or better must be earned in order to count toward the degree (unless otherwise noted in the catalog). Courses in which a D or F are earned must be repeated at the student's expense.

Computation of Grade Point Averages (GPA)

Grade point averages are computed after a course is completed. A student's GPA is computed only for work taken at Bryan College and is shown in detail on the student's unofficial transcript which is found in MyBryan under Course History. GPA computation is also found on the student's official transcript.

Academic Appeals Process-Grades

If a student believes that a grade in a class is incorrect or that the professor has not graded the work in a responsible manner, he or she has the right to appeal the grade. The appeal must be submitted in writing to the Office of the Vice President of Academics within 90 days of the final grade being posted to the student's transcript. The appeal will be reviewed by the Dean of his/her respective school and a decision will be forwarded to the student as soon as possible. Appeals made after the 90-day window, inclusive of non-business days and standard college vacation days, will not be considered valid and may not be entertained by the Dean. Should the student desire further consideration, a final appeal can be made to the Vice President of Academics. Details as to the construction of the appeal letter and its contents can be obtained by contacting the Office of Academics.

Student Services

When students are accepted into Bryan College Online, they will be assigned an Academic Adviser who provides guidance as they work to complete their degree. Academic Advisers assist with individual matters of scheduling, academic records, and graduation planning. Primary communication regarding orientation, registration, graduation, etc., will come from the Academic Adviser. Any issues students encounter while they are completing their degree would first be addressed with the Academic Adviser. While advisers will assist students in every possible way, final responsibility for meeting all graduation requirements rests with the student.

Student Complaint Procedure-Academic

Complaints that cannot be mediated by the instructor of the course in question are submitted in writing for review by the Dean. Decisions that do not satisfy a student may then be submitted in writing. Student complaints must be submitted within 90 days of the event, and student complaints will be addressed within 120 days of the event.

Technology Information

Students are required to use computers for several essential tasks in this program regularly. First, all students are issued a Bryan College email account, and it is required that students check their Bryan email frequently. Second, all courses make extensive use of a supplemental virtual learning environment called BrightSpace. Students will need stable access to the Internet to use BrightSpace. Weekly course materials, syllabi, and/or online assignments/exams are distributed or administered through BrightSpace.

Students will need a computer with audio speakers, Microsoft Office (Word, Excel, PowerPoint), Adobe Reader, internet access, printer. Students will be expected to exhibit skills in electronic communication, word processing, document development, internet use, media-enhanced presentation, and electronic library research and will receive access to training online tutorials, library resource instruction, and the Academic Resource Center.

Minimum hardware/software requirements:

The IT department for Bryan College has compiled a list of minimum recommended hardware and software. Students are encouraged to own personal computers that meet these recommended hardware and software guidelines. Students can download a free version of Microsoft Office by visiting portal.office.com and signing in with the Bryan email and password.

A webcam may be required for some courses.

Tuition (per credit hour)	$395.00
Technology fee per term	$100.00
Course Materials fee (per course, for most courses)	$60.00
Credit for Prior Learning Fee (bachelor’s programs) per credit hour submitted for assessment	$120.00
Payment Plan Fee	$50.00
Re-admission fee	$50.00
Graduation fee	$175.00
(This fee is due whether the candidate participates in commencement activities or not.)
Audit (per credit hour).....	$85.00

Any unpaid charges may be subject to collection agency costs, attorney fees, or credit bureau reporting. Bryan College retains a security interest in all transcripts, diplomas, letters of recommendation, or grade reports which will not be released until all debts are fully paid.

NOTE: For information about loans and grants, see the section on Student Financial Assistance.

Tuition Payment Schedule

Tuition for each term is due before the first day of class. An email will be sent to your Bryan email address at the time of registration and after financial aid has been applied. Students can review incomplete financial aid documents through their MyBryan account. Course registration may be cancelled if payment is not received in full by the due date for the given term. Pending financial aid may be used to cover a balance.

Payment plans are an automatic service provided for students upon request. There is a fee to use the payment plan tool and payments will be set to automatically process. Plans can be set up to have the payments for different lengths of time depending on when the student signs up. If the student’s account is not clear by the end of each term, s/he will not be allowed to register for future courses, or if the degree has been completed, the diploma will be held by the College until the balance is paid in full.

Master Payment Agreement

Students will be required to complete the Master Payment Agreement every school year, certifying the means by which they will pay for their tuition and agreeing to take upon themselves the consequences of non-payment.

General Financial Information

Any obligations, including miscellaneous charges, incurred during the term must be paid before the term concludes. No academic credentials (grade reports, transcripts of record, or diploma) will be issued to the student until all financial obligations are satisfied. Failure to receive a bill does not exempt a student from the timely payment of all charges. All billing information can be reviewed through the student's MyBryan account or by calling the Financial Services Office at Bryan College.

Credit for Prior Learning

The Credit for Prior Learning fee is charged for assessment of the portfolio. Portfolio fees will be based on the number of credits requested at the time that the portfolio is submitted for assessment.

Textbooks

Most students' textbooks are available in a digital format as a rental. The cost will be charged to the student account as a course materials fee or lab fee. Students who choose to opt out of this provided service during the first week of classes are responsible for obtaining the required materials. There are classes where textbooks aren't available in a digital format. In those cases, students are responsible for obtaining the required materials

Withdrawal Policies

Students should contact the Financial Aid Office if they are intending to withdraw from courses to see what the financial consequences will be.

Refund Policy

A student who withdraws from their first course of the first term and has not begun additional courses registered for will receive a 100% refund for the remaining hours of the term. A student who attends the first class of the second course of the first term will be liable for the full term's tuition amount. In any term after the first term, students who attend the first class are liable for the full term's tuition amount. Notice of withdrawal must be given to the college in writing by first contacting the Academic Adviser by the applicable deadline as noted above to be eligible for any refund.

Pro Rata Refund

The refund calculation process will be to determine how much of federal funding a student is allowed to keep when withdrawing. This calculation will include excess funds a student received as a refund. The college will notify the student of any amount the student must return as a repayment.

The financial aid office calculates federal financial aid eligibility and Military Tuition Assistance (TA) for students who withdraw, drop out, or are dismissed prior to completing 60.01% of a semester. The federal funds calculation and TA calculation are done independently of one another and are done prior to and apart from the institutional funds calculation. Refund/repayment calculations are based on the percent of earned aid using the following formula:

$$\text{Percent earned} = \frac{\text{\# of days completed up to withdrawal date}}{\text{total days in the semester}}$$

Federal financial aid is returned to the federal government based on the percentage of unearned aid using the following formula: Federal aid to be returned = 100% - % earned. When federal financial aid is returned, the student may owe a balance to the College. The student should contact Financial Services to arrange for balance repayment.

Once a student's withdrawal date has been established, the refund and repayment (if applicable) amount(s) and allocation(s) will be determined by the Financial Services Office. There are no special procedures required of the student to complete the refund process.

Military Tuition Assistance (TA) is awarded to a student under the assumption that the student will attend school for the entire period for which the assistance is awarded. It is the responsibility of the student to inform Bryan College of TA eligibility and provide appropriate documentation for each course prior to the start of the term. When a student withdraws, the student may no longer be eligible for the full amount of TA funds originally awarded. Bryan College will return any unearned TA funds on a proportional basis through at least the 60% portion of the period for which the funds were provided to that member's appropriate service branch. TA funds are earned proportionally during an enrollment period, with unearned funds returned based upon when a student stops attending.

If a service member stops attending due to a military service obligation, and the service member notifies the school of his/her obligation, Bryan College will work with the affected service member to identify solutions that will not result in a student debt for the returned portion.

Student Financial Assistance

Preparing for a college education requires a great deal of advance planning. To assist you in making appropriate financial preparations, this section presents a number of important topics for your consideration. This information reflects current Bryan College practices; however, regulations and funding for federal and state programs are subject to change and Bryan College administers programs accordingly.

Need is the basic principle of financial aid eligibility and represents the difference between what it costs to attend Bryan College and what the student is expected to pay toward these costs. Need is demonstrated through the information requested on the Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA). The FAFSA is used to apply for federal and state grants. In addition, a report generated by the FAFSA is used by the College Financial Aid Office to determine eligibility for student loans.

Forms of Financial Assistance

Listed below are some of the more common forms of financial assistance:

- Federal Pell Grant. The Federal Pell Grant provides a foundation for financial assistance. Eligibility is determined through the FAFSA need-analysis process.
- Tennessee Student Assistance Award (TSAA). The TSAA is provided by the Tennessee Student Assistance Corporation to Tennessee residents who meet eligibility criteria and who demonstrate financial need based on Federal Pell Grant eligibility. The FAFSA serves as the application for the TSAA and contains state-related questions which must be answered to determine eligibility.
- *Hope Scholarship. Students who meet the criteria for eligibility for the Hope scholarship and enroll within 16 months of graduation from high school or who transfer in, being still eligible for the Hope scholarship, can receive the Hope scholarship for the online program. The FAFSA serves as the application for the Hope scholarship.

- Hope Scholarship for Non-Traditional Students. Students must be TN residents; have adjusted gross income of less than or equal to $36,000; be 25 years of age or older; have a 2.75 cumulative college GPA after enrolled for 12 hours in the undergraduate program; have not attended college in the past 2 years. The FAFSA serves as the application for the Hope Scholarship.

- Veterans' Benefits. Eligibility for these benefits is determined by the Department of Veterans' Affairs. Potentially eligible students should contact their local Veterans' Affairs representative. Notice: it takes a minimum of 90 days to complete the enrollment process with the Department of Veteran's Affairs. The Office of the Registrar will facilitate the process by certifying the student's enrollment.

- Employee Reimbursement Program. Contact your company's Human Resource Office to investigate this source of financial assistance. A copy of your employer's policies will be required for a personalized payment plan created by the school.

- Federal Supplemental Education Opportunity Grant (FSEOG). This federal grant program is administered by the College. Need and eligibility is determined by the FAFSA.

* Students will need to inform Financial Services if they believe they are eligible for these forms of financial assistance.

Federal Educational Loans

The following is a description of the loan programs available to students. It is the policy of Bryan College to notify students of eligibility for all loans.

Federal Stafford Loan – A Subsidized Stafford Loan is awarded based on financial need and the federal government pays the interest on these loans while the borrower is in school at least half-time. An Unsubsidized Stafford Loan is not awarded based on financial need and interest accrues from the date of disbursement until the final payment. Repayment begins six months after student ceases to be enrolled at least half time. Minimum monthly payment is $50, but may be more depending on the total amount borrowed. A Master Promissory Note (MPN) and Entrance Counseling are required.

Customary length of time to repay loans is 10 years. Deferment or Forbearance of loan repayment may be granted for certain types of conditions/activities. All loans may be prepaid at any time with no penalty or extra fees.

Federal PLUS Loan - For dependent students, parents can borrow PLUS loans if they wish up to the student's total budget.

Alternative Loans - If the student wishes, he may apply for an alternative loan to help cover the costs of his classes. It may go up to the total amount of the student's budget.

Verifying Full Time Enrollment

When the Registrar's Office is asked to verify full time enrollment for a student, that office is required to use the last date in class as the last day of attendance. The student has a grace period of six months after the last day of class attendance before repayment of Stafford loans must begin.

A student receiving financial aid who anticipates withdrawing should contact the Financial Aid Office regarding the implications of such action.

There will be no refund of tuition for courses that are dropped, or in which the student withdraws or is withdrawn, when the course or courses are in a term that is official and in progress. Prior to withdrawing from a course or courses in a term, students should contact Financial Services to determine the financial impact withdrawing from a course or courses(s) may have on financial aid and/or billing.

Upon withdrawal from the program the amount of Title IV and other financial aid, which must be returned to a program source, will be calculated and charges will be adjusted by the amount of aid earned. The calculation for return of Title IV aid is a federally mandated formula and is based on the percentage of completed course time.

FEDERAL FINANCIAL AID

Bryan College participates in the Title IV Federal Financial Aid programs, including grants, work-study and loans. These programs are administered under all applicable federal regulations and guidelines. To explore all potential Federal Aid opportunities visit www.studentaid.gov.

STATE FINANCIAL AID

Bryan College participates in all applicable scholarship and grant programs administered by the State of Tennessee within the regulations and guidelines set by the State. To explore all potential state aid opportunities visit www.tn.gov/collegepays.

General Policies

Financial aid is awarded on an annual basis. Although a student normally may depend on the continuance of aid from year-to-year, renewal is subject to all standards and regulations governing the program. All students must re-apply annually for all forms of financial assistance. No aid is automatically renewed.

Any outside grants or scholarships received by a student must be reported to the Financial Aid Office and may require an adjustment to the student's financial aid package.

Financial Aid Policies

1. Financial aid is awarded for one academic year, usually for three terms (fall, spring and summer). Aid eligibility is re-evaluated each year, and a new FAFSA must be submitted annually.
2. A financial aid recipient must be accepted for admission, pursuing a qualified degree, have remaining eligibility per program, and enrolled at least half time (6 credit hours). The student expense budget, built under federal regulations, will include the cost of tuition, fees, books, and etc.
3. If a student is selected for verification by Bryan College or by the federal processor, additional information may be requested to verify the information listed on the FAFSA. Refusal to submit required documentation could result in the cancellation of financial aid. All forms must be signed and dated and returned before financial aid is awarded.
4. Disbursement of federal funds is contingent upon Congressional appropriation and upon receipt of the funds by Bryan College.
5. A student who accepts student loans as part of a financial aid package must complete other steps before the loan can be credited to the student account. These include, but are not limited to: completion of loan entrance counseling and promissory note.
6. Students should report in writing to the Financial Aid Office any additional aid which he or she receives from outside sources (loans, outside scholarships, etc.).

7. Students who withdraw from the college must notify the Financial Aid Office prior to the time of withdrawal.

8. The Financial Aid Office reserves the right on behalf of the College to review and change an award at any time because of changes in financial situation or academic status, or change of academic program.

9. The Financial Aid Office first awards loans in the exact amount that the student needs to cover the costs of his classes. If students are eligible for extra loans to provide a refund, they must submit that request to the financial aid office by verbal request, by email, by the Stafford Loan Request form on the Bryan College website, or by phone.

Additional Information

1. It is the student's responsibility to be aware of the Satisfactory Academic Progress Standard.
2. Receiving all F's in a semester may result in some returns of federal financial aid.
3. Renewal of financial aid is also dependent on punctual, accurate reapplication and availability of funding sources.
4. When the FAFSA is processed, students will receive a Student Aid Report. This report should be kept with other financial aid papers for reference.

SATISFACTORY ACADEMIC PROGRESS FOR FINANCIAL AID

Financial Aid recipients must demonstrate through their scholastic records that they are making satisfactory academic progress toward completion of their program(s) of study in order to maintain eligibility for enrolling in classes and receiving any form of federal, state, or College financial assistance. Academic progress for financial aid is measured at the end of each term utilizing the following qualitative and quantitative standards.

Qualitative Standards for Financial Aid Eligibility

Credit Hours Earned	Cumulative GPA
1-26	1.5
27-55	1.75
56 & above	2.0

Quantitative Standards for Financial Aid Eligibility

This standard has two components: maximum time-frame and course completion rate. The student must complete at least 66.67% of all courses attempted.

The maximum time-frame in which a student must complete a program of study cannot exceed 150 percent of the published program length measured in credit hours completed. Example: a student, pursuing a 120-hour program would be allowed to attempt a maximum of 180 hours [120 x 150% (1.5)]. The number of hours attempted includes any transfer hours accepted from other institutions that are applied to the student's program of study. In conjunction with the maximum program length, students must successfully complete (measured as credit hours earned) at least 66.67% of all coursework attempted as they progress through the program of study. This is a cumulative process, which includes transfer hours accepted.

Financial Aid Warning

A student who does not meet satisfactory academic progress standards at the end of a particular term is placed on Financial Aid Warning for the following term, during which the student is eligible to receive financial aid. If the student meets the standards at the end of the warning term, the student is removed from Financial Aid Warning status and maintains financial aid eligibility. If the student does not meet the standards at the end of the warning term, the student is placed on Financial Aid Suspension.

Financial Aid Suspension

A student on Financial Aid Suspension is not eligible for any form of federal, state, or College financial assistance and remains ineligible until satisfactory academic progress standards in Bryan College courses are met.

Financial Aid Appeal Process

Students placed on financial aid suspension can appeal to the Financial Aid Committee for financial aid reinstatement. The appeal must be submitted in writing to the Financial Aid Office and be accompanied by appropriate supporting documents if necessary. Reasons that may be acceptable for the appeal are: 1) serious illness or accident on the part of the student; 2) death, accident or serious illness in the immediate family; 3) financial difficulties forcing incomplete and premature withdrawal; 4) other extenuating circumstances directly affecting academic performance. Approval of an appeal places the student on Financial Aid Probation for one term. The student must meet satisfactory academic progress standards by the end of the probationary period (unless an academic plan has been put in place) or be placed on Financial Aid Suspension.

If conditions of admission are not met, the student will be dismissed. Further stipulations may be outlined in the acceptance letter.

Visiting Students

Students who desire to enroll but not pursue a degree from Bryan College must submit an application and an official transcript showing that they have completed an undergraduate degree from an accredited institution or have completed at least 88 hours of undergraduate coursework from an accredited institution. Visiting students may take a total of two courses. Students who desire to take more than two courses must apply as degree seeking students. Some courses may require additional documentation of satisfactory GPA and/or completed prerequisites.

Transient Students

Students who are enrolled in another college or university and do not plan to transfer to Bryan College in order to earn a degree must submit an application and an official transcript showing the conferral of an undergraduate degree. Enrollment under this condition is limited to two courses. It is the student's responsibility to communicate with the home institution regarding the transfer of credit from Bryan College.

Policy on Transfer of Credit

There will be no awarding of credit for experiential learning, advanced placement, or professional certification. A maximum of 6 credit hours of transfer credit may be accepted for graduate course work completed prior to the first class meeting provided the content of that credit is deemed to be consistent with the course content in Bryan's graduate program. Such transfer credit must be from a regionally accredited institution of graduate study and must be a grade of "B" or better. Each decision regarding acceptance of transfer credit will be handled on a case by case basis during the admissions process.

All students should be aware that transfer of credit is always the responsibility of the receiving institution. If any student is interested in transferring credit hours from Bryan College to another institution, it is up to the student to check with that institution about their transfer credit policies and to determine what may possibly be transferred.

Admissions Requirements-DBA

Bryan College's Doctoral degree in Business Administration (DBA) has a competitive admissions process. Meeting the admission requirements does not guarantee acceptance into the program. The DBA Graduate Committee, when conducting admission reviews, may request additional documentation to evaluate a candidate's record before a final admissions decision can be made.

DBA admission requirements include:

- Completed application including a statement of intent & teaching philosophy
- Earned Master's degree from a regionally accredited college or university
- 3.0 minimum GPA at the graduate level
- Minimum of 30 graduate hours completed in business or related field
- Interview with DBA Director
- Students planning to use veterans' benefits are required to submit official transcripts from all previously attended institutions.

Applicants to all graduate programs are required to have access to the Internet, e-mail service, and proficiency with word processing software.

Admission Review & Notification

Once all application materials are received for admission, the candidate's application package will be reviewed and an acceptance decision made. Once the application review process is complete, applicants will be notified via email of an admission decision.

Transfer Credits

Only courses from institutions accredited by agencies recognized by the U.S. Department of Education are eligible for transfer credit. These include regional accrediting bodies such as the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools (SACS).

With approval, up to fifteen (15) semester hours of credits can be transferred into the DBA program. Transfer of coursework may be granted for the DBA program if the following requirements are met: (a) courses must be comparable to the level of coursework to the corresponding DBA (b) courses must carry a grade of at least a B; and (c) coursework must have been completed within the fifteen years prior to the student's date of admission.

It is the responsibility of each applicant to supply official transcripts along with a request to have the credit applied to the degree program. Students may be asked to submit the syllabus for any coursework being considered for transfer along with a rationale of why the student believes that the course meets the program's requirements.

Upon admission to the DBA program, students are required to read the Doctor of Business Administration Program Handbook. Students are required to read the handbook each year for updates and revisions. It is the student's responsibility to be familiar with and abide by the handbook policies and guidelines.

The Master of Arts in Christian Thought & Biblical Studies

The Master of Arts in Christian Thought & Biblical Studies is a 30 credit hour program delivered over approximately 18 months. The curriculum leads students through a continuum of key competencies and outcomes expected of graduates. This program is a holistic offering across the various disciplines of Christian Thought, including coursework from theology, apologetics, church history, and biblical studies. This high-utility program is well-suited for thoughtful Christian leaders looking to deepen their knowledge of scripture, Christian doctrine, and cultural engagement on difficult issues.

Programmatic Goals – Christian Thought & Biblical Studies

1. Students will identify key terminology, arguments, and ideas in Christian thought.
2. Students will model how to successfully express and defend the Christian worldview in varied cultural and ministerial settings.
3. Students will apply principles of hermeneutics and linguistic study to their own engagement with the biblical text, resulting both in commentary and original translation.

Master of Education (M.Ed.)

The Master of Education program is a 36 credit hour program that may be completed in approximately 18 months. The aim of the M.Ed. program is to offer advanced training to current teachers in areas related to curriculum development, assessment and evaluation, effective instructional strategies, leadership, and research-based decision making within the context of a Christian worldview. This deliberate approach integrates faith and learning to enhance each participant's ability to impact the students in their classroom in efforts to make a difference in their local community.

Programmatic Goals – Education

1. Appreciate diversity within various contexts of individual differences (academic ability, race and ethnicity, gender, and socioeconomic status)
2. Implement best instructional practices in the classroom including design of curriculum, classroom management, & applying developmentally appropriate strategies to enhance learning in the classroom
3. Collaborating with fellow educators while implementing leadership principles within the context of a school setting
4. Applying and conducting research.
5. Assessing student learning
6. Understanding the legal aspects of schooling

DOCTOR OF BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

Program Purpose

Students pursuing the Doctor of Business Administration (DBA) will gain knowledge and skills in the discipline of business administration in specific cognate areas that can be applied in current and future leadership roles.

Program Mission

To provide an opportunity for qualified students to attain academic, professional, and practical competence within the Biblical Worldview to prepare them for opportunities, and corresponding additional responsibilities, beyond the master's degree level. The DBA program emphasizes practical and real-world applications in both the course work and the research project requirements.

Program Vision

The DBA program intends to produce graduates with intellectual and professional characteristics deemed valuable by organizational leadership. These characteristics include the ability to:

1. defend arguments based on theories, concepts and empirical evidence in matters relating to research methodology and research design as well as those relating to the business disciplinary domain in which the research is located [relates to PLO 1,2, &3];
2. demonstrate the capacity for reflective and analytical business thinking [relates to PLO 1,3];
3. draw together relevant concepts and theories from different business disciplines in order to gain a better understanding of the organizational context in which particular problems or opportunities arise [relates to PLO 1,3];
4. analyze problems and issues arising in business and management contexts, utilizing relevant theories, concepts, and empirical findings [relates to PLO 1,2,3];
5. identify and analyze questions and issues in business [relates to PLO 2]; and
6. design, implement, and successfully conclude empirical research projects [relates to PLO 1, 2, & 3].
7. Each of the above will be considered in light of biblical principles, and be integrated within the Biblical Worldview [relates to PLO4]

PROGRAM LEARNING OUTCOMES

1. Evaluate current theoretical and applied research in business administration.
2. Recommend qualitative and quantitative analysis methods to perform effective business research.
3. Recommend solutions for the improvement of business and organizational practice based upon research, knowledge of the literature, and best practices.
4. Integrate a Christian Worldview into business functions.

Program Focus and Differentiation

Doctor of Business Administration (DBA) programs focus on research and the practical application of theory and knowledge to specific business problems. While they also prepare graduates for academic careers, a DBA program, with its focus on the application of theory and knowledge in business settings, is more geared towards business professionals.

DBA programs are considered professional doctorates. Professional doctoral degrees are designed for working professionals although individuals may pursue the education profession. Many professional doctoral candidates have significant real world experience and/or are currently working in their professional fields. For this reason, the research in DBA programs tends to be very business problem focused. The research approach for professional doctoral programs is the “engaged scholarship” model that focuses on topics at the intersection of theory and contemporary business issues.

Dissertation

The Dissertation is a comprehensive research project which adds to the body of business literature. The dissertation is expected to exhibit scholarship, reflect mastery of technique, and make a distinctive contribution to the field of business in which the candidate has specialized. A research chair is responsible for the general supervision and progression of the dissertation along with two other business faculty, one of which can be outside of Bryan College as an independent committee member, subject to approval by the Program Director. All committee members are to be approved by the Director of the DBA at Bryan College. All dissertation committee chairs should be faculty of Bryan College and approved by the Director of the DBA Program at Bryan College.

Dissertation Chair: The dissertation chair is an essential adviser who has the expertise to guide the student through the dissertation process. The chair will take on varying roles during the process, depending on the student, the topic, the research approach, or other factors. The chair will lead the candidate through each part of the dissertation and will work with the candidate in the selection of the methods, direction of the analysis and the ultimate outcome of the research. Regardless of the specific role, the chair is expected to regularly review candidate progress and serve as a mentor, working with the student to move the dissertation process forward. The chair will carefully review the dissertation proposal and chapters and provide detailed written comments to the candidate, be available to discuss these comments, and review any revisions prior to determining that the candidate is ready to move forward in the coursework or to present their research.

Grading

Doctoral students must earn a minimum grade of “B-” in all doctoral-level courses.

Grade of B minus: Students receiving a grade of ‘B minus’ in a course will be permitted to remain in the program, unless their cumulative GPA drops below 3.0. Grades of ‘C+’ or lower will not count towards graduation and will have to be repeated.

Cumulative GPA below 3.0: If a student’s cumulative GPA falls below 3.0 they will be placed on academic probation during the first semester the GPA is below 3.0. Students will have one semester to obtain a cumulative GPA of 3.0 or above. If their GPA remains lower than 3.0 a second semester, regardless of course grades, the student will be dismissed from the program for not maintaining an overall 3.0 GPA.

Additional information regarding coursework and a degree completion plan can be found at the Bryan’s website: www.bryan.edu/dba

Graduation Requirements – Master’s Program

1. Complete the required coursework with no less than a ‘C’ in each class. No more than two “C’s” are allowed. Credits used for one graduate degree/graduate program may not also be applied to a second graduate degree/graduate program.
2. Have a cumulative grade point average of at least 3.0 (on a 4.0 scale).
3. Fill out and submit the application for graduation along with the graduation fee.

Graduation Requirements – Doctoral Program

In addition to other regulations governing graduation, as stated in the Bryan College catalog, DBA students must meet the following requirements:

1. A minimum of 45 semester hours of DBA coursework must be taken through Bryan College.
2. Maintain an overall GPA of 3.0 to remain in the program.
3. Complete and pass the comprehensive exam.
4. Successfully complete and present an approved Dissertation.

Time Limits for Completing a Degree-Masters

Students must complete all degree requirements within four years of the date of enrollment in the first class after the student is admitted to the program. A student may petition for an extension due to extenuating circumstances.

Time Limits for Completing a Degree - DBA

The time limit for completing the degree from the date of enrollment in the DBA program is seven years. Only in unusual circumstances may the student be granted an extension.

Granting of an extension of time will usually result in additional requirements. Any student who does not complete coursework within the permissible time limit, for any reason including discontinued enrollment, must reapply for admission. A student may reapply only once, and will be subject to the current standards and curriculum.

Enrollment and Breaks in Enrollment

All DBA students are required to maintain enrollment in the DBA program. (1) Until students begin the dissertation phase, they are required to be enrolled in at least one course in each academic year (fall to summer); (2) Once doctoral candidates enter the research project phase, they are required to be enrolled in each semester (fall, spring, and summer) until graduation.

A student facing certain unforeseen circumstances may contact his or her professor to determine if assignment extensions are possible (as noted in the course syllabi or, if warranted, an incomplete in order to allow time to complete coursework). An incomplete cannot be granted for any of the doctoral research project courses.

In the event a student is facing such things as an extended illness or hospitalization, relocation due to employment, military obligations, or the death of an immediate family member, a break in enrollment will be considered and if warranted, granted by the DBA Program Director. The Director and the student will determine the length of the absence and develop a plan to return to the program (if applicable). The length of the break in enrollment will not count toward the student's seven-year completion requirement.

Application for Graduation

All candidates for graduate program degrees are required to complete an Application for Graduation and submit it to their Academic Adviser well in advance of the anticipated graduation date. Normally, by February 1 for May conferral, June 1 for August conferral, September 1 for December conferral. No student will be placed on the prospective graduation list until this application is on file in the Registrar's Office. The graduation fee (see "Graduation Fee" under Financial Information) should be submitted at least two weeks prior to the anticipated graduation date. The graduation fee must be paid whether the graduate participates in commencement activities or not.

There are three possible conferral dates each year (early May, late August and late December). There is one commencement ceremony each calendar year at the end of the spring semester. All grades must be posted and all official transcripts on file prior to the desired graduation date.

Commencement Participation

Commencement exercises are held in early May. All graduates are encouraged to participate in the commencement activities following the completion of the program of instruction and all graduation requirements. At the graduate level there are no Latin designations for honors.

Masters level students only: Since there is no ceremony in August students with one or two courses (a maximum of seven credits) outstanding may participate as candidates for graduation in the May ceremony provided they are registered at Bryan College for the outstanding courses (the seven-hour limit would include courses which are in progress) and have an approved plan to complete their program by August 31 of the same year. In no case, may a student participate in two commencement exercises for the same degree.

Academic Policy and Procedures

Graduate Programs

Policy on Catalog Changes and Course Schedules

Although this catalog is intended to give a realistic statement of admissions requirements and procedures, academic policy and practice, the program of instruction, expenses, financial aid programs, etc., the College reserves the right to make alterations as circumstances may require. For topics not addressed in the Graduate Studies section, please refer to the general section of the catalog.

Entering Catalog

The Academic Catalog which is current during the first term the student is enrolled and attending as a degree-seeking student contains the academic program requirements that the student is to follow. That catalog will remain open to the student as long as the student maintains continuous enrollment (up to four years) until the student either graduates or does not re-enroll for one or more terms. After a break in enrollment the student would need to apply for re-admission and return under the current academic catalog. Academic policy defines continuous enrollment as enrolling in both the fall and spring terms with either a full or part time load.

In the event that a program is discontinued. Students already pursuing that program will be able to complete that program under their entering catalog as long as they maintain continuous enrollment. However, students will not be able to change to a program that has been discontinued.

Registration

Students will normally be registered for courses at least three weeks prior to the start of a course or the term. The term will be made official five days following the first day of the first course that a student is registered for in the term. Attendance and participation (online participation is defined as one of the following: a quiz attempt, a discussion post, submission of an assignment or completion of a formal check-in assignment) in the first five days of the first course in a term is required for the term to be made official. Under normal circumstances, no course will be offered unless there is an enrollment of at least seven persons.

Academic Load

A full-time load at the graduate level is 6 semester hours during the regular fall and spring semester which equates to 3 hours per 8 week term. With the Dean's approval a student, who is strong academically, may be able to enroll in 9 or 12 hours per semester. Students cannot exceed 6 hours in a given 8 week term or 12 hours in a semester.

Late Work Policy

At the graduate level, late work will not be accepted. Special circumstances (e.g. death in the family, personal health issues) will be reviewed by the instructor of the course and the Dean on a case-by-case basis.

Official Means of Communication

All enrolled students are issued a Bryan College email account. Students are responsible for monitoring this email account on a regular basis and are responsible for information from Bryan College that is communicated in this way. Emails sent to a student's @bryan.edu account from Bryan College Administration, faculty, and staff are considered official College communication.

Attendance Policies

Regular weekly attendance is expected throughout the length of each course. Attendance will be reported weekly by the instructor for the purposes of grading submitted work and establishing a final grade for each student.

Census date – the college finalizes enrollment/number of credits/charges

Unofficial – a course or term is not finalized and charges are not locked in

Official – once a student has participated in the first session of the term, all charges for the entire term are locked in and making changes may have financial implications for the student.

Online participation – any one of the following: a quiz attempt, a discussion post, submission of an assignment, or completion of a formal check-in assignment.

1. The census date is five calendar days after the beginning of each session. On the census date if the student has not participated in the course(s) or contacted the Academic Adviser the student will be considered a “no-show”.

a. Unofficial – all unofficial courses will be dropped

b. Official – if a student has not participated the course may be dropped. Financial Aid will likely be impacted and the student will have to declare his/her intent for the remaining courses in the term. Student remains financially responsible for the course(s).

2. Out of Attendance: A student can miss two weeks of an eight week course and remain in the course. If a student is marked absent three or more times during the course, he/she may be withdrawn from the course up through the end of the fifth week. Following the fifth week a final grade will be earned.

3. Voluntarily Withdraw: A student can voluntarily withdraw from a course and receive a “W” up through the end of the fifth week of an eight-week course. Contact the Academic Adviser for more information.

4. Following the fifth week of an eight week course a student will receive a final earned letter grade for the course whether he/she chooses to finish the course or not.

5. If a student is withdrawn for being out of attendance in a course that is in official there will be no refund of tuition. Students determined to be out of attendance, or who voluntarily withdraw, will still be responsible for tuition.

6. Students must notify their Academic Adviser in writing by email should they need to withdraw from a course. A withdrawal form will need to be completed in order to complete the withdrawal process. If a student is withdrawing from the last course in the term a notation regarding this withdrawal will be noted on the official transcript.

7. Students who have not completed financial aid forms and paid tuition for the term by the end of the first course may be administratively withdrawn from term.

8. Full Tuition Refund: There is only one way for students to voluntarily drop and receive a 100% tuition refund for all courses that they are registered for in a term. To receive a 100% refund, students must notify their Academic Adviser in writing via email prior to the official start date of the term. A term is made official when the student has attended and/or participated in the first week of the first course(s) in a term.

For classes which are shorter or longer than the usual eight week format the withdrawal policies are prorated accordingly.

There will be no refund of tuition for courses that are dropped, or in which the student withdraws or is withdrawn, when the course or courses are in a term that is official and in progress. Prior to withdrawing from a course or courses, students should contact Financial Services to determine the financial impact withdrawing from a course or courses(s) may have on financial aid and/or billing.

Satisfactory Academic Progress

Students must demonstrate satisfactory academic progress toward completion of their program of study in order to maintain eligibility for enrolling in classes. The qualitative standard for academic progress requires that students must maintain a cumulative grade point average of 3.0 or higher. Also, see the section on Student Financial Assistance regarding maintaining eligibility for financial aid.

Academic Probation

Should the cumulative grade point average of a student fall below 3.0, the student will be placed on academic probation. Students must earn a minimum of a 3.0 cumulative gpa in the probationary term (6 credit hours) before he/she can be registered for the subsequent term. If conditions of probation are not met, the student will be dismissed. Further stipulations may be outlined in the notification letter.

Academic Dismissal

A student on probation who fails to remove probationary status as prescribed by the Dean may be dismissed from the program. Consideration will be given to the student's continuance only if the student has shown sufficient improvement in academic performance during the probationary term to indicate a good probability of success toward graduation. Should a student's grade point average fall to a point where there is no reasonable possibility of bringing it to the level required for graduation, the student will be dismissed. A student dismissed for academic reasons may apply for re-admission after six months from the date of dismissal, but will be re-admitted only on the approval of the Vice President of Academics & Provost.

Additionally, applicants who knowingly submit inaccurate, misleading, and/or falsified documents, which would include the omission of information and/or documents, during the admissions process would be referred to the Dean or Vice President of Academics & Provost. Such actions would be grounds for dismissal.

Withdrawal from the Program

To withdraw from the program, students must notify their Academic Adviser by completing a withdrawal form. Prior to withdrawing from the program, students should contact the Financial Services to determine the financial impact withdrawing from the program may have on financial aid and/or billing.

Application for Re-admission Following Withdrawal from the Program

Should a student desire to re-apply to a graduate program following a student-initiated withdrawal from the program, it is required that he/she submit an application for re-admission to that graduate program. In addition to the application for re-admission, the student must also submit a current resume, a $50.00 non-refundable re-admission fee, and official transcripts from any school attended since he/she was last enrolled in that graduate program. Re-admission will be based upon a review of all re-admission materials. Should the time between withdrawal and re-admission be such that the program requirements have changed, the student would be admitted under the new requirements and any deficiencies would have to be satisfied. If the student is being considered for conditional re-admission, he/she may be required to complete additional documentation before the application will be reviewed.

Administrative Withdrawal from the Program

Should a student miss a minimum of three consecutive class meetings or three consecutive weeks of attendance (in one course or in two courses back to back) with no notification to the Academic Adviser and without completing the withdrawal form, that student may be administratively withdrawn from the program. Should a student, who has been Administratively Withdrawn from the program, decide at some time to continue the program, it would be necessary to appeal to re-apply to the program. The Admissions Office would assist with that process. Appeals must be approved by the Dean before the student would be allowed to continue. There will be no refund of tuition for courses that are dropped, or in which the student is withdrawn, when the course or courses are in a term that is official and in progress.

Repeating a Course – Masters Level

Repeating a course for the purpose of improving a grade is possible. At this level, courses may only be attempted a total of two times. A repeated course with the corresponding grade will appear on the student's academic transcript after the course is completed, but only the highest grade earned will be used in calculating the student's cumulative grade point average. In accordance with the graduation requirements, no more than two "C's" are allowed in the 12-course sequence. Tuition costs for the repeated class are the responsibility of the student.

Students receiving educational benefits from the Veterans Administration may not repeat a course previously passed solely for the purpose of improving the grade. To qualify for payment from the VA, the repeat must be required for graduation. A third attempt will not be eligible for any financial aid.

The Honor Code

The Christian Life Standards apply directly to the academic area through the Bryan College Honor Code. The Honor Code is simply stated: "Every student shall be honor bound to refrain from cheating (including plagiarism). Every student shall be honor bound to refrain from stealing. Every student shall be honor bound to refrain from lying. Any violation of this Honor Code can result in dismissal from the College." The Bryan College Honor Code is designed to enhance academic uprightness on the campus. However, in the event that a student engages in activity relating to dishonesty in their academics, they will be subject to outcomes explained below.

Academic Dishonesty

Students are expected to submit their own work and engage in their own research. The Community Life Standards and Bryan College Honor Code apply, but are not limited to, three specific areas in academics; plagiarism, cheating and falsification. The honor code defines cheating as using any resource that was not authorized by your professor. With that, the use of an Artificial Intelligence (AI) tool, such as but not limited to ChatGPT, without the consent of your professor is considered to be cheating and a violation of the honor code.

Plagiarism

In regard to plagiarism, the Chicago Manual of Style (2003) states "with all reuse of others' materials, it is important to identify the original as the source." (p. 136). Even when one uses other people's thoughts or concepts without crediting them as the source they have stolen intellectual work. It is plagiarism to turn in any previously submitted work without the current professor's prior written permission; without the prior permission, this will be considered self-plagiarism.

It is not plagiarism to quote material from a book, article, or web site as long as the author or source of the material is properly cited. Similarly, it is not plagiarism to copy a chart or a diagram from such a source, as long as the source is clearly credited. It is plagiarism to copy verbatim or closely paraphrase a chart or illustration, or material from any book, article, or web site without clearly identifying the source from which it was obtained.

Plagiarism is the intentional failure to give sufficient attribution to the words, ideas, or data of others that the student has incorporated into his/her work for the purpose of misleading the reader. In some cases, a student may be careless and fail to give credit to the words, ideas or data of others. In such situations, plagiarism has still occurred, but the professor may choose a sanction as deemed appropriate. In order to avoid plagiarism, students must conscientiously provide sufficient attribution. Attribution is sufficient if it adequately informs and, therefore, does not materially mislead a reasonable reader as to the true source of the words, ideas, or data. Students who have any doubt as to whether they have provided sufficient attribution have the responsibility to obtain guidance from their professor or other person to whom they are submitting their work.

Plagiarism in papers, projects or any assignment prepared for a class shall include the following:

- Omitting quotation marks or other conventional markings around material quoted from any printed source (including digital material)
- Directly quoting or paraphrasing a specific passage from a specific source without properly referencing the source
- Replicating another person's work or parts thereof and then submitting it as an original
- Purchasing a paper (or parts of a paper) and representing it as one's own work

Cheating

Cheating is a form of dishonesty in which a student gives the appearance of a level of knowledge or skill that the student has not obtained, provides unauthorized aid, or wrongly takes advantage of another's work.

Examples include, but are not limited to:

- Copying from another person's work on an examination or an assignment
- Allowing another student to copy any portion of one's work on an examination or an assignment
- Using unauthorized materials or giving or receiving any other unauthorized assistance on an examination or an assignment
- Taking an examination or completing an assignment for another, or permitting another to take an examination or to complete an assignment for the student.
- Reusing a paper from a previous course
- Paying another student to complete a course, an individual assignment or exam

Falsification

Falsification is a form of dishonesty in which a student misrepresents the truth, invents facts, or distorts the origin or content of information used as authority. Examples include, but are not limited to:

- Dishonestly answering or providing information in the application process
- Citing a source that is known not to exist
- Attributing to a source ideas and information that are not included in the source
- Falsely citing a source in support of a thought or idea when it is known not to support the thought or idea
- Citing a source in a bibliography when the source was neither cited in the body of the paper nor consulted
- Intentionally distorting the meaning or applicability of data
- Inventing data or statistical results to support conclusions

Academic Implications of the Bryan College Honor Code

The Bryan College Honor Code is the expectation that each student is operating with full integrity - both inside and outside the classroom. As a reminder of this commitment, students must pledge to abide by the Honor Code in every class, use of the Learning Management System (LMS) to submit coursework is an inherent pledge the student is abiding by the Honor Code. The pledge means that, except where noted or when work is expected to be done jointly, the academic work submitted is that person's alone.

Violations & Appeals Procedure

To ensure a uniform, standardized process, all incidents of academic dishonesty will be reported by faculty using the Honor Code Violation Form. The Honor Code Violation Form will be submitted to the Dean, where decisions on student standing in regard to each reported event will be determined. The Honor Code Violation Form will become part of the official student record. Students who are found to be in violation of the Honor Code will face the following discipline as a minimum.

Upon the identification or perception of academic dishonesty, the faculty member will communicate with the student in writing – via email or the LMS. This communication will initiate either academic coaching or the referral process, and will require a meeting between the faculty and the student to review the academic dishonesty occurrence. Traditional undergraduate student meetings will occur no more than five business days after the initial communication. Bryan College online student meetings will occur no more than ten business days after the initial communication. Should a student fail to meet with the faculty member within a week of the faculty member's communication, this will result in an official referral for academic dishonesty/misconduct via the Honor Code Violation Form.

After an academic dishonesty violation has been reported, all stakeholders will receive notice from their Dean. The student has the right to appeal the accusation and the resulting sanction using the form provided in the notice. The appeal form must be completed within five business days of receiving notification regarding an honor code violation. The faculty member and Dean will review the appeal, and a decision will be forwarded to the student within five business days of receipt of student appeal. Appeals made after the 5-day window will not be considered valid.

Honor Code Offense Tiers

Faculty are to indicate the corresponding Tier in the Honor Code Violation Form. See below for the definition of the four Tiers, including limited examples.

Tier- 0: Coaching - For plagiarism only

Faculty are to coach the student about the improper writing incident and include coaching information in the Honor Code Violation form. Plagiarism within this document is defined as a small, isolated violation, e.g., in one or two brief parts of the paper, the student fails to acknowledge a source, leaves out quotation marks, or fails to change the wording and sentence structure of a paraphrase sufficiently—an offense that seems to be a result of momentary carelessness, a misunderstanding about documentation, or not having sufficiently developed the skill of paraphrasing.

Tier-1: Opportunistic honor code violation

Failing to cite several sentences worth of material in a paper or incorrectly citing sources.

Tier-2: Premeditated honor code violation

Such as a student submitting another's assignment as their own or cheating on a test. Tier-2 violations automatically escalate to Offense Level 2.

Tier-3: Severe honor code violation

Such as paying another to complete school work or gaining access to a grade book and making changes. Tier-3 violations automatically escalate to Offense Level 3 or 4.

Honor Code Offense Levels

Offense Level 0

The student will be penalized 10% of the total grade earned on the assignment. The faculty member will meet with the student and provide coaching on how to correct the deficiency within the timeframe mentioned above. The professor may also require the student to make an appointment at the Writing Support Center in the ARC to work on these skills.

After two instances of Tier 0 coaching the student will be required to go to the ARC for support and future instances will automatically move to a Tier 1/Level 1 violation.

Offense Level 1

Proportional reduction of points on the assignment or course. Academic shareholders are notified

Offense Level 1 referrals may require the student to (a) complete an online training module and, in instances of plagiarism, (b) meet with a designated ARC representative to ensure adequate understanding of the offense (academic writing tutoring will be encouraged).

Offense Level 2 - Automatic failure of assignment. Academic shareholders are notified.

Offense Level 2 or higher offenses may also require students to (a) complete an online training module; (b) meet with a designated ARC representative to ensure student understanding; (c) academic writing tutoring and follow-up meetings with a designated ARC representative will be required, and (d) meet with their respective dean.

Offense Level 3 – Course Failure. Academic shareholders are notified.

Offense Level 4 – Suspension from the College. Academic shareholders are notified.

Offense Level 5 – Expulsion from the College. Academic shareholders are notified.

Transcript of Record

The registrar keeps on file a permanent record of all credit earned by each student. Transcripts of record are issued only upon receipt of a written request signed by the student in accordance with the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act. Before an official transcript will be issued, the student's financial obligations at the college must have been met, and there must be no record that the student is in default status on any student loan. A $10 fee is currently being charged for each official transcript providing it can be reproduced in the normal course of business. Transcripts required in 48 hours or less will incur an additional charge plus the cost of USPS Overnight service. Transcript requests may also be submitted electronically through the National Student Clearinghouse.

End of Course

Students may view the start and end date of a course that they are registered for in a term through their MyBryan account. Following the end date of a course, assignments will not be accepted unless prior arrangements have been made with the instructor. Final grades will typically be posted within one week after the end of the course and may be viewed through a student's MyBryan account.

Disability Services

For students with disabilities (as defined by Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, as amended, and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990), Bryan College takes an individual, holistic approach in providing, as required by law, reasonable accommodations.

Eligible students must formally notify the College of their disability, either at the time of admission and before accommodations are requested at the beginning of each semester. The notification must be in writing, must include appropriate documentation, and must be submitted to the ADA Coordinator. Documentation required (to be obtained by the student at his/her expense) includes a formal evaluation by a physician or a professional who is able to diagnose the student's condition. The student will then meet with the ADA Coordinator to discuss what accommodations may be offered regarding specific needs and services.

Examples of alternative aids that may be appropriate include taped texts, note-takers, interpreters, readers (for test-taking only), additional time for tests, and alternative methods of assessment. The College is not required to supply students with attendants, individually prescribed devices such as hearing aids and wheelchairs, readers for personal use or study, other devices or services of a personal nature, or incompletes / extended semesters. The courts have also ruled that colleges are not required to lower the standards of any program, make fundamental alterations in the essential nature of a program, or assume undue financial or administrative burdens.

The campus ADA Coordinator considers a student's request and documentation and subsequently determines what specific services will be offered by the College. The Coordinator then provides the minimum expectations for accommodations. These accommodations are then provided to the student on a Syllabus Addendum form that student must take to the faculty of each course. A Syllabus Addendum must be completed and on file for each course within the first ten business days of the semester or within ten business days of a diagnosis/approval by the ADA coordinator. Once the basic provisions are deemed acceptable by both the faculty member and the student, the original signed copy must be turned in to the ADA Coordinator. If there are issues or concerns with the accommodations the student or his/her professor(s) may appeal the decision and will be provided a way for the grievance to be heard. For more information, please contact the ADA Coordinator, in the Office of Equity and Accessibility.

Exceptions to Academic Policies and Procedures

A petition for exception to academic regulations may be made by obtaining a Petition for Academic Exception form from your Academic Adviser. The completed form, signed by the student, is then considered for approval or denial. Once a decision has been made regarding the exception, the student will be notified by the Academic Adviser. If the student finds the outcome unsatisfactory, the student may appeal the decision to the Dean. A written response to the second appeal will be communicated to the student within 90 days of the second appeal.

GRADING PRACTICES AND STANDARDS

Graduate Programs

Definition of Grades Used

The grade of A is given for on-time work which fulfills course requirements at a superior level of performance and which manifests outstanding interest, effort, responsibility, and creativity.

(A = 4.0 Quality Points; A- = 3.7)

The grade of B is given for work which fulfills course requirements at an above average level of performance, and which manifests above average interest, effort, responsibility, and originality.

(B+ = 3.3 Quality Points; B = 3.0; B- = 2.7)

The grade of C is given for work which fulfills course requirements at an average level of performance, and which manifests an adequate interest, effort, responsibility, and improvement.

(C+ = 2.3 Quality Points; C = 2.0; C- = 1.7)

The grade of D is given for work which falls short of fulfilling course requirements at an average level of performance, and which manifests a lack of interest, effort, responsibility, or which shows a need for improvement.

(D+ = 1.3 Quality Points; D = 1.0; D- = 0.7)

The grade of F indicates failure, carries no credit, and is given for work that fails to meet minimum course requirements.

(F = 0.0 Quality Points)

W - Withdrawn from course

Graduate Studies Grading Scale

The grading scale used for all graduate-level courses is listed below:

A 93% - 100%	C 73% - 75.99%
A- 90% - 92.99%	C- 70% - 72.99%
B+ 86% - 89.99%	D+ 66% - 69.99%
B 83% - 85.99%	D 63% - 65.99%
B- 80% - 82.99%	D- 60% - 62.99%
C+ 76% - 79.99%	F less than 60%

Incomplete Grades

The grade of I, for incomplete, is given only when extended illness or other emergency circumstances beyond the student's control prevent the student from completing the course requirements. Students who are approved for an incomplete in a graduate course are required to complete course work within eight weeks from the last day of the course unless an extension is approved by the instructor and the Dean. After this period, if the student fails to complete the course requirements, the I will be changed to an F and is recorded on the student's transcript. Requests for an incomplete grade in a course must be submitted in writing to the Academic Adviser prior to the end date of the course.

Student Services

Student Complaint Procedure - Academic

Complaints that cannot be mediated by the instructor of the course in question are submitted in writing for review by the Dean. Decisions that do not satisfy a student may then be submitted in writing to the Graduate Appeals Committee. Student complaints must be submitted within 90 days of the event, and student complaints will be addressed within 120 days of the event.

Technology Information

Students are required to use computers for several essential tasks in this program regularly. First, all students are issued a Bryan College email account, and it is required that students check their Bryan email frequently. Second, all courses make extensive use of a supplemental virtual learning environment called BrightSpace. Students will need stable access to the Internet to use BrightSpace. Weekly course materials, syllabi, and/or online assignments/exams are distributed or administered through BrightSpace.

Students will need a computer with audio speakers, Microsoft Office (Word, Excel, PowerPoint), Adobe Reader, internet access, printer. Students will be expected to exhibit skills in electronic communication, word processing, document development, internet use, media-enhanced presentation, and electronic library research and will receive access to training online tutorials, library resource instruction, and the Academic Resource Center.

Minimum hardware/software requirements:

The IT department for Bryan College has compiled a list of minimum recommended hardware and software. Students are encouraged to own personal computers that meet these recommended hardware and software guidelines. Students can download a free version of Microsoft Office by visiting portal.office.com and signing in with the Bryan email and password.

A webcam may be required for some courses.

Personal Computer: Manufactured within the last six years; 8+ GB RAM

Operating system: Current version of Microsoft Windows (or no older than the previous two versions) with Microsoft updates applied on a regular basis

Broadband Internet connection

Web browser: Current version of Mozilla Firefox or Google Chrome

Software for PCs: Microsoft Word and Excel and a PDF viewer (e.g., Adobe Reader). Other software or browser plugins may be required at the discretion of the instructor in support of course activities or completion.

Virus Protection Software is strongly recommended (free programs are available from Microsoft, Avast, AVG, Pandasoft, and others)

Mac: Manufactured within the last 6 years running a version of Mac OS that is supported by Apple (current or no older than the previous two versions) with security updates applied on a regular basis

Broadband Internet connection

Web browser: Current version of Mozilla Firefox or Google Chrome

Software for Macs: Microsoft Word and Excel, a PDF reader (e.g., built-in Apple Preview or Adobe Reader), other software or browser plugins or may be required at the discretion of the instructor in support of course activities or completion.

Virus Protection Software is strongly recommended (free programs are available from Sophos, Avast, Avira, AVG, and others)

Audit (per credit hour)	$85.00

Tuition Payment Schedule

Tuition for each term is due before the first day of class. An email will be sent to your Bryan email address at the time of registration and after financial aid has been applied. Students can review incomplete financial aid documents through their MyBryan account. Course registration may be cancelled if payment is not received in full by the due date for the given term. Pending financial aid may be used to cover a balance.

Payment plans are an automatic service provided for students upon request. There is a fee to use the payment plan tool and payments will be set to automatically process. Plans can be set up to have the payments for different lengths of time depending on when the student signs up. If the student's account is not clear by the end of each term, s/he will not be allowed to register for future courses, or if the degree has been completed, the diploma will be held by the College until the balance is paid in full.

Master Payment Agreement

Students will be required to complete the Master Payment Agreement every school year, certifying the means by which they will pay for their tuition and agreeing to take upon themselves the consequences of non-payment.

General Financial Information

Any obligations, including miscellaneous charges, incurred during the term must be paid before the term concludes. No academic credentials (grade reports, transcripts of record, or diploma) will be issued to the student until all financial obligations are satisfied. Failure to receive a bill does not exempt a student from the timely payment of all charges. All billing information can be reviewed through the student's MyBryan account or by calling the Financial Services Office at Bryan College.

Textbooks

Most masters level textbooks are available in a digital format as a rental. The cost will be charged to the student account as a course materials fee or lab fee. Students who choose to opt out of this provided service during the first week of classes are responsible for obtaining the required materials. There are classes where textbooks aren't available in a digital format. In those cases, students are responsible for obtaining the required materials

Financial Aid Graduate Programs

Student Financial Assistance for Graduate Programs

The purpose of financial aid at Bryan College is to provide financial assistance to students who, without such aid, would be unable to attend college. The college is able to fulfill this purpose by participating in federal student aid programs.

Sources of Financial Aid for Graduate Students

- Employee benefits
- Federal Stafford Loan
- Graduate Assistant Internships
- Private loans
- Scholarships funded by foundations or private entities
- Veterans' benefits

The Bryan Difference Maker (MA, MBA, MEd)

Students earning a bachelor's degree from Bryan College may be eligible for up to 36 hours of graduate credit tuition free. Contact the Financial Aid Office for eligibility criteria. Qualified students must enroll in a graduate program immediately following the completion of the bachelor's degree and then must maintain continuous enrollment in graduate courses without any withdrawals or drops from official courses. Students will be responsible for any fees and textbook costs. Hours attempted beyond those required for the designated degree program will be the responsibility of the student. Students must maintain a graduate cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher in order to continue to receive the scholarship.

Graduate Assistant Internship

Students may be eligible for up to 36 hours of graduate tuition in exchange for working for the school. They will be required to complete an application provided by the financial aid office. The position and the student must be approved by the GAI committee and the finance office. Those wishing to utilize the GAI must identify themselves to the financial aid office to begin the application process. Students will be responsible for any fees and textbook/course materials costs. Hours attempted beyond those required for the designated degree program will be the responsibility of the student. Students must maintain a graduate cumulative GPA of 3.0 or higher in order to continue to receive the scholarship.

Application Process

A completed application for financial aid at Bryan College includes the following:

1. Formal acceptance for admission to Bryan College as a regular degree-seeking student.
2. Completion and submission of the FAFSA (Free Application for Federal Student Aid). Indicate Bryan College as one of the colleges you would like to attend. The school code of the College, 003536, should be used on the form.

Financial Aid Policies

1. Financial aid is awarded for one academic year, usually for three terms (fall, spring and summer). Aid eligibility is re-evaluated each year, and a new FAFSA must be submitted annually.
2. A financial aid recipient must be accepted for admissions, pursuing a qualified degree, have remaining eligibility per program, and enrolled at least half time. The student expense budget, built under federal regulations, will include the cost of tuition, fees, books, and etc.
3. If a student is selected for verification by Bryan College or by the federal processor, additional information may be requested to verify the information listed on the FAFSA. Refusal to submit required documentation could result in the cancellation of financial aid. All forms must be signed and dated and returned before financial aid is awarded.
4. Disbursement of federal funds is contingent upon Congressional appropriation and upon receipt of the funds by Bryan College.
5. A student who accepts student loans as part of a financial aid package must complete other steps before the loan can be a credit on account. These include, but are not limited to: completion of loan entrance counseling and promissory note.
6. Students should report in writing to the Financial Aid Office any additional aid which he or she receives from outside sources (loans, outside scholarships, etc.).
7. Students who withdraw from the college must notify the Financial Aid Office prior to the time of withdrawal.
8. The Financial Aid Office reserves the right on behalf of the College to review and change an award at any time because of changes in financial situation or academic status, or change of academic program.
9. The Financial Aid Office first awards loans in the exact amount that the student needs to cover the costs of his classes. If students are eligible for extra loans to provide a refund, they must submit that request to the financial aid office, by email, by the Stafford Loan Request form on the Bryan College website, or by phone.

Additional Information

1. It is the student's responsibility to be aware of the Satisfactory Academic Progress Standard.
2. Renewal of financial aid is also dependent on punctual, accurate reapplication and availability of funding sources.
3. When the FAFSA is processed, students will receive a Student Aid Report. This report should be kept with other financial aid papers for reference.

Satisfactory Academic Progress for Financial Aid

Financial Aid recipients must demonstrate through their scholastic records that they are making satisfactory academic progress toward completion of their program(s) of study in order to maintain eligibility for enrolling in classes and receiving any form of federal financial assistance. Academic progress for financial aid is measured at the end of every term utilizing the following qualitative and quantitative standards.

Qualitative Standards

This standard measures a student's quality of performance in terms of courses successfully completed and must maintain a cumulative grade point average (GPA) of 3.0.

Quantitative Standards

This standard has two components: maximum time frame and course completion rate. The maximum time frame in which a student must complete a program of study cannot exceed 150 percent of the published program length measured in credit hours attempted. Example: A student, pursuing a degree that contains 36 hours, would be allowed to attempt a maximum of 54 hours [36×150 percent $(1.5) = 54$]. The number of hours attempted includes any transfer hours accepted from other institutions that are applied to the student's program of study. In conjunction with the maximum program length, students must successfully complete (measured as credit hours earned) at least 66.67 percent of all coursework attempted as they progress through their program of study. This is a cumulative process, illustrated as follows: A student has maintained satisfactory academic progress for the first two terms of enrollment. However, at the end of the third term the student's academic transcript indicates 36 hours attempted and 21 hours earned. The course completion rate is 58.3 percent (21 divided by 36). The student does not meet the required 66.67 percent standard and thus will be placed on Financial Aid Warning for the following term.

Financial Aid Warning

A student who does not meet satisfactory academic progress standards at the end of a particular term is placed on Financial Aid Warning for the following term, during which the student is eligible to receive financial aid. If the student meets the standards at the end of the warning term, the student is removed from Financial Aid Warning status and maintains financial aid eligibility. If the student does not meet the standards at the end of the warning term, the student is placed on Financial Aid Suspension.

Financial Aid Suspension

A student on Financial Aid Suspension is not eligible for any form of institutional or federal financial assistance and remains ineligible until satisfactory academic progress standards are met.

Financial Aid Appeal Process

Students placed on financial aid suspension can appeal to the Financial Aid Committee for financial aid reinstatement. The appeal must be submitted in writing to the Financial Aid Office and be accompanied by appropriate supporting documents if necessary. Reasons that may be acceptable for the appeal are: 1) serious illness or accident on the part of the student; 2) death, accident or serious illness in the immediate family; 3) financial difficulties forcing incomplete and premature withdrawal; 4) other extenuating circumstances directly affecting academic performance. Approval of an appeal places the student on Financial Aid Probation for one term. The student must meet satisfactory academic progress standards by the end of the probationary period (unless an academic plan has been put in place) or be placed on Financial Aid Suspension.

Withdrawal Policies

Students are encouraged to contact the Financial Aid Office if they are intending to withdraw from courses to see what the financial consequences will be.

Withdrawal from the College

To withdraw from the college, students must notify their Academic Adviser by completing the Withdrawal Form. Withdrawal from the program will jeopardize any financial aid for the remainder of that academic year (these regulations have been set by the federal and state governments).

Verifying Full Time Enrollment

When the Registrar's Office is asked to verify full time enrollment for a student, that office is required to use the last date in class as the last day of attendance. The student has a grace period of six months after the last day of class attendance before repayment of Stafford loans must begin.

A student receiving financial aid who anticipates withdrawing should contact the Financial Aid Office regarding the implications of such action.

There will be no refund of tuition for courses that are dropped, or in which the student withdraws or is withdrawn, when the course or courses are in a term that is official and in progress. Prior to withdrawing from a course or courses in a term, students should contact Financial Services to determine the financial impact withdrawing from a course or courses(s) may have on financial aid and/or billing.

Upon withdrawal from the program the amount of Title IV and other financial aid, which must be returned to a program source, will be calculated and charges will be adjusted by the amount of aid earned. The calculation for return of Title IV aid is a federally mandated formula and is based on the percentage of completed course time.

Return of Title IV Aid for Graduate Studies Program Withdrawals

The financial aid office calculates federal financial aid eligibility and Military Tuition Assistance (TA) for students who withdraw, drop out, or are dismissed prior to completing 60.01% of a semester. The federal funds calculation and TA calculation are done independently of one another and are done prior to and apart from the institutional funds calculation. Refund/repayment calculations are based on the percent of earned aid using the following formula:

$$\text{Percent earned} = \frac{\text{\# of days completed up to withdrawal date}}{\text{total days in the semester}}$$

Federal financial aid is returned to the federal government based on the percentage of unearned aid using the following formula: Federal aid to be returned = 100% - % earned. When federal financial aid is returned, the student may owe a balance to the College. A student who believes that mitigating circumstances warrant exceptions from the above stated refund policy may submit, within 15 days of the student's withdrawal date, a written appeal to: Financial Services, Bryan College, 721 Bryan Drive, Dayton, TN 37321.

Military Tuition Assistance

Military Tuition Assistance (TA) is awarded to a student under the assumption that the student will attend school for the entire period for which the assistance is awarded. It is the responsibility of the student to inform Bryan College of TA eligibility and provide appropriate documentation for each course prior to the start of the term. When a student withdraws, the student may no longer be eligible for the full amount of TA funds originally awarded. Bryan College will return any unearned TA funds on a proportional basis through at least the 60% portion of the period for which the funds were provided to that member's appropriate service branch. TA funds are earned proportionally during an enrollment period, with unearned funds returned based upon when a student stops attending.

If a service member stops attending due to a military service obligation, and the service member notifies the school of his/her obligation, Bryan College will work with the affected service member to identify solutions that will not result in a student debt for the returned portion.

LEAD 520 Leadership Communication (3 credits)

This course offers students an opportunity to evaluate and utilize numerous communications options to develop an authentic, powerful, leadership voice using interpersonal, technology-mediated, and intercultural communications competencies and techniques. From these discussions students have an opportunity to develop a personal model for leadership communication and define an action plan for their growth in powerful leadership communications.

LEAD 521 Models of Leadership (3 credits)

This course reviews contemporary leadership theory and models, emphasizing recent evidence-based practices. Students will participate in practical opportunities to design individual leadership models as well as expand, apply, and analyze their own leadership knowledge, skills, and abilities.

THEO 519 Systematic Theology (3 credits)

This course is a survey and systematic study of the major biblical doctrines that have dominated the history of Christian thought. Topics include the nature and methods of doing theology (Prolegomena); revelation and Scripture (Bibliology); the nature of God (Theology Proper, Trinity, Christology, Pneumatology); the work of God (Creation, Providence, Miracles, Angelology); humanity, sin, and salvation (Anthropology, Hamartiology, Soteriology); the church (Ecclesiology); and the future (Eschatology).

THEO 524 Ecclesiology (3 credits)

An exegetical and theological study, this course will focus upon key passages from the New Testament and trace the development of the church's thinking about itself. Although the course will consider historical questions, it is primarily concerned with the understanding of the church as presented in the New Testament and how this ecclesiology might impact present conceptions of the church, worldviews and apologetics.
